

seventy-six, in the words following, that is to say:—

“We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for augmenting the income of the Archdeaconry of Lewes, in the diocese of Chichester.

“Whereas it has been made to appear to us that the average net annual income of the said Archdeaconry of Lewes does not exceed the sum of forty-seven pounds.

“We therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Richard, Bishop of the said diocese of Chichester testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme humbly recommend and propose that we be authorized to pay out of the common fund created by the said Act to the Archdeacon of the said Archdeaconry of Lewes and to his successors in the same Archdeaconry the sum of one hundred and fifty three pounds on the first day of January in every year in respect of the twelve calendar months ended that day: and that such yearly payment shall be held to have accrued as from the twenty-seventh day of October in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy, being the day on which a certain other yearly payment of like amount ceased to be payable by us to the Archdeacon of the said Archdeaconry of Lewes according to the terms of the Order of your Majesty in Council authorising the payment of the same, which Order was dated the thirteenth day of August in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five and was published in the London Gazette on the fourteenth day of September in the same year.

“Provided always that in respect of any and every year in which the Archdeacon of the said Archdeaconry of Lewes shall have resigned or otherwise avoided the said Archdeaconry on some day other than the first day of January, the sum of one hundred and fifty-three pounds which we may be authorized as aforesaid to pay to the said Archdeaconry for that year shall be apportioned by us between and paid by us in proportional sums respectively to, the Archdeacon (or, as the case may be the representatives of the Archdeacon) who has so resigned or otherwise avoided the said Archdeaconry of Lewes, and the Archdeacon who shall next thereafter be instituted to the same Archdeaconry: and provided also, that every payment made by us in respect of the said annual sum of one hundred and fifty-three pounds shall be made only on production to us of a certificate under the hand of the Bishop of the diocese for the time being, that the Archdeacon who applies (or whose representatives apply) for it has during the previous year complied with the conditions as to residence which at the date of such application are required by law.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Act or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London

Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Chichester.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 24th day of March, 1876.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-seventh and thirty-eighth years of Her Majesty, chapter sixty-three, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the second day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, in the words following; that is to say:

“We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England acting in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-seventh and thirty-eighth years of your Majesty, chapter sixty-three, have prepared and now humbly submit to your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting with respect to that Archdeaconry within the diocese of Hereford, which heretofore has been and now is known as the Archdeaconry of Salop, the following objects, that is to say:—

“With the consent of the Right Reverend James, Bishop of the said diocese of Hereford, in testimony of which consent he has to this scheme set his hand and seal, we humbly recommend and propose,

“First, that from and after the day on which any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme shall be published in the London Gazette, the Archdeaconry aforesaid shall no longer be called by the name aforesaid that is to say ‘The Archdeaconry of Salop’ but shall be called by the name of ‘The Archdeaconry of Ludlow,’ and that, and no other, shall be the name and style thereof, and “Secondly, that from and after the day aforesaid, the whole of the parish of Aston, being a parish now situate within the rural deanery of Clun in the diocese of Hereford, which rural deanery is within the Archdeaconry aforesaid, and the whole of the parish of Burrington, being a parish now situate within the same rural deanery and the whole of the parish of Downton, being a parish now situate within the same rural deanery, and the whole of the parish of Leintwardine, being a parish now situate within the same rural deanery, shall be transferred from the said rural deanery of Clun, and shall become and be within and form part of the rural deanery of Ludlow, which rural deanery of Ludlow is also within the Archdeaconry aforesaid, and within the said diocese of Hereford.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures, with respect to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Act or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has, been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have
