THE FAIRS ACT, 1873.

SOUTH BRENT FAIRS.

WHEREAS a representation has been duly made to me, as Secretary of State for the Home Department, by John Beer and George H. E. Rundle, Esqrs., as owners, that Fairs have been annually held on Wednesday in the last week of February, and on Wednesday in the last week of August, respectively, in the parish of South Brent, in the Stanborough and Coleridge Petty Sessional Division of the county of Devon, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the days for the holding of the said Fairs should be altered, and that instead of being held as aforesaid, such Fairs should in future be held on Tuesday in the last week of February and on Tuesday in the last week in August, respectively, in each year.

And whereas notice of the said representation, and of the time when I should take the same into consideration, has been duly given to the Justices acting in the Stanborough and Coleridge Petty Sessional Division of the county of Devon, within which division such Fairs are held, and otherwise published in pursuance of "The Fairs Act, 1873:"

And whereas on such representation and consideration it appears to me that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the times for the holding of the said Fairs should be altered as proposed:

Now, therefore, I, as the Secretary of State for the Home Department, in exercise of the powers vested in me by "The Fairs Act, 1873," do hereby order that the days shall be altered for the holding of the Fairs which have been annually held on Wednesday in the last week of February and on Wednesday in the last week of August, respectively, in the parish of South Brent, in the Stanborough and Coleridge Petty Sessional Division of the county of Devon, and that such Fairs shall cease to be held on such days, and shall be held instead on the Tuesday in the last week of February and on Tuesday in the last week of August, respectively, in each year.

Given under my hand at Whitehall, this 9th day of March, 1876.

Richard Assheton Cross.

Bank of England, March 7, 1876.

THE Court of Directors of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England give notice,

That a General Court will be held at the Bank on Thursday, the 16th instant, at twelve o'clock precisely, to consider of a Dividend.

Also, that another General Court will be held at the Bank, on Tuesday, the 11th April next, from eleven o'clock in the forenoon until four in the afternoon, for the election of a Governor and Deputy Governor for the year ensuing (which will be declared that evening); and the same Court will be continued, by adjournment, and held at the same place, and during the same hours, on Wednesday, the 12th April next, for the election of twenty-four Directors (which will also be one of the Quarterly General Courts appointed by the Charter); and the election of the twenty-four Directors will be declared as soon as the scrutiny is over.

Printed lists of the Proprietors having votes will be ready to be delivered at the Bank, on Friday, the 24th March.

Hammond Chubb, Secretary.

N.B.—By an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of George III, no person will be entitled to vote at the said election who shall not have been six calendar months possessed, in his own right, of the stock for which he shall then give his vote, unless the said stock shall have been acquired or shall have come by bequest, or by marriage, or by succession to an intestate's estate, or by the custom of the city of London, or by any deed of settlement after the death of any person who shall have been entitled for life to the dividends of such stock.
