AT the Court at Windsor, the 12th day of February, 1876.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the first section of "The Seal Fishery Act, 1875," it is enacted that when it appears to Her Majesty in Council that the Foreign States whose ships or subjects are engaged in the Seal Fishery in the area mentioned in the Schedule to that Act, or any part of such area, have made or will make with respect to those contained in that Act, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by Order in Council, to direct that that Act shall, after the date mentioned in the Order, apply to the Seal Fishery within the said area, or such part thereof as may specified in the Order, and it is also enacted that Her Majesty, may from time to time by Order in Council, rescind, alter, or add to any Order made in pursuance of the said section, and make a new Order in lieu thereof.

And whereas by Order in Council dated the fifth day of February instant, Her Majesty was pleased to direct that "The Seal Fishery Act, 1875," should after the date of the Order apply to the Seal Fishery within the area mentioned in the Schedule to the said Act, and was further pleased to fix the third day of April in every year as the day before which the master and person in charge of, and every person belonging to any British ship, and every British subject should not kill or capture, or attempt to kill or capture any seal within the area mentioned in the Schedule to the said Act:

And whereas since the date of the above recited Order it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that the Government of Norway, one of the Foreign States whose ships or subjects are at present engaged in the Seal Fishery in the area mentioned in the Schedule to the said recited Act, are unable this year to make in time for the fishing of this season (as they had expected) with respect to their own ships and subjects the like provisions to those contained in the said recited Act.

And whereas Norway has more ships and subjects engaged in the Seal Fishery within the said area than all other Foreign States.
