646. To Bristow Hunt, of Serle-street, Lincoln's-inn, in the county of Middlesex, Gentleman, for the invention of "improvements in jacquard apparatus used in weaving."—A communication to him from abroad by Ferdinand Adolphe Planchon, of Paris, France.
648. To Homan Price Fenby, of Leeds, in the county of York, Mechanical Engineer, and

Arthur Greenwood, of the same place, Mechanical Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in cut nail machinery."

650. And to Charles Wright, of Gresham House, in the city of London, for the invention of "an improved amalgamating and concentrating machine for the treatment of metallic ores and for similar purposes."

On their several petitions recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 16th day of February, 1876.

652. To Edward Baldwin John Knox, of 1, Westminster-chambers, Victoria-street, Westminster, in the county of Middlesex, for the invention of "improvements in the construction of roller skates."

654. To William Whieldon, of No. 190, Westminster Bridge-road, Lambeth, in the county of Surrey, for the invention of "improvements in apparatus for pressing or moulding bricks and other agglomerated articles of like kind."—The result partly of his own invention and partly of a communication to him from abroad by François Durand and Ernest Louis Marais, of Paris.

656. To Edward Kunkler, of 38, Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, Maltster and Brewer, for the invention of "improvements in varnishes for wood, iron, and other materials, and in the machinery for and method of applying it."

658. To Peter William Barlow and Peter William Barlow, Junr., both of No. 26, Great George-street, Westminster, in the county of Middlesex, for the invention of "improvements in means and apparatus for laying and uniting lengths of tubes for subaqueous communication."

660. Thomas Platt, of Padfield, in the county of Derby, Gentleman, for the invention of "improvements in apparatus for lubricating spindles."

666. To William Morgan-Brown, of the firm of Brandon and Morgan-Brown, Engineers and Patent Agents, of 38, Southampton-buildings, London, and 13, Rue Gaillon, Paris, for the invention of "improvements in the methods of uniting the edges of knit goods and of other goods by a welt covered seam by sewing machines."—A communication to him from abroad by John Bigelow, of Boston, Massachusetts, United States of America, Gentleman.

670. And to Joseph Firth, of Leeds, in the county of York, for the invention of "improved apparatus for use in dyeing fabrics indigo blue."

On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 17th day of February, 1876.

672. To Falle Geary, of No. 4, Great Winchester-street-buildings, in the city of London, for the invention of "improvements in floors for skating rinks."

674. To Thomas Chadwick, Managing Director of the firm Bradbury & Co. Limited, of Oldham, in the county of Lancaster, Sewing Machine Manufacturers, and Thomas Sugden, Foreman in the employment of the said firm, for the invention of "improvements in sewing machines."

676. To Richard Gibson Harding and John Melbourne, both of Warrington, in the county of Lancaster, for the invention of "an improved apparatus for rolling leather."

678. To George Frederick Sheath, of the firm of Sheath Brothers, of City-road, in the county of Middlesex, for the invention of "improvements in garden or horticultural syringes."

680. To Philipp Cramer, of the Minorities, in the city of London, Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in excavators."
682. To Bernhard Samuelson and William George Manwaring, both of Banbury, in the county of Oxford, Engineers, for the invention of "improvements in harvesting machines."
684. To Alfred Robson, of the borough and county of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, for the invention of "a new or improved apparatus for supporting scaffolding."
688. To Samuel Blakemore Allport, of Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, Gun Manufacturer, for the invention of "new or improved machinery for the manufacture of gun wads and other non-metallic discs."
690. To William Brown and David Brown and William Weaver Vaughan, all of Smethwick, in the county of Stafford, Iron and Coal Masters, for the invention of "improvements in the manufacture of unwelded or open jointed steel and iron tubes."
692. To James Langley and Samuel Cocker the younger, both of Sheffield, in the county of York, for the invention of "improvements in the construction of chairs and rails for tramways and other similar purposes."
694. And to James Joseph Hicks, of Hatton-garden, in the county of Middlesex, for the invention of "improvements in thermometers." On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 18th day of February, 1876.
698. To Thomas Berry, of Rochdale, in the county of Lancaster, for the invention of "improvements in the construction of warping machines."
699. To Mowbray Walker, of 12, Great College-street, in the city of Westminster, and Thomas Hakes, of 11, Queen Victoria-street, in the city of London, for the invention of "improvements in the construction of roller or wheel skates."
700. To Henry Walker, of Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, Gun Manufacturer, for the invention of "improvements in breechloading fire-arms."
702. To Edward Couchman Beedell, of the firm of E. Couchman and Company, of Throgmorton-street, in the city of London, Printers, for the invention of "a new or improved apparatus for exhibiting to stock-brokers, merchants, and others, certain dates on which certain transactions are to be effected."

