

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, MARCH 2, 1877.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
February 1, 1877.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that The Queen will hold a Drawing Room at Buckingham Palace, on Wednesday, the 14th of March next, at three o'clock.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING ROOM AT BUCKINGHAM PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Ladies, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing Room, at Buckingham Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to The Queen.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Lady who proposes to be presented to The Queen must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Drawing Room, a card with her name written thereon, and with the name of the Lady by whom she is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation, that no presentation can be made at a Drawing Room excepting by a Lady actually attending that Court, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Lady who is to make the presentation, of her intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's Command, that no presentations shall be made at the Drawing Room, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to The Queen.

It is not expected that Gentlemen will present themselves at Drawing Rooms, except in attendance on the Ladies of their families.

Any Gentleman who under these circumstances should desire to be presented to The Queen, will observe the same regulations as are in force for Her Majesty's Levees.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at two o'clock.

HERTFORD,
Lord Chamberlain.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
February 27, 1877.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Levee at Buckingham Palace, on Monday, the 12th of March next, at three o'clock.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED WITH REGARD TO THE LEVEE AT BUCKINGHAM PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee, at Buckingham Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to The Queen.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented to The Queen, must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulations that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, of his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command that no presentation shall be made at Levees, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to The Queen.

ADDRESSES.

Notice is hereby given, that all persons having Petitions or Addresses to present to the Queen at Her Majesty's Levee, are to deliver a card (having on it their names, a statement of the object of such Petitions or Addresses, and the names of the persons from whom they come), to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, before twelve o'clock two clear days previous to the Levee; and that two other cards, having on them precisely what is written upon that sent to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, are to be taken to the Levee: one of the two cards to be delivered to the Page in the Corridor, and the other to the Lord Chamberlain, who will read its contents to The Queen; and on these occasions, no other statement is to be addressed to Her Majesty.

A Deputation to present an Address is not to exceed Four Persons.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at two o'clock.

HERTFORD,
Lord Chamberlain.

Jennings, John William

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction, consisting of ninety-three pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage of Otley, in the county of York, and in the diocese of Ripon, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the said vicarage of Otley, to meet such benefaction, one other capital sum of ninety-three pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of executing certain works for the permanent improvement of the parsonage house and premises belonging to the said vicarage, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Otley.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-second day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction, consisting of seven hundred and fifty pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage of Saint Stephen, Barbourne, in the county of Worcester, and in the diocese of Worcester, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the said vicarage of Saint Stephen, Barbourne, to meet such benefaction one other capital sum of seven hundred and fifty pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage, according to plans and a specification to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Saint Stephen, Barbourne.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-second day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of Saint Luke, New Kentish Town, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and twenty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, and to be receivable in four equal portions, on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that the annual sum or stipend so granted by us to the Incumbent of the said vicarage, shall be paid only upon the production to us, on or after each of the said lastly-mentioned days in each and every year, of a certificate under the hand of the Bishop of the said diocese of London, that two Assistant-Curates, duly licensed by such Bishop, have been employed within the parish of Saint Luke, New Kentish Town aforesaid, during the quarter of the year then ended, and that each of such curates is in receipt of a salary after a rate of not less than one hundred and twenty pounds per annum: Provided also, that such yearly sum or stipend shall continue payable as aforesaid so long only as may to us appear so to be expedient under the circumstances from time to time affecting the said parish and vicarage of Saint Luke, New Kentish Town.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-second day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the rectory of Saint Mary, Shackleford, in the county of Surrey, and in the diocese of Winchester, one capital sum of one hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said rectory, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said rectory of Saint Mary, Shackleford.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-second day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant to the Incumbent of the new parish and vicarage of Beamish, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham, and to his successors, Incumbents thereof, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the twenty-sixth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year:

