The Bankruptcy Act, 1861.Notice of Dividend Meeting.

A Meeting of the Creditors of the Bankrupt hereinafter named will be held, pursuant to the 174th section of the said Act, at the time and place hereinafter mentioned; that is to say:—

At the Court of Bankruptcy, Lincoln's-inn-fields, in the county of Middlesex, before William Powell Murray, Esq., a Registrar:

John Court, of 5, Belverine-villas, Merton-road, Wandsworth, in the county of Surrey, Barrack Clerk, employed in the War Office, Pall Mall, adjudicated bankrupt on the 1st day of February, 1869. A Dividend Meeting will be held on the 12th day of February instant, at twelve o'clock at noon precisely.

At the said Meeting the Assignee will, in pursuance of the 174th section of the said Act, submit statements of the Bankrupt's estate received and outstanding, and of all receipts and of all payments made or to be made thereout; and the creditors at the said meeting will, in pursuance of the said section, declare whether any and what allowance shall be paid to the said bankrupt. Proofs of Debts will be received, and creditors who have not proved, or do not then prove, will be excluded the benefit of the Dividend. And all claims not proved will be disallowed.

The Bankruptcy Act, 1869.In the London Bankruptcy Court.

In the Matter of James Westran Sherman, of 13, Park-place, Regent's Park, in the county of Middlesex, a Bankrupt.

Before Mr. Registrar Spring-Rice, sitting as Chief Judge.

UPON reading a report of the Trustee of the property of the bankrupt, dated the 10th day of November, 1876, reporting that the statement of affairs filed in this matter does not disclose that the bankrupt was, at the time of such statement being filed, possessed of any assets, and from enquires made he was of opinion that the bankrupt was not at that time possessed of any property which could be realized for the benefit of his creditors, neither had the bankrupt to his knowledge since acquired any such property, and that in his opinion it was advisable that the bankruptcy should be closed, the Court, being satisfied that the statement of affairs filed in this matter does not disclose that the bankrupt was, at the time of such statement being filed, possessed of any assets, and that he was not at that time possessed of any property which could be realized for the benefit of his creditors, neither had the bankrupt since acquired any such property, and that it was desirable that the bankruptcy should be closed, doth order and declare that the bankruptcy of the said James Westran Sherman has closed.—Given under the Seal of the Court this 25th day of January, 1877.
