SCHEDULE No. 5.

REGULATIONS AND CONDITIONS, &c., as to the Posting, forwarding, conveyance, and delivery of Postal Packets conveyed or delivered for conveyance by Post, as mentioned and described in Schedules Nos. 1, 2, 3, and 4.

General Regulations and Conditions.

1. Any postal packet posted in the United Kingdom, Malta, Gibraltar, or at either of the British Post Offices in Constantinople, Smyrna, Beyrout, Alexandria, and Suez respectively, addressed to any country or place mentioned in the first column of Part 1 of Schedule No. 1, or to the United Kingdom, may be registered, provided that all rates of postage and additional sums for registration chargeable thereon be fully prepaid.

2. There shall not be conveyed or delivered for conveyance by post to any country or place mentioned in the first column of Parts 1 and 2 of Schedule No. 1, any postal packet which shall contain either gold or silver money, any jewel or precious article, or any other article liable to customs duties in such countries or places respectively, and any such packet shall, if posted, be detained and returned or given up to the sender thereof.

3. There shall not be conveyed or delivered for conveyance by post to any country or place mentioned in the first column of Parts 1 and 2 of Schedule No. 1, any newspaper, packet of newspapers, or book packet exceeding two pounds in weight, nor any pattern or sample packet exceeding one-half of a pound in weight, and any such newspaper or packet shall, if posted, be detained and returned or given up to the sender thereof.

4. There shall not be conveyed or delivered for conveyance by post (unless by the special permission in any case or class of cases of the Postmaster-General) any postal packet, the dimensions of which shall exceed two feet in length or one foot in breadth or depth, and any such packet shall, if posted, be detained and returned or given up to the sender thereof.

5. There shall not be conveyed or delivered for conveyance by post any postal packet which shall contain anything which might by pressure or otherwise be rendered injurious either to the officers of the Post Office or to the contents of the mail bags, nor any book packet, or pattern or sample packet which shall not be securely packed and guarded in such manner as to furnish complete protection against injury to the officers of the Post Office and to the contents of the mail bags; and any such packet shall, if posted, be detained and returned or given up to the sender thereof.

6. There shall not be conveyed or delivered for conveyance by post any indecent or obscene print, painting, photograph, lithograph, engraving, book, or card, or any other indecent or obscene article, or any letter, newspaper, supplement, publication, packet or card, having thereon, or on the cover thereof, any words, marks, or designs of an indecent, obscene, libellous, or grossly offensive character, and if anything shall be posted which shall prima facie fall within the aforesaid prohibition, it shall be stopped and submitted at the General Post Office in London to the inspection of an officer duly authorized in that behalf by the Postmaster-General.

7. Any postal packet addressed to and received in the United Kingdom which shall be re-directed in the United Kingdom to any country or place mentioned in the first column of Part 1 of Schedule No. 1, shall not be liable to or chargeable with any British postage, in respect either of such re-direction or of the re-transmission thereof by post to the country or place to which the same shall be so re-directed.

8. On every postal packet posted in any country or place mentioned in the first column of Part 1 of Schedule No. 1, addressed to some part of the same country or place, and which shall be re-directed in such country or place and transmitted from thence by post respectively to the United Kingdom, there shall be charged and paid in the United Kingdom on the delivery thereof, in addition to any postage charged thereon in respect of the Inland Service of the country or place in which such packet shall have been posted, such a rate or rates of postage as such postal packet would have been liable to if the same had been originally posted in and addressed to a place within the United Kingdom.

9. The Postmaster-General may, in any case in which he shall consider it just or reasonable so to do, remit any postage made payable by any regulation contained in this Schedule.

10. In this Warrant and the Schedules thereto, the expression "United Kingdom" means the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, the Channel Islands, and the Isle of Man.

As to Post Cards.

11. Post cards, bearing an impressed stamp shall be issued by the Postmaster-General, and the cards so issued and no others shall be deemed to be post cards within the meaning of this Warrant.

12. The address, and nothing else, shall be written, printed, or otherwise impressed on the side of the post card which bears the impressed stamp, and no part of the address shall be written, printed, or otherwise impressed across such stamp.

13. Anything (including a letter or communication in the nature of a letter) may be written, printed, or otherwise impressed on the side of the post card which does not bear the impressed stamp.

14. Nothing whatever shall be in any manner attached to a post card, except a postage stamp or stamps in payment of any deficient postage, or additional sum for registration, chargeable thereon, nor shall a post card be cut or folded or otherwise altered.

15. If any post card is posted without the postage chargeable thereon being fully prepaid, or is posted otherwise than in conformity with these regulations, it shall be detained and returned or given up to the sender thereof.

As to Newspapers.

16. The regulations and conditions made and prescribed by a Treasury Warrant, dated the 27th day of December, 1870, shall in all respects apply to registered newspapers conveyed or delivered for conveyance by post, as mentioned and described in Schedule No. 1.

17. If any newspaper or packet of newspapers is posted in the United Kingdom, Malta, Gibraltar, or Tangier, or at either of the British Post Offices in Constantinople, Smyrna, Beyrout, Alexandria, and Suez respectively, without the postage chargeable thereon being fully prepaid, or is posted otherwise than in conformity with the regulations for the time being in force applicable to its transmission, it shall be detained and returned or given up to the sender thereof.

As to Book Packets.

18. In this Warrant, and the Schedules thereto, the expression "Book Packet" shall mean and comprise not only books, but also all packets consisting of articles of the following kinds, not being trade patterns or samples of merchandize (that is to say):—

- (1) Paper or any other substance in ordinary use for writing or printing, whether such paper or other substance be plain or with anything (except a letter or communication in the nature of a letter) written, printed, or otherwise impressed thereon, and whether the same be in the form of books or in any other form.
- (2) Printed, engraved, or lithographed circulars, notwithstanding that such circulars may be letters or communications in the nature of a letter.
- (3) Photographs and other things of a like kind when not on glass, or in frames containing glass or any brittle substance of a like kind.
- (4) Anything usually attached or appurtenant to any of the before-mentioned articles in the way of binding, mounting, or otherwise, and anything convenient for their safe transmission by post which shall be contained in the same packet.

