

of State, do hereby, by virtue of the powers contained in the said section, declare the said Town Council of Kidderminster to be a Local Authority for the purposes of the said Act.

Whitehall, February 15, 1876.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Llandaff, in the county of Glamorgan, and in the diocese of Llandaff, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of two hundred and ninety-seven pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the eighth day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: And we do also hereby grant and appropriate, out of our said common fund, to the said vicarage of Llandaff, one capital sum of one thousand and five hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage, according to plans and a specification approved, or to be approved, by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Llandaff: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend of two hundred and ninety-seven pounds, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this tenth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby grant and convey to the Incumbent of the vicarage or benefice of Saint John the Evangelist, Buglawton, in the county of Chester, and in the diocese of Chester, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, all that piece or parcel of land situate in the parish of Buglawton aforesaid, comprising three acres two roods and twenty-six perches (more or less), together with the messuage or dwelling-house now or formerly known as Throstle Nest House, and other buildings standing thereon, formerly in the occupation of John Johnson, of Buglawton, Silk Throwster, deceased, but now and for many years past in the holding and occupation of the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage or benefice of Saint John the Evangelist, Buglawton, together with the right of way and all other appurtenances to the said piece of land and premises belonging, which said piece or parcel of land, messuage, and hereditaments are vested in us, the said Commissioners, under and by virtue of a certain deed of conveyance, dated the twenty-sixth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, and made between John Johnson aforesaid of the one part, and us, the said Commissioners, of the other part, and which said deed of conveyance is intended to be deposited in the Registry of the said diocese of Chester immediately after the publication of this instrument in the London Gazette: To have and to hold the said piece or parcel of land, messuage, or dwelling-house, and other hereditaments, together with the right of way, and all other appurtenances thereunto belonging, to the use of the said Incumbent and his successors for ever.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby grant and convey to the Incumbent of the rectory of Sawley, in the county of York, and in the diocese of Ripon, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same rectory, all and singular the annual tithe commutation rent-charges which are particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and are now vested in us: To have and to hold the said annual tithe commutation rent-charges to the use of the said Incumbent and his successors for ever: Provided always, that the Incumbent for the time being of the same rectory shall be entitled to receive from us, or on our account, the net amount of the profits and proceeds of the said annual tithe commutation rent-charges for and in respect of the period intervening between the first day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, and the date of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette. And we do also, in pursuance of the aforesaid Act, hereby grant to the Incumbent of the said rectory of Sawley, and to his successors, Incumbents thereof, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and five pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the said first day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time, lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient in our opinion to produce the said yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and five pounds, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said rectory, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.
