Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 29, 1876.

Foreign Office, December 29, 1876.

THE following Notification has been received from Her Majesty's Ambassador at Vienna :

(Translation.)

NOTIFICATION of the Austrian Ministry of Commerce and Finance of the 24th November, published in the Journal of the Laws of the Empire, 22nd December, 1876, relative to the Customs Duties to be levied on Cotton and Woollen Goods, from the 1st of January, 1877.

In consequence of the expiration of the Treaty of Commerce entered into between Austria-Hungary and Great Britain on the 16th of December, 1865, and of the Convention of December 30, 1869, the import duties stipulated for in the latter will cease to be in force after the end of the year 1876, and will be regulated, from the 1st of January, 1877, until further notice, by the Customs stipulations contained in the Commercial Treaty with Germany of March 9, 1868, relative to the importation of cotton and woollen goods.

Whitehall, December 29, 1876.

The Queen has been pleased to present the Reverend Robert William Burnaby, M.A., to the Vicarage of St. Barnabas, St. Marylebone, in the county of Middlesex, and diocese of London, vacant by the cession of the Reverend Richard Haworth Hart, M.A.

By virtue of an Act passed in the twenty-fourth year of the reign of His Majesty King George III, intituled "An Act to repeal so much of two Acts made in the tenth and fifteenth years of the reign of His present Majesty, as authorizes the Speaker of the House of Commons to issue his Warrant to the Clerk of the Crown for making out writs for the election of Members to serve in Parliament, in the manner therein mentioned, and for substituting other provisions for the like purposes;" and of an Act passed in the twenty-sixth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to further limit and define

"the time for proceeding to Election during the Recess:"

I do hereby give notice, that the death of Sir Robert Gore Booth, Bart., late a Member serving in this present Parliament for the county of Sligo, hath been certified to me in writing, under the hands of two Members serving in this present Parliament; and that I shall issue my Warrant to the Clerk of the Crown to make out a new writ for the electing of a Member to serve in this present Parliament for the said county, at the end of six days after the insertion of this notice in the London Gazette.

Given under my hand this twenty-eighth day of December, 1876.

H. BRAND, Speaker.

Crown Office, December 28, 1876.

The two Peers of Scotland elected and chosen to sit and vote in the House of Peers in this present Parliament in the room of George, Marquis of Tweeddale, and John Thornton, Earl of Leven and Melville, deceased, are—
The Earl of Marr and Kellie, and
The Lord Balfour, of Burley.

MEMBER returned to serve in the present PARLIAMENT.

Borough of Lisheard.

Leonard Henry Courtney, of Chapel Stairs, Lincoln's-inn, Esq., in the place of the Right Honourable Edward Horsman, deceased.

Whitehall, December 20, 1876.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto Thomas Denman, Baron Denman, and to Marion, Baroness Denman, his wife, elder of the four daughters and co-heirs of James Aitchison, late of Alderston, in the county of Haddington, Esq., deceased, Her Royal licence and authority that they may, in compliance with a clause contained in a deed of disposition and entail, bearing date the 18th day of November, 1864, made by Janet Rennie, or Aitchison, Widow of the said James Aitchison, deceased, take and use the surname of Aitchison, in addition to and before that of Denman :

And to command that the said Royal concession and declaration be recorded in Her Majesty's College of Arms, otherwise to be void and of none effect.
