

1st East Riding of Yorkshire Rifle Volunteer Corps.

The first Christian name of Lieutenant Flodman, whose promotion appeared in the London Gazette of the 12th September, 1876, is Arthur, and not Augustus.

The promotion of Sub-Lieutenant Bulmer to be Lieutenant, should be dated 20th October, 1875, and not 22nd October, 1875.

4th West Riding of Yorkshire Rifle Volunteer Corps.

Lieutenant Christopher J. Kirby resigns his Commission. Dated 4th October, 1876.

Commission signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Northampton.

George Lewis Watson, Esq., to be Deputy Lieutenant. Dated 22nd September, 1876.

THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.

LITCHAM FAIR.

WHEREAS a representation has been duly made to me, as Secretary of State for the Home Department, by the Justices acting for the combined Petty Sessional Division of Mitford and Launditch, in the county of Norfolk, that a Fair has been annually held at Litcham, in the said division of the said county, on the 1st day of November; and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished:

And whereas notice of the said representation, and of the time when I should take the same into consideration, has been duly published in pursuance of "The Fairs Act, 1871:"

And whereas, on such representation and consideration, it appears to me that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished:

And whereas the Reverend William Arundel Walpole Keppel, as lord or owner of the said Fair, and the tolls thereof, has consented in writing that the said Fair should be abolished:

Now, therefore, I, as the Secretary of State for the Home Department, in exercise of the powers vested in me by "The Fairs Act, 1871," do hereby order that the Fair which has been annually held at Litcham, in the said division of the said county, on the 1st day of November, shall be abolished as from the date of this order.

Given under my hand at Whitehall, this 2nd day of October, 1876.

Richard Assheton Cross.

THE FAIRS ACT, 1873.

BURTON-UPON-TRENT FAIR.

WHEREAS a representation has been made to me, as Secretary of State for the Home Department, by the Burton-upon-Trent Town Commissioners, as owners, that a Fair has been annually held within their district on or during nine days (Sundays excepted) in the month of October, such nine days terminating on the 29th day of October, unless such last-mentioned day falls upon a Sunday, and then such nine days terminate on Monday, the 30th day of October, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be held on or during a less number of days than those on which such Fair is used to be held, and that it should be henceforth held on the 28th and 29th days of October in each year, unless either of such days shall in any year happen to be Sunday, then such Fair in that year shall be held upon that one of such two days which is not Sunday, and upon the following 30th day of October.

And whereas notice of the said representation, and of the time when I should take the same into consideration, has been duly given to the Clerk to the Justices acting in and for the Petty Sessional Division of Burton-upon-Trent, and otherwise published in pursuance of "The Fairs Act, 1873:"

And whereas on such representation and consideration it appears to me that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the time for holding the said Fair should be altered as proposed:

Now, therefore, I, as the Secretary of State for the Home Department, in exercise of the powers vested in me by "The Fairs Act, 1873," do hereby order that the Fair which has been annually held within the district of Burton-upon-Trent on or during nine days (Sundays excepted) in the month of October, such nine days terminating on the 29th day of October, unless such last-mentioned day fall on a Sunday, and then such nine days terminate on Monday, the 30th day of October, shall be held on or during a less number of days than those on which such Fair is used to be held, and that it should be henceforth held on the 28th and 29th days of October in each year, unless either of such days shall in any year happen to be Sunday, then such Fair in that year shall be held upon that one of such two days which is not Sunday, and upon the following 30th day of October.

Given under my hand at Whitehall, this 2nd day of October, 1876.

Richard Assheton Cross.
