NOTICE.

Foreign Office, September 19, 1876.

A DESPATCH has been received from Her Majesty's Chargé d'Affaires at Madrid, enclosing a copy of a Note from the Spanish Minister for Foreign Affairs, in which it is stated, as regards passports, that all that is required from foreigners entering Spain is that they should be provided with some document to prove their identity. British subjects who may be about to proceed to Spain are nevertheless recommended to provide themselves with passports, and attention is again called to the note appended to the Passport Regulations issued by direction of the Secretary of State, in which the advantage of a passport as a ready means of identification is pointed out for the information of British subjects travelling on the Continent generally.

(No. 112.)—CHINA.—FORMOSA, NORTH COAST.

Sunken Rock near the Entrance of Ke-Lung Harbour.

INFORMATION has been received from Vice-Admiral A. P. Ryder, Commander-in-Chief of H.M. Ships on the China Station, that H.M.S. "Audacious," drawing 23 feet, recently touched, at about 2 miles north of Ke-lung Harbour, on what there is good reason to believe was a sunken rock.

The rock is stated to lie W. by N. about 1½ miles from Ke-lung Island, and is supposed to be a pinnacle, as at the time of the vessel touching, no soundings could be obtained from the chains with 14 fathoms of line. The weather being unfavourable, the position of the rock could only be approximately determined.

An examination of the locality will be made and further notice given when the position of this rock shall be established.

(No. 115.)—THE COAST OF NORWAY.

Intended Adoption of a System of Beaconage and Buoyage.

THE Norwegian Government has given notice, that with a view to the adoption of a general system of beaconage and buoyage on the Coast of Norway, the following alterations will shortly be made :—

Beacons or Landmarks.

Fixed landmarks, iron poles and pillars; will be provided with arms indicating the side on which the navigable channel lies.

When there is deep water on both sides the beacons will be provided with two arms, one on each side.

Beacons much exposed to heavy seas will not be provided with arms.

Floating Marks.

White Poles.—A white pole with a broom turned upwards denotes that the shallow water lies north or east of the mark

Black Poles.—A black pole with a broom turned downwards denotes that the shallow water lies south or west of the mark.

Striped Poles.—A pole with white and black horizontal lines and with a ball attached denotes that vessels may pass on either side.

Buoys.—The buoys will be painted red, but provided with poles of the colour and description above-mentioned.

As a commencement of the intended system; the floating marks on the south coast between the Swedish Frontier and Lister, will from the 1st June, 1877, be altered in conformity with the above notice.
