mile or thereabouts along the middle of the said # road to the point at Thornhill Farm where the said road crosses the Botley and Southampton Turnpike-road and extending thence that is from the said cross roads north-eastward and in a direct line for a distance of about one mile (thereby passing close to and to the west of the farm buildings called. or known as Flanders) to a boundary stone inscribed 'H. E. St. J. C. C. 1876.' and placed upon the southern side of the Botley and Romsey Turnpike-road opposite to the southern end of the drove or occupation road which leads from Flanders to Little Berrywood Farm and extending thence that is from the said boundary stone northward and in a direct line for a distance of thirty. two chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge which carries the occupation road leading from Dowds Farm-towards Moor Green over the stream flowing from the back of the South Stoneham Union House to Ford Lake and from thence into the River Hamble and extending thence in a direction generally north-eastward for a distance of seventy-two chains or thereabouts along the middle of the said stream (thereby passing to the east of the buildings called or known as Berrywood Farm and passing under the line of the Portsmouth and Gosport Branch of the London and South Western Railway to a point at the centre of the bridge which carries Shamblehurst-lane over the same stream, upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint James West End from the parish of Botley as now defined for ecclesiastical purposes as aforesaid and extending thence first southward then south-eastward then south westward and then again southward along the last - mentioned boundary to the point at the southern end of the roadway called or known as Hammerton's Drove where it joins the footpath leading past the western side of Marl Copse into Freegrounds-lane at which point the same boundary bends sharply to the west and extending thence for a distance of thirty chains or thereabouts first southward and then southwestward to and along the middle of the last-described footpath thereby following the southern branch thereof to its junction with Freegroundslane aforesaid and extending thence southward for a distance of twenty-nine chains or thereabouts along the middle of the last-named lane to its junction at or near to the house called or known as Tan House with the footpath leading to Heath House Farm and extending thence for a distance of seventeen chains or thereabouts first south-westward and then south-ward along the middle of the last-described footpath to its junction a little to the east of the buildings called or known as Heath House Farm as aforesaid with the footpath which leads through Vanfage Copse and Hoe Moor Copse to Hoe Moor Creek and extending thence for a distance of half a mile or thereabouts first southeastward and then southward along the middle of the last-described footpath thereby passing through Vantage Copse aforesaid to a point at the northeastern corner of Hoe Moor Copse aforesaid upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Botley from the parish of Bursledon in the county and diocese aforesaid and extending thence generally westward along the last described boundary and along the boundary dividing the said extra-parochial territory called or known as No Man's Land as aforesaid and the said new parish of Saint James West End from the parish of Bursledon aforesaid to the point at the lodge gates forming the western entrance to the house and grounds called or known as Netley Hill where the boundary which divides the said parish of Bursle-Nc. 24301. B don from the new parish of Saint James West End as aforesaid is joined by the boundary dividing the last-named new parish from the new parish of Saint Mary Scholing aforesaid and extending thence northward along the last - mentioned boundary thereby following the eastern side of the road leading from Bursledon to West End as aforesaid to the first described point at the northeastern corner of Netley Common where the said imaginary line commenced as aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council : now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the shid Acts ; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Winchester.

C. L. Peel.

1669

Whitehall, February 26, 1876.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto the Reverend Hugh Pearson, M.A., the place and dignity of a Canon of Her Majesty's Free Chapel of Saint George, in Her Majesty's Castle of Windsor, void by the death of the Honourable and Reverend Edward George Moore.

Whitehall, February 23, 1876.

The Queen has been graciously pleased to ordain and declare that Maria Louisa Carleton," Spinster, the only sister of Dudley Wilmot, now. Baron Dorchester, shall henceforth have, hold, and enjoy the same title, place, pre-eminence, and precedence to which she would have been entitled had her father, Richard Carleton, Clerk (commonly called the Honourable and Reverend Richard Carleton), survived his nephew, Guy, late Baron Dorchester, and thereby succeeded to the title and dignity of Baron Dorchester :

And to command that Her Majesty's order and . declaration be registered in the College of Arms.

Whitehall, February 23, 1876.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto Harry Tyrwhitt Tyrwhitt, of Keythorpe Hall, in the parish of Tugby, in the county of Leicester. Esquire (commonly called the Honourable Harry Tyrwhitt Tyrwhitt), Sub-Lieutenant in the Regiment of Grenadier Guards, eldest son and heirapparent of Sir Henry Thomas Tyrwhitt, of Stanley Hall, in the county of Salop, Baronet, and of Emma Harriet, his wife, Baroness Berners, in her own right, the only child and heir of Robert-Wilson (commonly called the Honourable Robert Wilson), Clerk, Rector of Ashwellthorpe and Wreningham, both in the county of Norfolk, deceased, and niece and heir of Henry William Wilson, Baron Berners, also deceased, Her Royal licence and authority that he may, in compliance with a clause contained in the last will and testament of his maternal great uncle, the said Henry William Wilson, Baron Berners, take and, use the surname of Wilson only, in lieu of that of Tyrwhitt, and bear the arms of Wilson; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the College of Arms, ٠.