And we do also hereby grant and appropriate out of our said common fund to the said new parish and vicarage of Beamish, one capital sum of one thousand and five hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said new parish and vicarage, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said new parish and vicarage of Beamish: Provided always, that if at any time, lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend of one hundred pounds, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said new parish and vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-second day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of five hundred and fifty pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage of Saint Osyth, in the county of Essex, and in the diocese of Rochester, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same vicarage, and to his successors, a yearly sum of eighteen pounds six shillings and eight pence, and of a further benefaction, consisting of a certain dwelling-house and premises which have been permanently secured to the same vicarage, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Saint Osyth, and to his successors, to meet the aforesaid benefactions, one yearly sum or stipend of thirty-six pounds fourteen shillings and eight pence, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the yearly sum or stipend so payable out of our common fund, as lastly herein mentioned, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-second day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of "The Stanhope and Wolsingham Rectories Act, 1858," section seven, and of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the new parish and vicarage of Stanley, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same new parish and vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of fifty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the thirteenth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said new parish and vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-second day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Hatfield Peverel, in the county of Essex, and in the diocese of Rochester, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of two hundred and sixteen pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the thirteenth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-second day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven.

In the Matter of the Native Guano Company Limited, and in the Matter of the Companies Acts, 1862 and 1867.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a petition for the winding up of the above-named Company by the Court was, on the 27th day of February, 1877, presented to the Lord Chancellor by Antony Blacklorne, of No. 35A, South Audley-street, in the county of Middlesex, a contributory of the said Company; and that the said petition is directed to be heard before the Vice-Chancellor Sir Richard Malins, on the 16th day of March, 1877; and any creditor or contributory of the said Company desirous to oppose the making of an order for the winding up of the said Company, under the above Acts, should appear at the time of hearing by himself or his counsel for that purpose; and a copy of the petition will be furnished to any creditor or contributory of the said Company requiring the same by the undersigned, on payment of the regulated charge for the same.

Collette and Collette, 23, Lincoln's-inn-fields, Solicitors for the Petitioners.

THE Inclosure Commissioners for England and Wales hereby give notice, that applications have been made by the undermentioned persons for the advance of the undermentioned Sums, by way of Loan, under the provisions of the Public Money Drainage Acts, for the drainage of the lands hereinafter specified:—

Witness my hand this 19th day of February, in the year of our Lord 1877.

E. TATTERSHALL,
By order of the Board.

SOLDIERS' BALANCES UNCLAIMED.

IN pursuance of the "Regimental Debts Act, 1863," notice is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department has available, for distribution amongst the Next of Kin or others entitled, the sum of money set opposite to the name of each of the deceased soldiers named in the list which is published with this notice in the London Gazette, and the "Army List," and is also to be seen at the Quarters of the several Staff Officers for the Recruiting and Pension Service throughout the United Kingdom.

Applications from persons supposing themselves entitled as Next of Kin should be addressed by letter to "The Under-Secretary of State, War Office, London, S.W.," and marked outside "Soldier's Effects."

No application can be attended to which does not state the date and place of the soldier's birth, enlistment, and death, and the name of his regiment; his regimental number should also be stated if known.

Should these particulars furnished by the applicant not agree with the facts recorded on the War Office documents relating to the deceased soldier, the applicant will be so informed; but should they agree therewith, then within three calendar months the Secretary of State will furnish the applicant with the usual requirements needed for the proof of the alleged relationship.

The application must be authenticated by the signature of the applicant, and his name should be affixed in the presence of the clergyman, or one of the churchwardens of the parish, or a Justice of the Peace; the applicant's address, with the name of the post town, must also be clearly stated. No personal application can receive attention.

Further lists will from time to time be published, and therefore it will facilitate the applicant's inquiries to give the number and date of the notice in which the deceased soldier's name appeared.—EFFECTS, 1876-7.

By order of the said Principal Secretary,
J. C. W. VIVIAN.

NOTE.—A copy of this Notice is to be seen at the Quarters of the several Staff Officers for the Recruiting and Pension Service throughout the United Kingdom.

In Parliament.—Session 1877.

LEIGH'S PATENT FOR CERTAIN IMPROVEMENTS IN
CARDING AND SPINNING COTTON,
WOOL, AND OTHER FIBROUS SUB-STANCES, AND MACHINERY OR APPARATUS THEREFOR.

(Confirmation of Patent.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is now being made to Parliament in the present session for leave to bring in a Bill for the following purposes:—

To continue and confirm certain letters patent, bearing date the 31st day of January, 1874 (No. 398), granted to Evan Arthur Leigh, of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, Engineer, for the term of fourteen years, for "certain improvements in carding and spinning cotton, wool, and other fibrous substances, and machinery or apparatus therefor."

