C. L. Peel.

At the Court at Windsor, the 24th day of March, 1876.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the first session of the Parliament holden in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to abridge the holding of benefices in plurality, and to make better provision for the residence of the clergy," after reciting that, "Whereas from the increase of population, or from other circumstances, it may be expedient that two or more benefices which have been heretofore united or which may be hereafter united under the provisions of this Act should be disunited," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "That when two or more benefices shall have been united, or may be hereafter united into one benefice, and with respect to his own diocese it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, or the bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said Archbishop of the Province, that one or more of the benefices within his diocese, of which such united benefice shall consist, may be separated therefrom with advantage to the interests of religion, the said Archbishop shall

"inquire into the circumstances of the case, and if on such inquiry it shall appear to him that such union may be usefully dissolved, so far as respects such benefice or benefices, he shall, six weeks at least before certifying such inquiry to Her Majesty as hereinafter directed, cause, with respect to his own diocese, a statement in writing of the facts, and in all other cases a copy in writing of the aforesaid representation to be affixed on or near the principal outer door of the church or in some public and conspicuous place in each of the benefices forming part of the united benefice, with notice to any person or persons interested that he, she, or they may within such six weeks show cause in writing under his, her, or their hands to the said Archbishop against any such union; and if no sufficient cause be shown within such time, the Archbishop shall certify the inquiry and consent, when the patron's consent is necessary, to Her Majesty in Council, and thereupon it shall be lawful for Her Majesty to issue an Order for separating such last mentioned benefice or benefices from such united benefice, and, for declaring the rights of patronage of the several patrons, if there be more than one patron, and such Order shall be registered in the registry of the diocese to which such united benefice shall belong, which Order the registrar of such diocese, immediately on the receipt thereof, is hereby required to register accordingly, and thereupon immediately if such united benefice shall be then vacant, otherwise on the first avoidance thereof, such union shall be ipso facto dissolved, so far only as regards such benefice or benefices so proposed to be separated from such united benefice, but in all other respects shall remain in full force and effect, and thenceforward such last mentioned benefice or benefices shall be and be deemed and taken to be a separate and distinct benefice or benefices to all intents and purposes whatever as if no such union had taken place, and the patron or patrons thereof shall and may according to the terms of such Order present or nominate thereto respectively, and so from time to time upon each and every avoidance of the same: Provided always, that no benefices which have been united for more than sixty years before the passing of this Act shall be disunited without the consent in writing of the patron or patrons thereof."

And whereas by section 23 of the said recited Act it is further enacted "That whenever two or more benefices which have at any time been united into one benefice shall be disunited and become separate benefices under the provisions of this Act whether the Order for the disunion shall extend to the whole number of benefices of which such united benefice consisted, or to one or more of such benefices only, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council, on the recommendation of the Archbishop of the province, with the consent of the patron or patrons of such benefice respectively (such consent to be signified in writing under the hands of such patron or patrons), to assign and attach such portion of the glebe lands, tithes, moduses, rent-charges, or other endowments or emoluments belonging to or arising, or accruing within the limits of such united benefice to each of such benefices respectively, as to Her Majesty in Council shall seem fit, notwithstanding such proportion of glebe land, tithes, rent-charges, moduses, or other endowments or emoluments, or any part thereof, may not arise or accrue within the

"limits: the benefice to which the same shall be so assigned and attached as aforesaid, or may not have belonged thereto, and also to divide and apportion between such benefices all such charges and outgoings as before the disunion thereof were imposed upon the whole united benefice."

And whereas the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury pursuant to the provisions of the said Act, hath duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a certificate in writing, bearing date the 21st day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, in the words following (that is to say):

"To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

"We the undersigned Archibald Campbell, Lord Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury, Primate of all England, and Metropolitan, do hereby certify to your Majesty in Council.

"That the Right Reverend Christopher, Lord Bishop of Lincoln, as Bishop of the diocese, within which is situated the united benefice, consisting of the rectory of East Leake and the rectory of West Leake, in the county of Nottingham, having represented unto us that the disunion of the said united benefice, by the separation of the said rectory of West Leake from the said rectory of East Leake, might be made with advantage to the interests of religion, we inquired into the circumstances of the case.