708. To Norman Charles Cookson, of the town and county of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, Lead Manufacturer, for the invention of "improvements in the manufacture of white lead."
712. To William Porritt Ingham and Alfred Clayton Hill, both of Redcar, in the county of York, Engineers, for the invention of "improvements in machinery for making retorts and other similar articles from clay."
713. To Joseph William Priestley, of Halifax, in the county of York, Wool Buyer, for the invention of "improvements in apparatus employed for heating or cooking purposes."
716. And to Ebenezer William Hughes, of Allcroft-road, Kentish Town, in the county of Middlesex, Civil Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in roller skates." On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 19th day of February, 1876.
718. To Richard Goodair and Joseph Whiteside, both of Preston, in the county of Lancaster, for the invention of "improvements in looms for weaving."
720. To Thomas Rickett, of Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, Manager of Works, for the invention of "improvements in sleeve links, solitaires, and other like fastenings for articles of dress and jewellery."
722. To John Martin, of Stoke Newington-road, in the county of Middlesex, Umbrella Maker, for the invention of "an improvement in umbrellas and parasols."
724. And to Richard Robinson, junior, of 31, Great Western-terrace, in the parish of Paddington, for the invention of "improvements in securing knob handles to the spindles of door locks and latches." On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 21st day of February, 1876.
726. To William Robert Lake, of the firm of Haseltine, Lake, & Co., Patent Agents, Southampton-buildings, London, for the invention of "improvements in separators for treating metallic ores and for similar purposes."—A communication to him from abroad by George Snowden Redfield and Francis A. Bowen, both of Chicago, Illinois, United States of America.
728. To William Thomson, of Glasgow, in the county of Lanark, North Britain, Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in weighing apparatus."
734. To Charles Claxton the elder, and Charles Claxton the younger, of Lincoln, in the county of Lincoln, Aerated Water Manufacturers, for the invention of "improvements in stoppers for bottles for aerated and effervescent liquids."
736. To Thomas Baldwin, of Blackburn, in the county of Lancaster, Builder and Contractor, for the invention of "improvements in machinery for crushing and pulverizing stone and other similar substances."
738. To Benjamin Abraham, of Poplar, in the county of Middlesex, for the invention of "improvements in railway signals."
740. To Charles Henry Clark, of Grove-road, Kingston-on-Thames, in the county of Surrey, for the invention of "improvements in means for preventing injury to the wrist or fore-arm in falling."
742. And to John Lawson Thackeray, of Arno Vale, in the parish of Arnold, and Edward Glover, of Radford, both in the county of Nottingham, for the invention of "improvements in machinery for doubling silk, cotton, and other fibres." On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners, on the 22nd day of February, 1876.
744. To George Betzold, of Belfast, in the county of Antrim, in Ireland, Linen Merchant, for the invention of "improvements in the preparation of colours for printing, dyeing, or staining, being a means of securing or increasing fastness in colours."—A communication to him from abroad by Johann Rosenbaum, of Magdeburg, in the Empire of Germany, Chemist.

746. To Joseph Durham Erskine Huddart, of Anerley, for the invention of "improvements in obtaining motive power from the varying pressure and temperature of the atmosphere."
748. To Charles Allen, of the firm of Bedford and Company, of 41, Church-street, Saint Ebbe's, in the city of Oxford, Soda Water Manufacturer, for the invention of "improvements in bottle stoppers for aerated liquids."
752. To Alexander Melville Clark, of 53, Chancery-lane, in the county of Middlesex, Patent Agent, for the invention of "improved machinery for casting the lead on board ship."—A communication to him from abroad by Charles Erastus Kirtland, of Milwaukee, in the county of Milwaukee, and State of Wisconsin, United States of America.
754. To Frederick Jenkins, of Regina-road, Tollington-road, in the county of Middlesex, for the invention of "improvements in boxes, portmanteaus, cabinets, and other like receptacles."
756. To Robert Anderson Malcolm, of Glasgow, in the county of Lanark, North Britain, Engineer, for the invention of "improved machinery or mechanism for the manufacture of iron and steel tubes and other like structures."
760. To William Robert Lake, of the firm of Haseltine, Lake, & Co., Patent Agents, Southampton-buildings, London, for the invention of "an improved machine for cutting diamonds and other precious stones."—A communication to him from abroad by Henry D. Stover, of the city and State of New York, United States of America.
762. And to Henry John Distin, of No. 11, Tavistock-street, Bedford-square, in the county of Middlesex, Musician, for the invention of "an improved apparatus to produce sound as a substitute for a castanet."
- On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 23rd day of February, 1876.
766. To Gilbert Smelt Knott, of Dulwich, in the county of Surrey, for the invention of "improvements in apparatus for clearing and carting mud from roads."
768. To Walter Robert Kinipple, Civil Engineer, Three, Westminster-chambers, London, and of Greenock, in the county of Renfrew, North Britain, for the invention of "improvements in dredgers."
770. To Alexander Herzen, of Florence, in the Kingdom of Italy, for the invention of "an improved process for the treatment of skins and hides previous to the tanning process."
774. To Benjamin Rhodes, Thomas Brown Rhodes, and Joseph Roberts Stoney, all of Armley, near Leeds, in the county of York, for the invention of "improvements in 'pickers' for looms."
776. To Henry Edward Newton, of the Office for Patents, 66, Chancery-lane, in the county of Middlesex, Civil Engineer, for the invention "improvements in converting vegetable and animal fibres and fibrous substances of various kinds into materials resembling wood and other hard or tough substances for use as a substitute for any such substances."—A communication to him from abroad by Alfred Joseph Macbay, of Calcutta, India.
778. To Edmund Rees and Frederick Richardson Gledhill, both of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, Engineers, for the invention of "certain improvements in steam boilers, and in furnaces for steam boilers, and other purposes."

