

that the bankrupts had absconded prior to the order of adjudication of bankruptcy against them, and that they had not surrendered thereunder, nor disclosed any property whatever as belonging to them, and also that the Trustee had not received any money or property on account of the bankrupts' estate since the date of his appointment as such Trustee, the Court being satisfied that the Trustee has not received any money or property belonging to the said bankrupts, and that there is no probability of any property belonging to the said bankrupts being discovered or recovered, doth order and declare that the bankruptcy of the said Joseph Bernard Lewis and John Bernard Lewis has closed. — Given under the Seal of the Court this 2nd day of March, 1876.

The Bankruptcy Act, 1869.

In the County Court of Kent, holden at Tunbridge Wells. In the Matter of Benjamin Osmand, of Weybourne Gate Brickyard, Frant, and of Hawkenbury-road, Tunbridge Wells, in the county of Sussex, Brick Maker, a Bankrupt.

UPON reading a report of the Trustee of the property of the bankrupt, dated the 21st day of February, 1876, reporting so much of the property of the bankrupt as could, according to the joint opinion of himself and a Committee of Inspection, thereunto annexed in writing under their hands, be realized without needlessly protracting the bankruptcy, has been realized, as shown by the statement thereunto annexed, and a dividend to the amount of one shilling and seven pence has been paid, the Court being satisfied that so much of the property of the bankrupt as could, according to the joint opinion of himself and a Committee of Inspection thereunto annexed in writing under their hands, be realized without needlessly protracting the bankruptcy, has been realized, as shown by the statement thereunto annexed, and a dividend to the amount of one shilling and seven pence has been paid, doth order and declare that the bankruptcy of the said Benjamin Osmand has closed. — Given under the Seal of the Court this 22nd day of February, 1876.
