"A. C. Cantuar."

Now therefore Her Majesty in Council by and with the advice of Her said Council is pleased to order and doth hereby order that the said rectory of Latimer in the county of Buckingham and diocese of Oxford and the vicarage of Flaunden in the county of Hertford and diocese of Rochester shall be united into one benefice for the cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes only and that the said benefice shall belong to the diocese of Oxford.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the third day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of your Majesty chapter thirty-nine have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and to the church and cure (which said church and cure are hereinafter called the said benefice) of Tuxleaf otherwise Tuxlith otherwise Milland in the county of Sussex and in the diocese of Chichester.

"Whereas the said advowson or perpetual right of patronage of the said benefice of Tuxleaf otherwise Tuxlith otherwise Milland is now vested in Thomas Staunton of No. 11, Porchester-square in the county of Middlesex Esquire, and Thomas Frederick Inman of the city of Bath Esquire and their heirs and assigns upon certain trusts in favour of the Reverend Edward William Batchellor, of Trotton in the said county of Sussex Clerk in Holy Orders.

"And whereas the said Thomas Staunton Thomas Frederick Inman and Edward William Batchellor are respectively desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of the said benefice of Tuxleaf otherwise Tuxlith otherwise Milland now vested in them or some of them as aforesaid should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop of the said diocese of Chichester for the time being.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Richard now Bishop of the said diocese of Chichester, is willing to accept for himself and his successors Bishops of the same diocese the said proposed transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary, he the said Richard Bishop of the said diocese of Chichester has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas it appears to us that the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Tuxleaf otherwise Tuxlith otherwise Milland which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish of the same name, being the parish in or in respect of which the said right of patronage and advowson arises and exists; by rendering the said benefice more eligible than it is at present for augmentation out of funds under our control.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Thomas Staunton and Thomas Frederick Inman, and with the consent of the said Edward William Batchellor (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Richard Bishop of the said diocese of Chichester (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal) we humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council, ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of the said benefice of Tuxleaf otherwise Tuxlith otherwise Milland now vested in the said Thomas Staunton and Thomas Frederick Inman and their heirs and assigns upon trust as aforesaid, shall be transferred from the said Thomas Staunton and Thomas Frederick Inman and from their heirs and assigns to the said Richard Bishop of the said diocese of Chichester and his successors Bishops of the same diocese for ever and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Richard Bishop of the said diocese of Chichester and by his successors Bishops of the same diocese for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Chichester.