"That on such inquiry it appeared to us that such union might be usefully dissolved.

"That the Reverend Gustavus Alfred Sneyd, of East Leake, in the county of Nottingham, clerk, the patron or person entitled to present or nominate to the said united benefice, if the same were now vacant, consents to the proposed disunion.

"That six weeks and upwards before certifying such inquiry and consent to your Majesty in Council, we caused a copy in writing of the said representation of the said Lord Bishop to be affixed to the principal outer door of each of the parish churches of the said united benefice, with notice to any person or persons interested that he, she, or they might, within six weeks, show cause in writing, under his, her, or their hand or hands to us the said Archbishop against such disunion, and no such cause has been shown.

"The representation of the said Lord Bishop of Lincoln, our inquiry into the circumstances of the case, the reply thereto, and the consent in writing of the patron, and the copies of the representation and notice before referred to are hereunto annexed.

"And we do hereby certify the inquiry and consent aforesaid to your Majesty in Council, to the intent that your Majesty in Council may, in case your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do, make and issue an order for separating the said rectory of West Leake from the said rectory of East Leake.

"And inasmuch as the patron of the said united benefice has, by his written consent before referred to, signified his consent that the endowments and emoluments belonging to or accruing within the limits of the said united benefice shall be distributed in the manner hereinafter proposed, and that the charges and outgoings now imposed upon the said united benefice, which are hereinafter specified, shall be divided and apportioned in the manner hereinafter proposed. We therefore recommend to your Majesty in Council that, in case your Majesty in Council shall think fit to issue an order for separating the said rectory of West Leake from the said rectory of East Leake, your Majesty in Council will by the same order assign and attach to the said rectory of West Leake all and singular the yearly rent charge, amounting to one hundred and twenty-eight pounds eleven shillings and six pence, payable to the rector of West Leake aforesaid, under and by virtue of an Act of Parliament passed in the sixteenth year of the reign of George the Second, intituled, 'An Act for making perpetual an agreement for the exchange of lands for tithes, made between Evelyn Chadwicke, Esquire, lord of the manor of West Leake, in the county of Nottingham, and Granville Wheler, clerk, rector of the parish church there,' and all other payments or compositions in lieu of tithes arising within the parish of West Leake, also the house of residence, with the yards, gardens, and appurtenances thereto belonging, situate at West Leake aforesaid, and all glebe lands situate within the said parish of West Leake, and consisting of one field called the Hall Field, and containing fifteen acres and eighteen perches, and all other endowments and emoluments belonging or reputed to belong to the said rectory and parish church of West Leake, and also all such surplice fees, Easter offerings, and other emoluments usually payable to the incumbent of a parish or benefice as shall arise within or in respect of the said rectory of West Leake aforesaid. And that your said Majesty in Council will by the same order assign and attach to the said rectory of East Leake all and singular the tithe rent charges and other payments or compositions for or in lieu of tithes, and all the glebe lands and other endowments and emoluments belonging, or reputed to belong, to the said rectory of East Leake aforesaid, and also all such surplice fees, Easter offerings, and other emoluments usually payable to the incumbent of a parish or benefice as shall arise within or in respect of the rectory and parish of East Leake aforesaid. And that your Majesty in Council will, by the same order, apportion the charges now attaching to the said united benefice which are hereinafter specified (that is to say), yearly tenths, amounting to two pounds ten shillings and five pence, chief rent to Crown land revenues, amounting to one pound twelve shillings, and first fruits, amounting to twenty-five pounds seven shillings and four pence, so that the said rectory of East Leake shall be liable to two-third parts of such charges, and the said rectory of West Leake shall be liable to one-third part thereof.

"As witness our hand, this twenty-first day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six.

"A. O. Cantuar."

