

The requisition for the surrender of a fugitive criminal from any Colony or foreign possession of Her Britannic Majesty shall be governed by the rules laid down in the preceding Articles of the present Treaty.

ARTICLE XVI.

The present Treaty shall come into force ten days after its publication, in conformity with the forms prescribed by the laws of the High Contracting Parties. It may be terminated by either of the High Contracting Parties, but shall remain in force for six months after notice has been given for its termination.

The President of the Republic of Hayti engages to apply to the Senate for the necessary authorization to give effect to the present Treaty, immediately after its meeting.

The present Treaty shall be ratified, and the ratifications shall be exchanged as soon as possible.

In witness whereof the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed the same, and have affixed thereto the seals of their arms.

Done at Port au Prince, the seventh day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.

(L.S.) SPENSER ST. JOHN.
(L.S.) SURVILLE TOUSSAINT.

ARTICLE XVI.

Le présent Traité sera en vigueur dix jours après qu'il aura été publié conformément aux prescriptions des lois des Hautes Parties Contractantes. Il pourra prendre fin par la volonté de l'une ou de l'autre des Hautes Parties Contractantes, mais dans ce dernier cas il continuera à rester en vigueur pendant six mois à partir du jour où l'une ou l'autre aura déclaré vouloir en faire cesser les effets.

Le Président de la République d'Haïti s'engage à demander au Sénat, immédiatement après son ouverture, l'autorisation nécessaire pour faire exécuter le dit Traité.

Le présent Traité sera ratifié, et les ratifications en seront échangées le plus tôt que faire se pourra.

En foi de quoi les Plénipotentiaires respectifs l'ont signé, et y ont apposé le cachet de leurs armes.

Fait à Port au Prince, le sept Décembre, l'an de grâce mil huit cents soixante-quatorze.

And whereas the ratifications of the said Treaty were exchanged at Port au Prince on the second day of September last :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, and in virtue of the authority committed to Her by the said recited Acts, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the twenty-first day of February, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, the said Acts shall apply in the case of the said Treaty with the President of the Republic of Hayti.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 5th day of February, 1876.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Benjamin Thomas Williams Esquire one of Her Majesty's Counsel learned in the Law duly appointed in pursuance of the Municipal Corporations Act 1859 for the purpose of determining the boundaries of the Wards of the Borough of Swansea and the apportioning of Councillors thereto transmitted to one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State his determination and apportionment in the following terms :—

DIVISION OF WARDS.—BOROUGH OF SWANSEA.

Whereas under the provisions of an Act of Parliament passed in the twenty-second year of the reign of our Most Gracious Majesty Queen Victoria intituled an Act to amend the law relating to Municipal Elections two thirds in number of the Town Council of the Borough of Swansea did present a petition to Her Majesty in Council praying that the number of Wards into which the Borough was divided may be increased and their boundaries altered and that Her Majesty in Council may be pleased to fix the number of Wards into which the said Borough shall be divided.

And whereas notice of the said Petition and of the time when it pleased Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by Her Privy Council was published in the London Gazette one month before such Petition was so considered.

And whereas Her Majesty on the twelfth day of August in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five in pursuance of the powers in Her Majesty by the said Act of Parliament in that behalf vested was pleased by and with the advice of Her Privy Council to fix the number of Wards into which the said Borough shall be divided and to order and direct that such Borough shall be divided into four Wards.

And whereas under the powers by the said Act in him vested the Right Hon. Sir Alexander James Edmund Cockburn Bart., G.C.B., the Lord Chief Justice of England being the senior Judge in the Commission of Assize for the Summer Circuit on the South Wales Circuit next after such Order had been made did by writing under his hand dated sixteenth day of August in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five appoint me Benjamin Thomas Williams Esquire one of Her Majesty's Counsel learned in the Law to be the Barrister for the purpose of determining the boundaries of such Wards and of apportioning the number of Councillors to the Borough among such Wards.

Now I the said Barrister having held an inquiry into this matter and having taken evidence upon oath relating thereto do direct and order as
