

1875, reporting that the whole of the property of the bankrupts has been realized for the benefit of their creditors, and that after payment of the taxed bill of costs of the Solicitor to the proceedings and other payments as per statement thereunto annexed, the whole of the assets of the said bankrupts' estate have been disposed of, and there is no estate wherewith to declare a dividend among the creditors of the said bankrupts, the said Bankrupts had no separate assets, nor were there any separate liabilities, and upon reading the report of the Official Assignee, dated the 24th day of September, 1875, and upon hearing Mr. Frederick Kent, Solicitor for William Iles, the Trustee, and the Court being satisfied that the whole of the property of the bankrupts has been realized for the benefit of their creditors, and that after payment of the taxed bill of costs of the Solicitor to the proceedings, and other payments as per statement thereunto annexed, the whole of the assets of the said bankrupts' estate have been disposed of, and there is no estate wherewith to declare a dividend among the creditors, and the said bankrupts had no separate assets, nor were there any separate liabilities, doth order and declare that the bankruptcy of the said Thomas Gibbs the elder and Thomas Gibbs the younger has closed.—Given under the Seal of the Court this 26th day of November, 1875.

The Bankruptcy Act, 1869.

In the London Bankruptcy Court.

In the Matter of Edward Burnand, of 518, Mile End-road, Middlesex, Pianoforte and Furniture Dealer, a Bankrupt.

Before Mr. Registrar Pepps, acting as Chief Judge.

UPON reading a report of the Registrar-Trustee of the property of the bankrupt, dated the 19th day of November, 1875, reporting that according to the accounts rendered to the Comptroller in Bankruptcy by the late Trustee he appears to have realised from the estate as follows:—Sale of stock £20; that it does not appear that there is any further property that can be realized for the benefit of the creditors, and that in his opinion it is expedient that the bankruptcy should be closed. Now, upon reading the proceedings in the bankruptcy, and the affidavit of William Humphreys, sworn the 25th day of November, 1875, and upon hearing Mr. Aldridge, the Official Solicitor acting on behalf of the Registrar-Trustee, and no creditor appearing to oppose, the Court being satisfied that according to the accounts rendered to the Comptroller in Bankruptcy by the late Trustee he appears to have realized from the estate as follows:—by sale of stock £20;—that it does not appear there is any further property that can be realised for the benefit of the creditors, doth order and declare that the bankruptcy of the said Edward Burnand has closed.—Given under the Seal of the Court this 3rd day of December, 1875.

The Bankruptcy Act, 1869.

In the London Bankruptcy Court.

In the Matter of George Meallin, of 144, New Kent-road, Surrey, Wine Merchant, a Bankrupt.

Before Mr. Registrar Pepps, acting as Chief Judge.

UPON reading a report of the Registrar-Trustee of the property of the bankrupt, dated the 16th day of November, 1875, reporting that the statement of affairs filed by the bankrupt does not disclose any property which could be realized for the benefit of the creditors; that it has not been brought to the knowledge of the said Registrar-Trustee that the bankrupt was possessed of any property at the date of the adjudication other than some furniture, which produced the sum of £5, or that he has since acquired any property which could be realized for the benefit of the creditors, and that in his opinion it is expedient that the bankruptcy should be closed; now, upon reading the proceedings in the bankruptcy and the affidavit of Archibald Reid, sworn the 24th day of November, 1875, and upon hearing Mr. Aldridge, the Official Solicitor acting on behalf of the said Registrar-Trustee, and no person appearing to oppose, the Court being satisfied that the statement of affairs filed by the bankrupt does not disclose any property which could be realized for the benefit of the creditors, that it has not been brought to the knowledge of the said Registrar-Trustee that the bankrupt was possessed of any property at the date of the adjudication other than some furniture which produced the sum of £5, or that he has since acquired any property that could be realized for the benefit of the creditors, doth order and declare that the bankruptcy of the said George Meallin has closed.—Given under the Seal of the Court this 27th day of November, 1875.

The Bankruptcy Act, 1869.