Now therefore Her Majesty in Council by and with the consent of Her said Council is pleased to Order and doth hereby Order and direct that the said rectory of West Leake shall be separated from the said rectory of East Leake, and to assign and attach to the said rectory of West Leake all and singular the yearly rent charge amounting to one hundred and twenty-eight pounds eleven shillings and six pence, payable to the rector of West Leake aforesaid under and by virtue of an Act of Parliament, passed in the sixteenth year of the reign of George the Second, intituled "an Act for making perpetual an agreement for the exchange of lands for tithes made between Evelyn Chadwicke, Esquire, lord of the manor of West Leake, in the county of Nottingham, and Granville Wheler, clerk, rector of the parish church there," and all other payments or compositions in lieu of tithes arising within the parish of West Leake, also the house of residence with the yards, gardens and appurtenances thereto belonging, situate at West Leake aforesaid, and all glebe lands situate within the said parish of West Leake, consisting of one field called the Hall Field, and containing fifteen acres and eighteen perches, and all other endowments and emoluments belonging or reputed to belong to the said rectory and parish church of West Leake; and also all such surplice fees, Easter offerings and other emoluments usually payable to the incumbent of a parish or benefice as shall arise within or in respect of the said rectory of West Leake aforesaid. And Her Majesty in Council, by and with the consent of Her said Council is pleased to assign and attach to the said rectory of East Leake all and singular the tithe, rent charges and other payments and compositions for or in lieu of tithes and all the glebe lands and other endowments and emoluments belonging or reputed to belong to the said rectory of East Leake aforesaid, and also all such surplice fees, Easter offerings and other emoluments usually payable to the incumbent of a parish or benefice as shall arise within, or in respect of the rectory and parish of East Leake aforesaid.

And Her Majesty in Council, by and with the consent of her said Council is pleased to apportion the charge now attaching to the said united benefices as hereinafter specified (that is to say) yearly tenths amounting to two pounds ten shillings and five pence, chief-rent to Crown land revenues amounting to one pound twelve shillings, and first fruits amounting to twenty-five pounds seven shillings and four pence, so that the said rectory of East Lake shall be liable to two-third parts of such charges, and the said rectory of West Leake shall be liable to one-third part thereof.

C. L. Peel.

At the Court at Windsor, the 24th day of March, 1876.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the first session of the Parliament holden in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to abridge the holding of benefices in plurality, and to make better provision for the residence of the clergy," after reciting that "Whereas in some instances tithings, hamlets, chapelries, and other places or districts may be separated from the parishes or mother churches to which they belong, with great advantage, and places altogether extra-parochial may in some instances with advantage be annexed to parishes or districts to which they are contiguous, or be constituted separate parishes for ecclesiastical purposes," it is, amongst other things, enacted "That when with respect to his own diocese it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, or when the Bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said Archbishop that any such tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district within the diocese of such Archbishop, or the diocese of such Bishop, as the case may be, may be advantageously separated from any parish or mother church, and either be constituted a separate benefice by itself or be united to any other parish to which it may be "more conveniently annexed, or to any other adjoining tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district, parochial or extra-parochial, so as to form a separate parish or benefice, or that any extra-parochial place may with advantage be annexed to any parish to which it is contiguous, or be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes; and the said Archbishop or Bishop shall draw up a scheme in writing (the scheme of such Bishop to be transmitted to the said Archbishop for his consideration) describing the mode in which it appears to him that the alteration may best be effected, and how the changes consequent on such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, rent-charges, and other ecclesiastical dues, rates, and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews, may be made with justice to all parties interested; and if the patron or patrons of the benefice or benefices to be affected by such alteration shall consent in writing under his or their hands to such scheme, or to such modification thereof as the said Archbishop may approve, and the said Archbishop shall, on full consideration and inquiry, be satisfied with any such scheme, or modification thereof, and shall certify the same and such consent as aforesaid, by his report to Her Majesty in Council, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Majesty in Council to make an Order for carrying such scheme, or modification thereof, as the case may be, into effect."