On both their petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 29th day of February 1876.

875. To Thorsten Nordenfelt, Engineer, of St. Swithen's-lane, London, for the invention of "improvements in sewing machine shuttles."—A communication to him from abroad by Emil Ancarkrona, Gentleman, of Jonkoping, Sweden.
885. And to James Frederick Phillips, of 13, Noel-street, Islington, in the county of Middlesex, for the invention of "improvements in the manufacture of fingers for reaping and mowing machines, and in stamping and forging these and other articles of iron or steel and in apparatus used therefor."

On both their petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 1st day of March, 1876.

903. To John Cammack and Alexander Walker, both of St. Helen's, in the county of Lancaster, for the invention of "improvements in the manufacture of sulphates of soda and potash and in the apparatus employed in such manufacture."
909. To Thomas Sims Cocking, of High-street, Sittingbourne, in the county of Kent, Manufacturing Chemist, for the invention of "improvements in apparatus for the manufacture of pills."
911. To Benjamin Joseph Barnard Mills, of the firm of Harris and Mills, of 23, Southampton-buildings, in the county of Middlesex, Patent Agent, for the invention of "improvements in apparatus to be employed when casting metals or alloys under pressure."—A communication to him from abroad by Pierre Ludovic Van den Berghe, of Paris, in the Republic of France.
913. To John Cowan, of the Vineyard, Garston, near Liverpool, for the invention of "improvements in the heating of steam boilers."
915. To Francis Chamberlain, of Barnsley, in the county of York, for the invention of "improvements in the manufacture of bricks, tiles, and other similar articles, and in the machinery or apparatus employed therein."
919. To Gottfried Stierlin, of Schaffhouse, in the Republic of Switzerland, Patent Hinge Manufacturer, for the invention of "an improved double action spring door hinge to open a door both ways, the hinge to be fixed in the top of the door instead of the bottom, as other hinges at present in use are."
921. And to William Short Batley, of Leeds, in the county of York, for the invention of "improvements in machinery and apparatus for mixing clay for the purpose of making bricks, tiles, or other similar articles."

On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 3rd day of March, 1876.

923. To Armytage Bakewell, of 7, Hamilton-terrace, Hendon, in the county of Middlesex, for the invention of "improvements in armour for plating ships, forts, and other similar structures, which consist in the use of water or any liquid or fluid as a packing for armour plates of steel, iron, or both, or other metal or metals or materials."
925. To Richard Robert Harper, of 19, Salisbury-street, Strand, W.C., for the invention of "improvements in roller and other skates."
929. To George Clark, of No. 10, Craven-buildings, Drury-lane, in the county of Middlesex, for the invention of "improvements in roller skates."
933. To Charles Frederick Wood, of Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, Machinist, for the invention of "improvements in roller skates."

985. To Alexander Guthrie, of No. 45, Gainsford-street, Horselydown, in the county of Surrey, for the invention of "improvements in steam and other such like motive power engines."
937. To Charles Clamond, of Boulevard de Strasbourg, No. 23, Paris, Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in skating rinks."
941. To William Kaye, of Huddersfield, in the county of York, Mechanic, for the invention of "improvements in steam engines."
945. To George Rydill, of Southampton-buildings, London, for the invention of "improvements in preparing woollen, cotton, silk, and other such like fabrics for extracting vegetable fibres therefrom, and for cleaning the same."
947. And to William Robert Lake, of the firm of Haseltine, Lake, & Co., Patent Agents, Southampton-buildings, London, for the invention of "improvements in kilns for burning bricks and other articles."—A communication to him from abroad by George Snowden Redfield, of Chicago, Illinois, United States of America."

On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 4th day of March, 1876.

949. To Charles Stuart, Engineer, of Halifax, in the county of York, for the invention of "improvements in the construction of taps or valves for controlling and regulating the flow of steam, water, gas, or other fluids."
951. To Edwin Lee, of Bolton, in the county of Lancaster, Boot Maker, for the invention of "improvements in the manufacture of boots and shoes."
953. To Alexander Melville Clark, of 53, Chancery-lane, in the county of Middlesex, Patent Agent, for the invention of "improvements in the manufacture of pig iron and in furnaces and apparatus used therein."—A communication to him from abroad by Charles Himrod, of Youngstown, in the county of Mahoning, State of Ohio, United States of America.
955. To John Atherton, of Saint Helens, in the county of Lancaster, for the invention of "improvements in the manufacture of glass, and in apparatus therefor."
