

Manchester, Febr. 19. This Day the KING and QUEEN were Proclaimed here with great and joyful Acclamations; The Foot Companies that are here, Commanded by Captain Henry Feilding, assisting at the Solemnity, and Firing several Volleys, which was followed with Ringing of Bells, Bonfires, and other Expressions of Joy.

Northampton, Febr. 20. The 18th Instant William Hastings Esq; High-Sheriff of this County, accompanied by several Troops of the Right Honourable the Earl of Oxford's Regiment of Horse, with divers Gentlemen and Freeholders of the said County, together with the Mayor and Aldermen in their Formalities, and a great number of other Persons, Proclaimed here the KING and QUEENS Majesties: In the Evening there were Bonfires, and the Conduit, by Order of the Sheriff, run with Wine, with all other Expressions of a general Joy. Yesterday Their MAJESTIES were Proclaimed at Towcester; and the Sheriff intends to do the like this week in all other Market-Towns of this County.

Colchester, Febr. 20. This Day at the Moot-Hall, the Mayor being Attended by several Gentlemen, Aldermen, and Common-Council-Men, Proclaimed Their Majesties KING WILLIAM and QUEEN MARY, with great Solemnity and Cheerful Acclamations, by the greatest numbers of People that ever was seen here; from thence they went with the Town-Musick Playing before them, to the Dutch Bay-Hall, where the KING and QUEEN were again Proclaimed, with loud and repeated Acclamations, the Governors and their Officers stood ready to receive the Mayor and all the Gentlemen; and after the Solemnity was over, invited them to a Collation, the Rooms and Gallery being hung with white Bays, and Wine running from several places for an hour together: After this, the Mayor invited the Gentlemen and the Dutch Governours to a Handsom Entertainment at the Moot-Hall, and the Day was concluded with great Demonstrations of Joy, in Firing the great Guns, in several Volleys of Small Shot, Ringing of Bells, and Bonfires.

Weymouth, Febr. 20. Yesterday the Mayor, and Aldermen, and Custom-Officers of this Port, with a very numerous Concourse of People Proclaimed Their Majesties; After which, the Mayor invited them all to his House; and in the Evening the great Guns were fired from the Fort, and the Ships in the Road, the whole being performed with great Joy and Solemnity.

Whitehall, Febr. 21. Sir John Nicholas Knight of the Bath, William Blaithway Esq; Charles Moutague Esq; and Richard Coling Esq; were this day Sworn Clerks of His Majesties most Honourable Privy-Council, in Ordinary.

Whitehall, Febr. 21. This Day my Lord Bishop of London with the Clergy of the City to the number of One hundred, waited on the King and Queen with an Humble Tender of their Fidelity and Duty to Their Majesties. They were very Graciously received, and admitted to Kiss Their Majesties Hands; And the King gave them Full Assurances of His Great Affection to the Church of England, and of all Protection and Encouragement to them; For which He gave them His Royal Word, and concluded in these words, I Assure you that you shall ever find it so, and you may depend upon it.

Westminster, Febr. 23. This Day about Twelve of the Clock His Majesty came by Water to the House of Lords, Attended with the usual Solemnity, (the Sword of State being born before him by the Earl of Bedford between the Lord Great Chamberlain and Earl Marshal, all in their Robes, as the rest of the Peers likewise were) and being in His Royal Robes, with the Crown on His Head, seated on the Throne, and the Commons being sent for up to the House of Lords, His Majesty gave the Royal Assent to An Act For Removing and Preventing all Questions and Disputes about the Assembling and Sitting of this Present Parliament; Which done, His Majesty Disrobed Himself, and was Attended to the Water-side with the like Ceremony as before.

Whitehall, Febr. 23. The KING and QUEEN went this Afternoon to Hampton-Court; where Their Majesties intend to pass two or three days.

Advertisements.

These are to give Notice, That the Pictures of Their Majesties King WILLIAM and Queen MARY are Engraven upon Copper by Peter Vanderbank, and Printed upon a large Imperial Sheet of Paper, and sold at the said Peter Vanderbank's House in Princes-Street near Leicester-fields, and by most Print-sellers in London.

Historical Observations upon the Reigns of King Edward I. II. III. and Richard II. Extracting their Characters, and a Comparison of them all, shewing the unhappy Condition of the two first, and the Prosperous Fortunes of the two last, with Remarks upon their faithful Counsellors, and false Favourites; Written by a Person of Honour, in Octavo. Printed for James Partridge at the Post House at Charing-Cross, and Matthew Gillyflower in Westminster-Hall; and sold by Randal Taylor near Stationers-Hall.

To Morrow will be Published a Sermon Preach'd in the Chapel at St. James's, the 20th of January last, by Symon Patrick, D.D. Dean of Peterborough. Sold by R. Chiswell at the Rose and Crown in St. Paul's Church-yard.

Lost the 4th of January last, four Hair Lockets, 1 with Rubies and Diamonds, with H. O. D. O. on the back, 1 with a Magdalen and a Christal over it, 1 with M. L. 1 with a Death's Head and R. O. on the backside; and one Locket with a large blue Sapphire square, cut with facets, valued at 40 l. Enamel'd on the back with black and white, in an Oval Picture of a young Gentleman, set in silver and gilt, bruise'd on the back, a Gold Watch made by Ed. Hall, with a Studded Case; a Ring with a Christal and Hair under it, and a Diamond on each side; and a Ring with a Torquois, having a flaw in it, and a Diamond on each side; a Medal of K. Charles the Second and Queen Catherine, a little bigger then a Crown Piece. Whoever brings them to Joseph Fells, at the Grapes in the Strand, shall have two Guineas Reward.

Saturday last, being the 23 Instant, was lost from the Lord Viscount Newport's House in St. James's Square, a little Spaniel Lap Dog, with a Liver Coloured Head, with very long Ears of the same Colour, and a white Body, with a white Lip down the Face. Whoever gives notice to the Right Honourable the Lord Viscount Newport's at his House, so that he may be had again, shall have a Guinea Reward.

Lost the 10th Instant out of a Stable at Darby, a Chestnut Mare above 13 hands high, a Race down her Face, two white Feet behind, a bob Tail, about 10 years old. Whoever gives notice of her, so that she may be recovered, at Mr. Edward Loyd's Coffee House in Tower-Street, or to Mr. Daniel Watton in Darby, shall have a Guinea Reward. Supposed to be taken by a middle sized Man, having black curled Hair, Pockholes in his Face, wearing an old brown Riding Coat, and a black Beaver Hat.

Lost the 16th Instant, a brown Gelding about 13 or 14 hands, mark'd with a W. on the Right Shoulder, with Saddle Spots on both sides. Whoever gives notice of him to Mr. William Bond of Lymington in Kent, shall have a Guinea Reward.