And whereas by another Act of Parliament, passed in the second and third years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne; and for other purposes, after reciting the hereinbefore recited Act, and that it was expedient that the provisions thereof should be extended to cases, notwithstanding the vacancy or vacancies of the benefice or benefices thereby to be affected, and also that when by such Order a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes is constructed, the same should become a perpetual curacy with cure of souls," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "That any such scheme, or modification may be drawn up according to the regulations and directions in the said recited Act contained, subject to the consent in writing of the patron or patrons of the benefice or benefices, and that it should be lawful for Her Majesty in Council, thereupon to make an Order for carrying such scheme, or modification thereof, as the case may be, into effect, and that such Order being registered in the vestry of the diocese, as directed by the recited Act, should come into operation and should be forthwith binding on all persons whatsoever notwithstanding such vacancy or vacancies."

And whereas the Lord Bishop of Bangor hath made a representation in writing to the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, in the words and figures following (that is to say):

"To the Most Reverend Archibald Campbell, Lord Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury.

"I, James Colquhoun, Lord Bishop of Bangor, do hereby represent to your Grace, that there is in the county of Carnarvon, and within my diocese of Bangor, the vicarage and parish of Llannor, with the parochial chapelry of Denio, the limits and boundaries of which parish and parochial chapelry are respectively well known and defined.

"That there is also within the said county of Carnarvon and my diocese of Bangor, the vicarage and parish of Abererch with the parochial chapelry of Penrhos, the limits or boundaries of which parish and parochial chapelry are respectively well known and defined.

"That according to the last census the population of the parish of Llannor was 997, of the parochial chapelry of Denio was 2,559, of the parish of Abererch was 1,754, and of the parochial chapelry of Penrhos was 101.

"That there is a church in each of the said parishes and parochial chapelries, the parish church of Llannor being distant from the church of the said parochial chapelry of Denio about two miles, and from that of the parochial chapelry of Penrhos about three miles, and the parish church of Abererch being distant from the church of the said parochial chapelry of Penrhos about four miles and a half.

"That the parish of Abererch is not contiguous to the parochial chapelry of Penrhos, the parish of Llannor being completely between the said parish and parochial chapelry at every point, and the said churches of Abererch and Penrhos are so far apart that it is difficult for one incumbent to serve both efficiently, and the parishes are so far apart and divided from each other that it is impossible for one incumbent to exercise proper supervision over both.

"That both the said parochial chapelries of Denio and Penrhos appear to have been from time immemorial treated as separate and distinct parishes for all civil and religious purposes, and each of the said four churches with the churchyard thereunto belonging, is deemed to be and is used in all respects as and for the church and churchyard of the parish or chapelry wherein it is locally situate, and each of the said parishes and parochial chapelries has its own churchwardens and parish officers, and is in no way connected as to rates with either or any of the others.

"That the gross yearly value or income of the said benefice of Llannor with Denio is three hundred and sixty-one pounds sixteen shillings and three pence, or thereabouts, and the gross yearly value or income arising from the vicarage of Abererch, independently of the chapelry of Penrhos, is one hundred and seventy pounds, or thereabouts, with ten acres of glebe, more or less, which is situate within the said parish, and the gross yearly value or income arising from the said parochial chapelry of Penrhos is eight pounds, or thereabouts.

"That there is a house of residence within and belonging to the said parochial chapelry of Denio, but there is none within or belonging to either of the said other parishes or the said parochial chapelry of Penrhos.

"That it does not appear that any of the inhabitants or landowners of either of the said parishes of Llannor and Abererch, or of the said parochial chapelries of Denio and Penrhos, possess any legal right by faculty or otherwise to the exclusive use of any pews or sittings in any or either of the said churches or chapels.

"That the persons residing within the said parishes of Llannor with Denio and Abererch with Penrhos, appear to be rateable for the repairs only of the church or chapel of the parish or chapelry in which they are so resident and not to any other or others of the said churches or chapels.

"That in consequence of the chapelry of Denio containing the populous town of Pwllheli and of the large extent of the parish of Llannor, it is difficult for one incumbent to exercise proper control over both.

"That a similar difficulty occurs with respect to the benefice of Abererch and Penrhos, in consequence of their being separated from each other by the parish of Llannor, and of their not being contiguous at any one point, whilst the parishes of Llannor and Penrhos are contiguous and adjacent to each other for a considerable distance.

