

of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty in, your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Christ Church, Rhos-y-bol, being :—

"All that the southern part of the parish or parochial chapelry of Almwch in the county of Anglesey and in the diocese of Bangor wherein the present incumbent of such parish or parochial chapelry now possesses the exclusive cure of souls which is bounded on the west partly by the parish of Bodewryd with Rhosbeirio partly by the parish of Llanbadrig and partly by the chapelry of Llanbabo in the parish of Llandeusaint all in the said county and diocese on the south partly by the new parish of Llauerchymedd with Gwredog and Ceidio or Rhodogeideo annexed and partly by the parish of Llandyfyrdog all in the said county and diocese on the east by the last-named parish and upon the remaining sides that is to say on the north-east and on the north by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said last-named parish from the parish or parochial chapelry of Amlwch aforesaid at the point at or near to the house called or known as Glangors where the stream called or known as Gors-goch crosses the road leading from Dulas over the southern end of Paris Mountain into the road leading from Rhos-y-bol to Amlwch and extending thence that is from the said boundary north-westward for a distance of ninety-eight chains or thereabouts along the middle of the first-described road to its junction near to the house called or known as Foel with the road leading from Rhos-y-bol to Amlwch as aforesaid and extending thence north-eastward for a distance of thirty-three chains or thereabouts along the middle of the last-described road to its junction near to the house called or known as Foel Chwidw with the cross road leading to the house called or known as Tynlôn and extending thence westward for a distance of eighty-eight chains or thereabouts along the middle of the said cross road to its junction at the house called or known as Tynlôn aforesaid with the road leading from Amlwch to Llanbabo and extending thence south-westward for a distance of fifty chains or thereabouts along the middle of the last-described road to its intersection at the house called or known as Foure Crosses by the road leading from Llandyfyrdog to Bodewryd and extending thence north-westward for a distance of thirty chains or thereabouts along the middle of the last-named road to the boundary which divides the said parish or parochial chapelry of Amlwch from the parish of Bodewryd with Rhosbeirio aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Bangor.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 9th day of December, 1876.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the twentieth and twenty-first years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Burial Acts," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that in case it appear to Her Majesty in Council, upon the petition of the Local Board of Health of any district established under the Public Health Act, that the district of such Local Board of Health is co-extensive with a district for which it is proposed to provide a burial-ground, and that no Burial Board has been appointed for such district, and that an Order in Council has been made for closing all or any of the burial-grounds within the said district, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, in case Her Majesty see fit so to do, to order that such Local Board shall be a Burial Board for the District of such Local Board, and thereupon such Local Board shall be a Burial Board for such district accordingly, and the powers and provisions of the Acts thereinbefore-mentioned (except the provisions relating to the constitution or appointment and resignation of members of Burial Boards), and the provisions therein contained, shall extend to the district of such Board, and to such Board, and to any burial-ground and places for the reception of the bodies of the dead previously to interment which may be provided by such Board, in like manner as to any parish or parishes, and the Burial Board thereof, and any burial-ground, and any such places as aforesaid provided by such last-mentioned Board, save that no approval, sanction, or authorization of any vestry shall be requisite: Provided always, that notice of such petition, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and in one of the newspapers usually circulating in the district of such Local Board, one month, at least, before such petition is so considered:

And whereas the Newtown and Llanllwchaiarn Local Board in the county of Montgomery, have presented a petition to Her Majesty in Council, stating that the district of the said Local Board is co-extensive with the district for which it is proposed to provide a burial-ground, that no Burial Board has been appointed for such district, and that an Order in Council has been made for closing, with certain exceptions, the burial-grounds within the said district, and praying that the said Local Board may be appointed a Burial Board for the district of such Local Board:

And whereas notice of such petition, and of the time when Her Majesty was pleased to order the same to be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, has been duly published as required by the said Act:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order and it is hereby ordered, that the Newtown and Llanllwchaiarn Local Board, in the county of Montgomery, shall be a Burial Board for the district of such Local Board, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act passed in the session of Parliament, held in the twentieth and twenty-first years of Her Majesty's reign.

C. L. Peel.