

Edward-street aforesaid of Saint John-street and of the street called or known as Carlton-hill to the point at the southern end of Nelson-street where the same boundary leaves Carlton-hill aforesaid and continuing thence westward from the said boundary along the middle of the last named street to its junction with the road called or known as Grand-parade and extending thence southward along the middle of the last named street or road and along the middle of the street or road called or known as Pavilion parade to the junction of the last named street or road with the roadway which leads past the eastern side of the enclosure called or known as the Old Steyne and past the eastern side of the Albion Hotel to the Grand Junction-road and continuing thence that is from the last described point of junction generally southward along the middle of the last described roadway to its southern end at its junction with the Grand Junction-road and continuing thence still southward and in a direct line passing midway between the Albion Hotel aforesaid and the entrance to the Brighton Aquarium to the southern boundary of the said parish of Brighton upon the sea shore as aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Chichester.

C. I. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 24th day of March, 1876.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-sixth and thirty-seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme; bearing date the tenth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, in the words and figures following, that is to say;

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England acting in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-sixth and thirty-seventh years of your Majesty chapter thirty-nine, have prepared and now humbly submit to your Majesty in Council the following scheme for the conversion of the Non Residentiary Prebend of Cantlowes (otherwise Cantlers otherwise Kentish Town) in the Cathedral Church of Saint Paul in the diocese of London into a Canonry and for accepting and assigning a certain endowment for the same.

"Whereas under and by virtue of the said Act and of the Acts therein mentioned, the Dean and Chapter of the said Cathedral Church of Saint Paul have laid before us a plan for effecting the objects hereinbefore mentioned, and the same plan bears the capitular seal of the said Dean and Chapter and also bears the episcopal seal and the signature of the Bishop of London.

"And whereas the said plan is in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"To the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England.

"In the Matter of the Act (3 and 4 Victoria cap. 113) intituled An Act to carry into effect with certain modifications the fourth Report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues and of the Act (36 and 37 Victoria cap. 39) the short title whereof is, the Cathedral Acts Amendment Act 1873.

"We the Very Reverend Richard William Church, M.A. Dean of the Cathedral Church of Saint Paul in London and the Chapter of the same church with the sanction of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend John Lord Bishop of London the Visitor of the same church do in pursuance of the provisions in that behalf contained in the above mentioned Acts lay before you the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners the following "Plan.

"1. The Non-residentiary Prebend of Cantlowes otherwise Cantlers otherwise Kentish Town in the Cathedral Church of Saint Paul in London shall henceforth be styled and shall for all the purposes of the "Cathedral Acts Amendment Act 1873" be converted into a Canonry of the same Cathedral Church.

"2. The Ecclesiastical Commissioners shall accept for the endowment of such Canonry the capital sum of £2,500 Stock of the Metropolitan Board of Works now held by the Dean and Chapter of the said church upon trust for the purposes of this plan and proposed to be transferred to the said Commissioners for the purposes of such endowment and any further endowment in money or land which may hereafter from time to time be provided for that purpose.

"3. The funds and estates for the time being constituting such endowment may be from time to time sold invested and reinvested as the said Commissioners shall in their discretion think fit and the said Commissioners shall with respect thereto have all such powers of investment or variation of investment as they shall for the time being be lawfully able to exercise with respect to their other funds and property or any part thereof. And the said Commissioners shall from time to time pay to the holder for the time being of the said canonry the annual income arising from the said endowment and the funds and property constituting or representing the same.

"4. The patronage of the said canonry shall belong to the Bishop of London for the time being.

"5. The following duties shall be assigned to the holder for the time being of the said canonry (that is to say) the duty of exercising the office of Inspector of religious knowledge in the primary schools in the diocese of London in connection with the Church of England according to such rules and regulations as the Bishop of London for the time being shall from time to time in that behalf make or ordain by a writing or writings under his hand and seal to be deposited in the Registry of the diocese of London. Provided that all such rules and regulations may be from time to time in like manner revoked or altered by the Bishop of London for the time being as he shall see fit.

"6. It shall also be the duty of the holder for the time being of the said canonry to reside within the limits of the diocese of London and not to absent himself from such diocese for any period exceeding the space of three calendar