"That the patronage of or right of collation to the said benefice of Llannor with Denio (if the same were now vacant) and of or to the benefice of Abererch with Penrhos (now vacant) belongs to me in right of my see of Bangor, and that the Reverend Ellis Osborne Williams is the present incumbent of the said benefice of Llannor with Denio.

"That it appears to me that under the provisions of the Act of Parliament, passed in the session holden in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter one hundred and six, and of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, the said parochial chapelry of Denio, might, under the aforesaid circumstances, with advantage to the interests of religion, be separated from the parish and mother church of Llannor, and be constituted a separate benefice, and that the parochial chapelry of Penrhos might be separated from the parish and mother church of Abererch, and annexed to the vicarage and parish of Llannor for ecclesiastical purposes.

"That pursuant to the directions of the said Act, I have prepared the following scheme, which, together with the consent thereto of the Reverend Ellis Osborne Williams, the incumbent of the benefice of Llannor with Denio, I do submit to your Grace, to the intent that your Grace may, if on full consideration and enquiry you shall be satisfied with such scheme, certify the same and such consent by your report to Her Majesty in Council."

And whereas the scheme and consents in the said representation are in the words and figures following:—

"The Scheme above referred to.

"1. The said parochial chapelry of Denio shall be separated from the said vicarage and parish of Llannor, and be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes, and a perpetual curacy, under the style of the perpetual curacy of Denio, and the church within and belonging to the said parochial chapelry of Denio shall be the parish church of the said perpetual curacy.

"2. The house situate within the chapelry of Denio, and which is now the house of residence belonging to the vicarage of Llannor with Denio, shall be transferred from the said vicarage to the perpetual curacy of Denio so to be constituted, and shall be the house of residence thereof.

"3. The said chapelry of Penrhos shall be separated from the said vicarage and parish of Abererch, and shall be united and annexed to, and become and be deemed for ecclesiastical purposes part and parcel of the said vicarage and parish of Llannor, and the incumbent of the said vicarage of Llannor shall have exclusive cure of souls within the limits of the said chapelry of Penrhos.

"4. All the tithe rent charges, lands, houses, hereditaments, and monies now constituting the endowment of the said present benefice of Llannor and Denio, shall henceforth be transferred to and shall constitute the endowment of the said perpetual curacy of Denio, and of the incumbent thereof and his successors.

"5. In the event of the scheme hereby proposed being carried into effect by an Order of Her Majesty in Council, it is my intention, and I hereby engage with the sanction (already signified) of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, to endow the said vicarage and parish church of Llannor with the whole of the rectorial tithe rent charge arising within that parish, and now belonging to me in right of my see of Bangor, which rent charge amounts to the gross annual value or sum of three hundred and twenty-five pounds eight shillings and ten pence, or thereabouts, to the intent that the incumbent thereof may receive the same in lieu of and substitution for the tithe rent charge and other endowments hereby proposed to be transferred and assigned to the said perpetual curacy of Denio.

"6. All tithe rent charges or other payments or compositions in lieu of tithes, which arise or accrue to the vicar of Abererch in respect of the said chapelry of Penrhos, shall be transferred from the said vicarage of Abererch, and shall be attached to the said vicarage of Llannor, and be held, received, and enjoyed by the incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Llannor with Penrhos accordingly, and all fees and other ecclesiastical dues and payments for churchings, marriages, burials, and other ecclesiastical offices solemnized and performed within or in respect of the said chapelry of Penrhos, shall henceforth belong to the respective incumbent, clerk, and sexton of the vicarage of Llannor with Penrhos, as the case may be.

"7. The inhabitants of the parish of Llannor shall not be called upon to contribute to the repair and maintenance of the church of Denio, nor shall the inhabitants of the perpetual curacy of Denio be called upon to contribute to the repair and maintenance of the church of Llannor.

"8. The inhabitants of the parochial chapelry of Penrhos shall not be called upon to contribute to the repair and maintenance of the parish church of Abererch, nor shall the inhabitants of the parish of Abererch be called upon to contribute to the repair and maintenance of the church of the parochial chapelry of Penrhos.

