

Saint Catherine Rowsley both in the county of Derby and in the diocese of Lichfield, which are comprised within and are co-extensive with the limits of those parts of the two townships of Stanton and Birchover which are together situate to the west of an imaginary line commencing at the point near Pilhough in the middle of the road leading from Bakewell past the eastern side of the village of Stanton Leys to Cowley Hall where the boundary which divides the township of Rowsley from the township of Stanton aforesaid diverges to the east from the said road and extending thence for a distance of one mile and a quarter or thereabouts first southward and then generally south-eastward along the middle of the same road to the boundary near Warren Car which divides the said new parish of Saint Catherine Rowsley from the new parish of South Darley in the county and diocese aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lichfield.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 24th day of March, 1876.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the third day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, in the words following; that is to say,

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty chapter fifty-five have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint James situate within the limits of the parish of Brighton in the county of Sussex and in the diocese of Chichester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint James situate within the limits of the parish of Brighton as aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Richard Bishop of the said diocese of Chichester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly represent, that it would in our opinion be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Brighton which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part together with the boundaries thereof is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint James situate within the limits of such parish as aforesaid and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint James, Brighton.'

"And with the like consent of the said Richard Bishop of the said diocese of Chichester (testified as aforesaid) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published and that marriages baptisms churchings and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint James situate within the limits of the parish of Brighton as aforesaid and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always that so long as the Reverend John Hannah Doctor of Civil Law the present vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Brighton shall continue to be such vicar or incumbent all the fees which may be received in respect of such publication solemnization or performance at the said church of Saint James situate within the limits of the parish of Brighton as aforesaid shall be paid over by the minister thereof to the said John Hannah and provided also that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration and to make such order with respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint James Brighton, being:

"All that part of the parish of Brighton in the county of Sussex and in the diocese of Chichester wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls which is bounded on the south by the sea and upon all other sides that is to say on the east on the north and on the west by an imaginary line commencing upon the southern boundary of the said parish of Brighton at a point upon the sea shore a little to the west of the Old Chain Pier and opposite to the middle of the southern end of Wentworth-street and extending thence that is from the said point northward and in a direct line across the Esplanade and across the Marine Parade to a point in the middle of the southern end of Wentworth-street aforesaid and continuing thence still northward along the middle of the last-named street and across St. James's-street and along the middle of Chapel-street to the boundary at the junction of the last-named street with Edward-street which boundary divides the said parish of Brighton from the District Chapelry of Saint John the Evangelist Brighton sometime part of the parish of Brighton aforesaid and extending thence first westward and then northward and then again westward along the said boundary thereby following the course of