To enable the said Evan Arthur Leigh, or the assignee or assignees of his right and interest in the said letters patent, or other persons on his or their behalf, to pay the stamp duty of £50 on the said letters patent, and, upon such payment being made, to enable the Commissioners of Patents, or their Clerk, to stamp the said letters patent, or a duplicate thereof, and to endorse on such letters patent or duplicate a certificate of the production of the same duly stamped, and to endorse a like certificate upon the warrant for such letters patent filed in the said office.

Printed copies of the said Bill will, on or before the 27th day of February instant, be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons, and on and after that date printed copies of the said Bill may be obtained at the office of Messrs. Simson, Wakeford, and Simson, 11, Great George-street, Westminster.

Dated this 21st day of February, 1877.

Simson, Wakeford, and Simson, 11, Great George-street, Westminster, Parliamentary Agents.

To Henry Percy Holt, of Royal Insurance-buildings, Leeds, in the county of York, Civil Engineer, and William Denison, of West-street, Leeds, in the county of York, Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in fire and burglar proof safes, more particularly in connection with shop windows, and in the apparatus connected therewith."

On their petition, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 2nd day of February, 1877.

458. To Jonathan Risien, of Dover, in the county of Kent, for the invention of "improvements in sliding window sashes and frames, applicable also to other purposes."

462. To Joseph Richmond and Walter Whiting, both of Kirby-street, Hatton-garden, in the county of Middlesex, Engineers, for the invention of "improvements in machines for embossing and printing the covers of books and other articles."

464. To Richard Ewart, Contractor, of Ravens-thorpe, in the county of York, for the invention of "a new or improved stench trap."

466. To James Laker MacMillan, of the Globe Company, Manufacturing Chemist, of Glasgow, in the county of Lanark, North Britain, for the invention of "an improved compound for therapeutic and cosmetic purposes."

470. To Frederick Ransome, of Rushmere Lodge, Lower Norwood, and Thomas Mitcheson Gray, of Battersea, both in the county of Surrey, for the invention of "improvements in the manufacture of boxes and other hollow articles from paper pulp, and in apparatus therefor."—The result partly of a communication to them from abroad by Seth Wheeler and Edgar Jerome, both of Albany, in the State of New York, United States of America, and partly their own invention.

472. To Christopher Cross and Samuel Henry Brownhill, of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, for the invention of "improvements in the manufacture of weaver's healds, and in the apparatus used in such manufacture."

474. To Joseph Tangye, of Tickenhill, Bewdley, in the county of Worcester, Gentleman, for the invention of "improvements in machinery for the manufacture of screws."

476. And to Abel Mayer, of Hanley, in the county of Stafford, Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in machinery for making bricks, tiles, and other similar articles."

On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 3rd day of February, 1877.

478. To William Shorrock, of Preston, in the county of Lancaster, for the invention of "improvements in looms for weaving fancy-goods."

480. To William Ross, of Glasgow, in the county of Lanark, North Britain, Brassfounder, for the invention of "improvements in apparatus or valves for regulating and supplying uniform quantities of water to and preventing waste in water closets, urinals, and other vessels."

482. To Robert Main, Manager of the Carnbroe Iron Works, Coatbridge, in the county of Lanark, North Britain, for the invention of "improvements in utilising or treating certain ores or residuary oxides of iron."

484. To Henry Cherry, of Aston, near Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, Mechanical Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in machinery or apparatus for raising and lowering heavy bodies."

486. To William Drake, of Sheffield, in the county of York, for the invention of "improvements in the manufacture of iron steel and other metals."

488. To John Henry Johnson, of 47, Lincoln's-inn-fields, in the county of Middlesex, Gentleman, for the invention of "improvements in the treatment of sewage, and in the production of manure therefrom, and also in the manufacture of materials therefor, and in the machinery or apparatus to be employed for such purposes."—A communication to him from abroad by Emile Barrault, of Paris, in the Republic of France.

490. To Joseph John Lish, of Scottish-chambers, Grainger-street West, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, in the county of Northumberland, for the invention of "improvements in apparatus for raising scaffolding roofs and the like."

492. And to Paul Jablochhoff, of Paris (France), Engineer, for the invention of "an improved apparatus for generating electricity and motive power."