"9. The inhabitants of the said parish of Llannor shall not be entitled henceforth to any accommodation within the said church of Denio, nor shall the inhabitants of the said parish of Denio be entitled henceforth to any accommodation in the said parish church of Llannor, nor shall the inhabitants of the said parochial chapelry of Penrhos be henceforth entitled to any accommodation in the said parish church of Abererch, nor shall the inhabitants of the said parish of Abererch be henceforth entitled to any accommodation in the church of the parochial chapelry of Penrhos, except, nevertheless, any person or persons (if any) possessing any legal right by faculty or otherwise to the exclusive use of any pew or sitting in the said parish churches or chapels, or in any or either of them, and who may not be willing to relinquish and give up the same.

"10. The patronage of the said perpetual curacy of Denio shall belong to the Bishop of Bangor and his successors.

"Given under my hand this seventh day of March, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six.

"J. C. Bangor."

"Consents.

"I, the undersigned James Colquhoun, Lord Bishop of Bangor, the patron of, or the person entitled in right of my see to collate to the said benefice of Llannor, with the chapelry of Denio thereunto belonging (if the same were now vacant), and to the said vicarage (now vacant), of Abererch, with the chapelry of Penrhos thereunto belonging, and I, the Reverend Ellis Osborne Williams, the present incumbent of the benefice of Llannor, with Denio chapelry thereunto belonging, do each of us hereby respectively consent to the scheme above proposed and set forth, and to every matter and thing therein contained.

"Given under our hands this seventh day of March, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six.

"J. C. Bangor,

"Ellis Osborne Williams,

"Vicar of Llannor and Denio."

And whereas the said Lord Bishop hath transmitted the said scheme to the said Lord Archbishop, together with the said consents.

And whereas the said Lord Archbishop being, on full consideration and enquiry, satisfied with such scheme, hath certified the same and such consents as aforesaid, by his report to Her Majesty in Council, dated the sixteenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, to the intent that Her Majesty in Council might, in case Her Majesty in Council should think fit so to do, make and issue an Order for carrying the said scheme into effect.

Now therefore Her Majesty in Council by and with the advice of Her said Council is pleased to order and it is hereby ordered that the said scheme of the said Lord Bishop of Bangor be carried into effect.

In Parliament—Session 1876.London Brighton and South Coast Railway (Various Powers) Bill.

IT is the intention of the London Brighton and South Coast Railway Company to petition the House of Commons, as soon as the forms of the House will permit, for leave to introduce into the Bill now pending in that House, under the above title, additional provision for the purpose of enabling the Company to close that part of the footpath called Lovers'-walk, in the parish of Preston, in Sussex, which lies between the junction of Hamilton-road and Stanford-road, at the point marked A on the plan hereinafter referred to, and the point marked B on the same plan, and to make a new carriage road in the same parish, commencing at the said point A, and proceeding thence in a north-westerly direction, and terminating in the Dyke-road, at or near the Windmill Inn, at the point marked Z on the said plan; and also another new carriage road branching out of the first mentioned new road, at a distance of about 300 yards from the said junction of Hamilton-road with Stanford-road, at the point marked W on the said plan, and passing in an easterly direction over the railway (as now existing and as intended to be widened), and thence continued south-eastward to the London-road, and terminating in the said road at the point marked X on the said plan; about 70 yards northward of the viaduct carrying the Hastings Branch over the London-road, and it is also intended to connect the remaining part of Lovers'-walk, not intended to be closed as aforesaid, with the said last mentioned new road at the said point marked B on the said plan.

Duplicate plans and sections describing the lines, situation, and levels of the proposed roads, and the lands, houses, and other property in or through which they will be made, together with a book of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners and lessees, or reputed owners and lessees, and of the occupiers of such lands, houses, and other property (the said plans also showing the part of the said Lovers'-walk proposed to be closed as aforesaid), will, on or before the 5th day of April, 1876, be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Sussex, at his office at Lewes, with the Town Clerk of the borough of Brighton, at the Townhall in Brighton, and with the parish clerk of Preston, at his residence.

Printed copies of the proposed additional provision or clause may be obtained after the said 5th day of April, at the offices of the Solicitors and Parliamentary Agents of the Company.

Dated this 31st day of March, 1876.
