

other payments or compositions in lieu of tithes arising within the parish of West Leake, also the house of residence with the yards, gardens and appurtenances thereto belonging, situate at West Leake aforesaid, and all glebe lands situate within the said parish of West Leake, consisting of one field called the Hall Field, and containing fifteen acres and eighteen perches, and all other endowments and emoluments belonging or reputed to belong to the said rectory and parish church of West Leake; and also all such surplice fees, Easter offerings and other emoluments usually payable to the incumbent of a parish or benefice as shall arise within or in respect of the said rectory of West Leake aforesaid. And Her Majesty in Council, by and with the consent of Her said Council is pleased to assign and attach to the said rectory of East Leake all and singular the tithe, rent charges and other payments and compositions for or in lieu of tithes and all the glebe lands and other endowments and emoluments belonging or reputed to belong to the said rectory of East Leake aforesaid, and also all such surplice fees, Easter offerings and other emoluments usually payable to the incumbent of a parish or benefice as shall arise within, or in respect of the rectory and parish of East Leake aforesaid.

And Her Majesty in Council, by and with the consent of her said Council is pleased to apportion the charge now attaching to the said united benefices as hereinafter specified (that is to say) yearly tenths amounting to two pounds ten shillings and five pence, chief-rent to Crown land revenues amounting to one pound twelve shillings, and first fruits amounting to twenty-five pounds seven shillings and four pence, so that the said rectory of East Lake shall be liable to two-third parts of such charges, and the said rectory of West Leake shall be liable to one-third part thereof.

C. L. Peel.

At the Court at Windsor, the 24th day of March, 1876.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the first session of the Parliament holden in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to abridge the holding of benefices in plurality, and to make better provision for the residence of the clergy," after reciting that "Whereas in some instances tithings, hamlets, chapelries, and other places or districts may be separated from the parishes or mother churches to which they belong, with great advantage, and places altogether extra-parochial may in some instances with advantage be annexed to parishes or districts to which they are contiguous, or be constituted separate parishes for ecclesiastical purposes," it is, amongst other things, enacted "That when with respect to his own diocese it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, or when the Bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said Archbishop that any such tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district within the diocese of such Archbishop, or the diocese of such Bishop, as the case may be, may be advantageously separated from any parish or mother church, and either be constituted a separate benefice by itself or be united to any other parish to which it may be "more conveniently annexed, or to any other adjoining tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district, parochial or extra-parochial, so as to form a separate parish or benefice, or that any extra-parochial place may with advantage be annexed to any parish to which it is contiguous, or be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes; and the said Archbishop or Bishop shall draw up a scheme in writing (the scheme of such Bishop to be transmitted to the said Archbishop for his consideration) describing the mode in which it appears to him that the alteration may best be effected, and how the changes consequent on such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, rent-charges, and other ecclesiastical dues, rates, and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews, may be made with justice to all parties interested; and if the patron or patrons of the benefice or benefices to be affected by such alteration shall consent in writing under his or their hands to such scheme, or to such modification thereof as the said Archbishop may approve, and the said Archbishop shall, on full consideration and inquiry, be satisfied with any such scheme, or modification thereof, and shall certify the same and such consent as aforesaid, by his report to Her Majesty in Council, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Majesty in Council to make an Order for carrying such scheme, or modification thereof, as the case may be, into effect."

And whereas by another Act of Parliament, passed in the second and third years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne; and for other purposes, after reciting the hereinbefore recited Act, and that it was expedient that the provisions thereof should be extended to cases, notwithstanding the vacancy or vacancies of the benefice or benefices thereby to be affected, and also that when by such Order a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes is constructed, the same should become a perpetual curacy with cure of souls," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "That any such scheme, or modification may be drawn up according to the regulations and directions in the said recited Act contained, subject to the consent in writing of the patron or patrons of the benefice or benefices, and that it should be lawful for Her Majesty in Council, thereupon to make an Order for carrying such scheme, or modification thereof, as the case may be, into effect, and that such Order being registered in the vestry of the diocese, as directed by the recited Act, should come into operation and should be forthwith binding on all persons whatsoever notwithstanding such vacancy or vacancies."

And whereas the Lord Bishop of Bangor hath made a representation in writing to the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, in the words and figures following (that is to say):

"To the Most Reverend Archibald Campbell, Lord Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury.

"I, James Colquhoun, Lord Bishop of Bangor, do hereby represent to your Grace, that there is in the county of Carnarvon, and within my diocese of Bangor, the vicarage and parish of Llannor, with the parochial chapelry of Denio, the limits and boundaries of which parish and