In the County Court of Somersetshire, holden at Bath. In the Matter of Sir Simeon Stuart, late of No. 22, Brock-street, Bath, in the county of Somerset, but now of No. 29, Saint James's-square, Bath aforesaid, a Bankrupt.

UPON reading a report of the Trustee of the property of the bankrupt, dated the 30th day of November, 1875, reporting that so much of the property of the bankrupt as could according to the joint opinion of himself and the Registrar of the Court acting in lieu of a Committee of Inspection be realized without needlessly protracting the bankruptcy had been realized, and the Court being satisfied that such property has been so realized, doth order and declare that the bankruptcy of the said Sir Simeon Stuart has closed.—Given under the Seal of the Court this 2nd day of December, 1875.

The Bankruptcy Act, 1869.

In the County Court of Yorkshire, holden at Dewsbury. In the Matter of George Wade, of Leeds and Morley, both in the county of York, Rag and Mungo Merchant, a Bankrupt.

UPON reading a report of the Trustee of the property of the bankrupt, dated the 2nd day of December, 1875, reporting that the whole of the property of the bankrupt has been realized for the benefit of the creditors, and dividends to the amount of one shilling and nine pence and one-eighth of a penny in the pound, have been paid to the creditors of the said bankrupt, the Court being satisfied that the whole of the property of the bankrupt has been realized for the benefit of his creditors, and dividends to the amount of one shilling and nine pence and one-eighth of a penny in the pound have been paid, doth order and declare that the bankruptcy of the said George Wade has closed.—Given under the Seal of the Court this 2nd day of December, 1875.

The Bankruptcy Act, 1869.

In the County Court of Westmorland, holden at Kendal. In the Matter of Robert Abbotson, of Burton in Kendal, in the county of Westmorland, Gardener, a Bankrupt.

UPON reading a report of the Trustee of the property of the bankrupt, dated the 23rd day of November, 1875, reporting that since the adjudication of the said bankrupt he had not nor had any person by his order or for his use received or paid any sum of money on account of the bankrupt's estate, that the reason why he had not received any sum of money on account of the said estate was that there never was any sum of money due to the said estate from any person whatsoever, or any property or effects belonging to the said estate, and that there was no prospect of any ever vesting in him, and that it was useless protracting the bankruptcy, the Court, being satisfied that no property or effects have ever vested in the Trustee, and that there is no prospect of any so doing, doth order and declare that the bankruptcy of the said Robert Abbotson has closed.—Given under the Seal of the Court this 4th day of December, 1875.

The Bankruptcy Act, 1869.

In the County Court of Kent, holden at Canterbury.

In the Matter of George Burgess, of Ramsgate, in the county of Kent, Bank Manager, a Bankrupt.

UPON reading a report of the Trustee of the property of the bankrupt, dated the 2nd day of December, 1875, reporting that the whole of the property of the bankrupt has been realized for the benefit of his creditors, and a dividend to the amount of eleven pence farthing in the pound has been paid, and the Court being satisfied that the whole of the property of the bankrupt has been realized for the benefit of his creditors, and that a dividend of eleven pence farthing in the pound has been paid, doth order and declare that the bankruptcy of the said George Burgess has closed.—Given under the Seal of Court this 4th day of December, 1875.

In the London Bankruptcy Court.

Pursuant to the Bankruptcy Repeal and Insolvent Court Act, 1869, and the several Acts for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in England.

In the Matter of William Carrel, an Insolvent Debtor, No. 70,970, C.

WHEREAS application is made to the Court for an Order to re-vest the estate in the said Insolvent Debtor, his heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, on the ground that all debts due from him at the date of his insolvency (in 1849) have been discharged and satisfied. All persons claiming to be creditors under this estate are required to furnish particulars of their claims to me, at the office of the said Court, No. 33, Lincoln's-in-fields, in the county of Middlesex, on or before the 11th day of December, 1875.

A. S. TWYFORD, Examiner.

NOTICE.

THE estates of A. Shillinglaw and Company, Commission Merchants, scmetime at 59, Union-street, Glasgow, now at 52, Virginia-street, Glasgow, and Andrew