On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners, on the 5th day of February, 1877.

494. To Paul Jablochhoff, of Paris (France), Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in electric lamps, and in arrangements connected therewith, for dividing and distributing the electric light."

496. To Francis Herbert Wenham, of No. 8, Oxford-road, Ealing, in the county of Middlesex, Engineer, for the invention of "an improved object stage for microscopes."

498. To John Skinner, of Kirkcaldy, in the county of Fife, North Britain, for the invention of "improvements in the shedding apparatus of weaving looms."

500. To James McKenzie, of Glasgow, in the county of Lanark, North Britain, General Superintendent of the British India Steam Navigation Company, for the invention of "improvements in steam boilers."

502. To Thomas Chatwin, of Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, Machinist, for the invention of "improvements in screw wrenches or screw spanners, and in gas-grips."

504. To Robert Roscoe, of No. 52, Brindley-street, Harrow-road, in the county of Middlesex, Engine Driver, for the invention of "an improved signalling apparatus."

505. To William Morgan-Brown, of the firm of Brandon and Morgan-Brown, Engineers and Patent Agents, of 38, Southampton-buildings, London, and 1, Rue Laffitte, Paris, for the invention of "improvements in spinning frames and apparatus connected therewith."—A communication to him from abroad by George Draper and William Franklin Draper, both of Hopedale, Worcester, Massachusetts, United States of America.

506. To William Robert Lake, of the firm of Haseltine, Lake, & Co., Patent Agents, Southampton-buildings, London, for the invention of "improvements in paddle-wheels."—A communication to him from abroad by William Campbell Thompson, of Tipton, Tennessee, United States of America.

