

still southward to and along the middle of the last-named street to the boundary at the junction of the same street with Cromer-street which boundary divides the said parish of Saint Jude Gray's Inn-road from the parish of Saint Peter Regent-square aforesaid.

"And also all that contiguous portion of the said parish of Saint Peter Regent-square which is bounded on the south-west by the parish of Saint Pancras aforesaid on the north-west and on the greater part of the north-east by the said parish of Saint Jude Gray's Inn-road (including the hereinbefore described portion of the last-named parish) and on the remaining part of the north-east by the parish of Saint Bartholomew Saint Pancras within the original limits of the parish of Saint Pancras aforesaid and upon the remaining side that is to say upon the south by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Saint Bartholomew Saint Pancras from the parish of Saint Peter Regent-square aforesaid at a point in the middle of Gray's Inn-road opposite to the middle of the north-eastern end of Black Horse-yard and extending thence south-westward to and along the middle of the said yard to its south-western end and continuing thence still generally south-westward along the wall or fence which divides the buildings and premises abutting on and opening to the southern side of Cromer Street aforesaid from the buildings and premises abutting on and opening to the northern side of Harrison-street to a point in the middle of the eastern end of the street or footway called or known as Greenland-grove and extending thence first south-westward and then north-westward along the middle of the last-named street or footway to its junction with Cromer-street aforesaid and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-named street to the boundary at the junction of the same street with Judd-street which boundary divides the said parish of Saint Peter Regent-square from the parish of Saint Pancras aforesaid."

And whereas drafts of the said Scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the secondly hereinbefore-mentioned Act been transmitted to the Patrons and to the Incumbents of the Vicarage of the said parish of Saint Jude Gray's Inn-road and of the Vicarage of the said parish of Saint Peter Regent-square out of which Cures it is intended that the District recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken, and the Patrons and the Incumbent of the said Vicarage of the parish of Saint Jude Gray's Inn-road and the Patrons of the said Vicarage of the parish of Saint Peter, Regent-square, have respectively signified their assent to such scheme:

And whereas the Incumbent of the said Vicarage of the parish of Saint Peter, Regent-square, aforesaid, has offered certain objections to the same Scheme:

And whereas the said Scheme has notwithstanding such objections, been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 12th day of August, 1876.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty chapter thirty-seven sections six and eight duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the third day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, in the words and figures following; that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property situate at or in the townships of Westoe and Harton in the parish of Jarrow, in the county of Durham and now vested in us.

"Whereas under and by virtue of a certain indenture bearing date the twenty-third day of June one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, and made or expressed to be made between Frances Mary du Quaire of number 14 Wilton-street Grosvenor-place in the county of Middlesex, Widow, of the one part, and us the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the other part, certain lands and hereditaments situate at or in the townships of Westoe and Harton in the parish of Jarrow in the county of Durham, more particularly described in the schedule hereto annexed, became, with their appurtenances, and are now vested in us.

"And whereas the said lands and hereditaments are not subject to any outstanding beneficial lease or grant, but are now in our possession but some portions thereof, on account of their character and situation are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the same or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said lands and hereditaments, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest in such lands and hereditaments or in any part or parts thereof in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now therefore we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law from time to time to sell or dispose of and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said lands and hereditaments so vested in us as aforesaid with their appurtenances and all our estate right title and interest therein or in any part or parts thereof unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same and his or their heirs executors administrators or assigns or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and enquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sale, from time to time as occasion may arise, in the purchase of other lands tithes rent-charges tenements or hereditaments or