19. Every book packet shall be posted either without a cover, or in an open cover, and so that the same can be easily removed for the purpose of examination.

20. No book packet shall be posted which shall contain anything sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, or which shall contain any letter or any communication in the nature of a letter written on any part of the packet or the cover thereof (although the same may be open to inspection), or which shall contain any separate letter or communication in the nature of a letter, not being a circular within the meaning of these regulations; but any circular may bear the written signature and address of the sender, with his trade or profession, and the date.

21. If any book packet comprising printed papers, such as circulars, notices, and documents of a like kind, is posted in the United Kingdom, Malta, Gibraltar, or at either of the British Post Offices in Constantinople, Smyrna, Beyrout, Alexandria, and Suez respectively, addressed to any country or place mentioned in the first column of Part 1 of Schedule No. 1, or to the United Kingdom, without the postage chargeable thereon being fully prepaid, it shall be detained and returned or given up to the sender thereof.

22. If any book packet comprising printed papers, such as circulars, notices, and documents of a like kind, is sent by post otherwise than in conformity with the regulations hereinbefore contained, numbered respectively 18, 19, and 20, it shall be detained and returned or given up to the sender thereof.

23. If any book packet (except any packet comprising printed papers, such as circulars, notices, and documents of a like kind) is sent by post otherwise than in conformity with the regulations hereinbefore contained, numbered respectively 18, 19, and 20, it shall be dealt with and charged in all respects as an unpaid letter.

As to Pattern or Sample Packets.

24. In this Warrant the expression "pattern or sample packet" shall comprise such articles only as consist wholly of trade patterns or samples of merchandize.

25. No patterns or samples shall be of any intrinsic value, or consist of articles or things of a saleable nature, or having a value of their own apart from their mere use as patterns or samples.

26. Patterns or samples shall, when practicable, be posted in covers open at both ends, and so that the same may be easily removed for the purpose of examination. Nevertheless, samples of seeds, drugs, and such other articles as cannot be posted in open covers, but such articles only may be posted, enclosed in boxes or in bags of linen or other material fastened in such a manner that they may be readily opened, so as to enable the officers of the Post Office readily to satisfy themselves as to the nature of the contents.

27. There shall be no writing upon any pattern or sample packet, or on the cover thereof, except the address of the person for whom it is intended, the name and the trade or profession of the sender thereof, a manufacturer's or trade mark or number, and the price of the articles, patterns or samples of which are contained therein, nor shall there be any writing, or other thing enclosed in any such packet, except the name and the trade or profession of the sender thereof, a manufacturer's or trade mark or number, and the price of the articles, patterns or samples of which are contained therein, and any such permitted writing in any such packet may be on labels attached to the patterns or samples.

28. If there shall be posted any packet containing a pattern or sample of any intrinsic value, or of a saleable nature, or having a value of its own apart from its mere use as a pattern or sample, such packet shall be detained and returned or given up to the sender thereof.

29. If any pattern or sample packet is sent by post otherwise than in conformity with the regulations hereinbefore contained, numbered respectively 26 and 27, it shall be dealt with and charged in all respects as an unpaid letter.

30. If any pattern or sample packet is posted in Gibraltar addressed to Spain, the Balearic Islands, the Canary Islands, or the Spanish Possessions on the Northern Coast of Africa, without the postage chargeable thereon being fully prepaid, it shall be detained and returned or given up to the sender thereof.

In the High Court of Justice.—Chancery Division.

Master of the Rolls.—1875, E., 30.—Friday, the 10th day of December, 1875.—Between Catherine Mona Edwards, the wife of William Samuel Edwards, by Alfred William Raimondi, her next friend, and Thomas Henry Edwards, Mary Beatrice Mona Edwards, Mildred Catherine Edwards, Edith Caroline Edwards, and Richard Charles Herbert Edwards, Infants, by the said Alfred William Raimondi, their next friend, Plaintiffs; William Henry Perry, Henry Arthur Edwards, and William Samuel Edwards, Defendants.

UPON motion this day made unto this Court by Counsel for the plaintiffs, who alleged that the plaintiffs filed their Bill in this Court against the defendants having an endorsement thereon in the form prescribed by the Act of Parliament in that behalf, requiring the defendants to appear thereto, and that it appears by the affidavits of Frederick George Burton, filed the 14th April, 1875, of Alfred William Raimondi, filed the 2nd June, 1875, and of Charles Henry Raimondi, filed the 13th July, 1875, that the defendant Henry Arthur Edwards has been within the jurisdiction of this Court within two years next before the filing of the said Bill, and that all due diligence has been used to serve the said defendant with a printed copy of the said Bill but without effect, and the said defendant, Henry Arthur

Edwards, cannot be found so as to be served with process, and from enquiries at the last known place of abode of the defendant, and at other places where it was probable the defendant might be, there is just ground to believe that the said defendant has absconded to avoid being served with process, and upon reading the said affidavits and an affidavit of William Raimondi, filed the 9th of December, 1875, this Court doth order that the said defendant Henry Arthur Edwards, do appear to the plaintiffs' Bill on or before the 10th day of January 1876, and the plaintiffs are to cause a copy of this Order, together with a notice thereof to the effect set forth at the foot of the 10th Consolidated Order, Rule 6, to be inserted in the London Gazette within fourteen days from the date hereof, and in the Times newspaper once, in two several weeks.