507. To Loftus Perkins, of Seaford-street, Gray's-inn-road, in the county of Middlesex, for the invention of "improvements in steam engines and valves for the same, applicable also for other purposes."
508. To Thomas Frederick Henley, of Saint George's-square, Belgravia, in the county of Middlesex, for the invention of "improved process and apparatus for the saccharification of rice, maize, or other grain, or starch material intended for the distillation of alcoholic spirits, or brewing, or for the manufacture of glucose or brewers' saccharine, part of which invention is applicable also to other purposes."
510. To Alexander Melville Clark, of 53, Chancery-lane, in the county of Middlesex, Patent Agent, for the invention of "improvements in rotary engines."—A communication to him from abroad by John Charles Thomas, of Carlinsville, in the county of Macoupin, State of Illinois, United States of America.
512. To Alexander Melville Clark, of 53, Chancery-lane, in the county of Middlesex, Patent Agent, for the invention of "improvements in obtaining and fixing nitrogen in inert substances for fertilizing purposes."—A communication to him from abroad by Claudius César Paday, of Lyons, France.
514. And to William Gardiner, of Strand on the Green, Chiswick, in the county of Middlesex, Commission Agent, for the invention of "improvements in the method of testing the qualities of malt for brewing, and other similar purposes, and in the apparatus for effecting the same."
- On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 6th day of February, 1877.
516. To Joseph Hull, of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, Esquire, for the invention of "improvements in apparatus for preventing corrosion and oxidation in steam generators and other metallic vessels used in the evaporation of liquids."
518. To Maurice Gandy, of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, for the invention of "improvements in and appertaining to 'rolls' for crushing, grinding, pulverizing, or otherwise reducing certain meal, flour, sharps, middlings, pollards, brans, or as otherwise designated."
520. To William Lowe, of Stafford-street, New Brompton, Chatham, Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in valve motion and reversing gear for steam and other engines."
522. To John Henry Cordeaux, of Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, Postal Telegraph Inspector, for the invention of "an improvement or improvements in fixing the insulators of electric telegraphs."
524. To William Alfred Marshall, of Bridgwater, in the county of Somerset, and Jacob Monks, of Fishponds, Bristol, in the county of Gloucester, for the invention of "improvements in reaping and mowing machines."
526. To Walter Hunter, of Bow, in the county of Middlesex, for the invention of "improvements in steam engines."
530. And to William Robert Lake, of the firm of Haseltine, Lake, & Co., Patent Agents, Southampton-buildings, London, for the invention of "improvements relating to the working, regulating, and winding up of clocks, chiefly designed for controlling a series of clocks by pneumatic power."—A communication to him from abroad by Victor Popp, Ernest Resch, and Charles Albert Mayrhofer, as representatives of the "Gesellschaft Zum Betriebe pneumatischer Uhren," of Vienna, Austria.
- On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 7th day of February, 1877.
532. To William Morgan-Brown, of the firm of Brandon and Morgan-Brown, Engineers and Patent Agents, of 38, Southampton-buildings, London, and 1, Rue Laffitte, Paris, for the invention of "improvements in lock stitch sewing machines."—A communication to him from abroad by Charles Frederick Hollis, of Boston, Massachusetts, United States of America.
534. To John Joyce, of Mile End-road, in the county of Middlesex, Mechanical Engineer, for the invention of "an improved machine for packing, moulding, and compressing flour, tobacco, tea, and other substances into packets or parcels."
535. To Julius Nicolaus Kuhn, of Wimpole-street, in the county of Middlesex, for the invention of "improvements in apparatus for dampening postage stamps and other articles, and for other purposes."—A communication to him from abroad by William Zsolnay, of Funfkirchen, in the Austro-Hungarian Empire.
536. To Daniel Bentley and John Broad Jackson, of Lodge Bank Works, Bury, in the county of Lancaster, for the invention of "improvements in or applicable to apparatus for straining pulp."
538. To William Snape, of Great Bolton, in the county of Lancaster, Jacquard Machinist, for the invention of "an improved index machine used in looms for fancy weaving."
539. To George Arthur Hasler, in the employment of Adolph Frankau and Company, of Queen Victoria-street, in the city of London, Merchants, for the invention of "improvements in the construction of stands or supports for holding photographic albums, ladies' companions, and other like articles."—Partly the result of a communication to him from abroad by Hermann Lehmann, of Offenbach on the Main, in Germany, and partly of invention and discovery made by himself.
542. To William Smith, of Heywood, in the county of Lancaster, Machine Maker, for the invention of "certain improvements in looms for weaving."
544. To Pastor Perez de la Sala, of Bond-court-chambers, Walbrook, in the city of London, for the invention of "improvements in ships and vessels to avoid or reduce the effect of collisions and to facilitate steering."
546. To William Manston, of No. 81, St. John's Cottages, Heneker-road, Stratford New Town, in the county of Essex, for the invention of "regulating by self-action the expansion and contraction of wires used for moving railway signals."
548. And to James Coulter, of Dewsbury, in the county of York, Engineer, and Herbert Harpin, of Brockholes, near Huddersfield, in the same county, Quarry Owner, for the invention of "improvements in machinery for dressing, facing, cutting, or shaping stone, marble, granite, or other minerals."
- On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 8th day of February, 1877.

552. To Henry Bennet, of Rugeley, in the county of Stafford, Plumber, and Isaac Bostock, of Rugeley aforesaid, Plumber, for the invention of "improvements in pumps."

—A communication to him from abroad by George Wells, of Montreal, Canada, Engineer.

558. To Samuel Brooks, of the Union Iron Works, West Gorton, Manchester, Machine Maker, and George Harrison, of the same place, Manager, for the invention of "certain improvements in machinery for spinning and doubling."

559. To Joseph Potto Clarke, of Basingbourn, Royston, Cambridgeshire, for the invention of "a new apparatus or appliance for self measuring oils and other liquids drawn off from cans, tanks, barrels, and other vessels or receptacles."

560. And to John Henry Johnson, of 47, Lincoln's-inn-fields, in the county of Middlesex, Gentleman, for the invention of "improvements in extinguishing fires, and in apparatus or means to be employed therefor."—A communication to him from abroad by the firm of F. Girard and Company, of Paris, in the Republic of France.

On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 9th day of February, 1877.

562. To Robert Orchar, of Dundee, in the county of Forfar, North Britain, Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in Laing's overhead sewing machine."

564. To Martin Benson, of No. 9, Southampton-buildings, London, for the invention of "improvements in frictional couplings or devices for imparting and controlling motion."—A communication to him from abroad by Alexander Kirk Rider, of Walden, Orange County, in the State of New York, United States of North America.

570. To William Loynd and John Shaw Loynd, both of Blackburn, in the county of Lancaster, Engineers and Ironfounders, for the invention of "restoring spent sand, known as moulders or ironfounders sand."

