THE CONTAGIOUS DISEASES (ANIMALS) ACT, 1869.

THE Lords of the Council have been advised that cattle-plague has been detected in a cargo of cattle brought from Hamburg, and landed at the Foreign Cattle Market, Deptford, in the port of London.

16th January, 1877.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 16th day of January, 1877.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT :

Earl of Carnarvon.
Viscount Sandon.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1869, (in this Order referred to as the Act of 1869,) and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows :

1. This Order shall take effect from and immediately after the seventeenth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven ; and words in this Order have the same meaning as in the Act of 1869.

2. All the regulations of the Fourth Schedule to the Act of 1869 shall apply to sheep and goats brought to Great Britain from a port or place in the German Empire, and landed in Great Britain, and such sheep and goats shall not be landed except at a landing-place within the respective defined parts of the following ports :

Glasgow.	Middlesbrough.
Goole.	Newcastle-upon-Tyne.
Grimsby.	Plymouth.
Hartlepool.	Shields, North.
Hull.	Southampton.
Littlehampton.	Sunderland.
London.

3. All such sheep and goats shall be slaughtered within ten days after the landing thereof, exclusive of the day of landing.

But this Article shall operate subject to the special provisions of the Order of Council defining parts of the Port of Southampton, dated the fifth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five.

C. L. Peel.
