Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth hereby approve of the said determination of the said Barrister of the boundaries of the said Wards and of the said apportionment by him of Councillors amongst the said Wards, and doth order the same to be published in the London Gazette accordingly.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 5th day of February, 1876.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the 46th Section of the Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1862, it is enacted that if any lighthouse, buoy, or beacon is erected or placed, or reconstructed, repaired, or replaced, by any local authority having jurisdiction in the matter of lighthouses, buoys, or beacons, Her Majesty may, on the application of the said local authority, by Order in Council, fix such dues to be paid to the said local authority in respect of every ship which enters the port or harbour under the jurisdiction of such local authority, or the estuary wherein such lighthouse, buoy, or beacon is situate, and which passes the said lighthouse, buoy, or beacon, and derives benefit therefrom, as Her Majesty may deem reasonable :

And whereas by the 47th Section of the said Act it is enacted that Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, and subject to certain conditions, from time to time reduce, alter, or increase all or any of such dues :

And whereas the Corporation of the Trinity House in Kingston-upon-Hull, hereinafter called the Hull Trinity House, being the local authority having jurisdiction in the matters hereinafter mentioned, did, previously to the month of November, 1862, erect and exhibit four beacons, each carrying a light, whereof two are on the west side of Whitton Ness, in the parish of Whitton, in the county of Lincoln, and two on the east side of the said Ness, in the parish of Winteringham, in the said county, and did also place a buoy in the River Humber off Whitton Ness aforesaid :

And whereas by an Order in Council, dated the 1st day of November, 1862, Her Majesty, in exercise of the powers vested in Her by the said recited Act, was pleased to direct that there should be paid to the Hull Trinity House certain dues in respect of every ship which being in the River Humber should pass and derive benefit from the said beacons, lights, and buoy, or any of them :

And whereas the Hull Trinity House have placed and are now exhibiting a floating light in the River Humber, off Whitton Ness, in lieu of the said buoy, and have also erected and are now exhibiting eight additional beacons, each carrying a light, whereof one is at Chaldersness, two are at Brough, two on the pier at Whitton, two on the two stone heaps in Walker Dyke, and one is at Faxfleet; and they have represented that provision should be made for the maintenance of the said floating light and the said additional eight lights, and have submitted that the dues which are now leviable under the said Order in Council of 1862 in respect of the four lights and the buoy therein mentioned should on and after the date of the present Order in Council cease to be leviable, but that like dues should be leviable in respect of the said floating light, the said four lights, and the said eight new lights (or any of them) :

And whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that the application is reasonable and proper :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, upon the application of the Hull Trinity House, and in exercise of the powers vested in Her by the said recited Act, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to direct that there shall be