572. To Henry John Crosslè, of Leicester, in the county of Leicester, Commission Agent, for the invention of "improvements in the construction of boxes for receiving fares and admission fees."

576. And to Allen Ransome, of Stanley Works, Chelsea, and John Richards, of 10, John-street, Adelphi, Strand, both in the county of Middlesex, Mechanical Engineers, for the invention of "improvements in the application or mode of, and apparatus for, operating endless band or ring saws."

On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 10th day of February, 1877.

578. To Gerarl Wenzeslaus von Nawrocki, of the firm of J. Brandt and G. W. von Nawrocki, Civil Engineers and Patent Agents, of No. 2, Koch-strasse, Berlin, in the German Empire, for the invention of "improvements in brooms or sweeping brushes."—A communication to him by Wilhelm Richter, Engineer, of Berlin, in the German Empire.

579. To Thomas Nelson Willoughby, of Westow-street, Upper Norwood, in the county of Surrey, Licensed Valuer, for the invention of "a noiseless coal scuttle."

580. To John Lockwood, of Glasgow, in the county of Lanark, North Britain, Engineer, for the invention of "the improvement of railway brakes, self-acting or otherwise."

582. To George Smith, of Kennington Park, in the county of Surrey, for the invention of "improvements in obtaining motive power and in the apparatus employed therein."

590. To William Robert Lake, of the firm of Haseltine, Lake, & Co., Patent Agents, Southampton-buildings, London, for the invention of "an improved machine for making wire springs."—A communication to him from abroad by Paul Cucherat, of Brussels, Belgium, Manufacturing Engineer.

On their several petition, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 12th day of February, 1877.

592. To Rufus Herbert Rose, of 14, Southampton-buildings, in the county of Middlesex, for the invention of "improvements in the mode of and in apparatus for opening preserved meat tins, cans, and other like receptacles."

594. To William Ure and Archibald Ure, both of Glasgow, in the county of Lanark, North Britain, Ironfounders, for the invention of "improvements in furnaces for the prevention of smoke and the economy of fuel."

596. And to Peter Cannell Bunn, of Stoke Ferry, in the county of Norfolk, for the invention of "improvements in the production of pigments."

On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 13th day of February, 1877.

600. To Henry Clarke and Samuel Clarke, of Loughborough, in the county of Leicester, for the invention of "improvements in machinery and apparatus applicable to circular machines for making plain or ribbed looped fabrics."

601. To Gerard Wenzeslaus von Nawrocki, of the firm of J. Brandt and G. W. v. Nawrocki, Civil Engineers and Patent Agents, of Berlin, in the Empire of Germany, for the invention of "improvements in water meters."—A communication from Richard Bredo, a person resident at M. Gladbach, in Germany, and Chief Engineer.

602. To Benjamin Walker and John Frederick Augustus Pflaum, both of Leeds, in the county of York, Engineers, for the invention of "improvements in blowing engines and cupolas."

604. To Richard Suggitt, of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, Machinist, for the invention of "improvements in machinery for doubling yarns, applicable in part to certain descriptions of spinning machinery."

606. To Joseph Douleron, senior, and Alfred Douleron, junior, both of Brussels, in the Kingdom of Belgium, Engineers, for the invention of "improvements in the construction of buffers and springs for railway carriages and other springs, tompons for cannon, plugs for gun

- barrels, and stoppers for bottles and other vessels, which improvements are also applicable to other purposes."
607. To Barron Kilner and John William Kilner, of Wakefield, in the county of York, Bottle Manufacturers, for the invention of "an improved tool for forming necks of bottles."
608. To Henry Schooling, of Southampton-buildings, London, for the invention of "improvements in apparatus for locking or fastening the doors of safes, strong rooms, and other similar depositories."
609. To Levi Scofield, of Sudbrooke, Grantham, in the county of Lincoln, Implement Maker, for the invention of "improvements in and additions to reaping and mowing machines."
610. To Thomas Tonks the younger, of Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, Button Manufacturer, for the invention of "an improved link for cuffs, gloves, or other articles of dress."
611. To William Henry Greening, of Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, Manufacturer, for the invention of "improvements in metallic bedsteads."
612. To Alexander Wilson, of Sheffield, in the county of York, for the invention of "improved means for utilizing the waste heat of cupola furnaces."
613. To William Betts, of Wharf-road, City-road, in the county of Middlesex, Capsule Manufacturer, for the invention of "improvements in machinery or apparatus for capsuling bottles and other like receptacles."
615. To Henry Lacy, of Hebden Bridge, in the county of York, Cotton Spinner and Manufacturer, for the invention of "improvements in self-acting mechanism for feeding fuel to steam boiler and other furnaces, and in the construction of bridges, fire-bars, and grate surfaces for such furnaces."
616. To Douglas Coate Crawford, of Chertsey, in the county of Surrey, Civil Engineer, for the invention of "improved means and apparatus for signalling on railways."
617. To Thomas Gray, of Rokesley House, St. Michael's-road, Stockwell, in the county of Surrey, and John Macfarlane Gray, of No. 127, Queen's-road, Peckham, in the same county, for the invention of "improvements in optical instruments for viewing colored signal lights."
619. And to John Shaw, of Ovenden, near Halifax, in the county of York, Contractors' Agent, and William Timbrell Clark, of Queensbury, near Halifax aforesaid, Mechanical Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in machinery or apparatus for boring rocks and similar material."
- On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 14th day of February, 1877.
620. To Horatio Henry Udall, of Chilwell, in the county of Nottingham, Gentleman, for the invention of "improvements in fixed and portable flooring and level surfaces."
621. To Henry Simon, of No. 7, St. Peter's-square, Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, for the invention of "improvements in machinery for crushing ore, stone, cement, and such like substances."—A communication to him from abroad by Friedrich Schiffner, of Obercassel, in the German Empire.
622. To Gerard Wenzeslaus von Nawrocki, of the firm of J. Brandt and G. W. von Nawrocki, Civil Engineers and Patent Agents, of No. 2, Koch Strasse, Berlin, in the German Empire, for the invention of "improvements in centrifugal bolting machines."—A communication to him by Ferdinand Feistel, of the firm of F. Feistel & Co., of Berlin, in the German Empire.
623. To Thomas Vicars the elder and Thomas Vicars the younger, both of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, Engineers, and James Smith, of the same place, Baker, for the invention of "improvements in and connected with ovens used in the baking of bread, biscuits, and the like."
625. To Josiah Swain, of Oldham, in the county of Lancaster, Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in furnaces for smelting and melting ores and metals."
627. To James Kerr, of 54, King William-street, in the city of London, Gun Manufacturer, for the invention of "improvements in the construction of pavements, more especially applicable to wood pavement for streets."
629. To Henry Hughes, of Leicester, in the county of Leicester, for the invention of "improvements in, or connected with, tramway and other locomotive engines, parts of which improvements are also applicable to other similar purposes."
631. To Thomas Robb, of Glasgow, in the county of Lanark, and Joseph Sawers, of Paisley, in the county of Renfrew, North Britain, for the invention of "improvements in the fittings of window frames and their sashes, and in the ventilation of buildings thereby."
633. To Farnham Maxwell Lyte, of the Scientific Club, Savile-row, in the county of Middlesex, Esquire, for the invention of "improvements in the treatment of ores and residual products containing zinc or zinc lead, silver, or copper severally or combined, and in the recovery of zinc and other metals therefrom."
635. To Leonard Clayton and Lawrence Clayton, of Hunslet, near Leeds, in the county of York, Gas Engineers and Contractors, for the invention of "an improved mode of and apparatus for punching metal plates to be used as gas-holder top sheets."
637. And to James Higgins, of Salford, in the county of Lancaster, Machine Maker, and Thomas Schofield Whitworth, of the same place, Manager of Machine Works, for the invention of "improvements in machinery for preparing, spinning, and doubling cotton, and other fibrous materials."
- On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 15th day of February, 1877.
645. To Samuel Taylor, of the Thorns, near Brierley Hill, in the county of Stafford, Chain Manufacturer, and James Butler, of Quarry Bank, in the same county, Smith, for the invention of "certain improvements in anchors."
649. And to Jacob Levi Montefiore, of Great Winchester-street, in the city of London, for the invention of "improved method of treating nickel and cobalt ores, and in apparatus connected therewith."—A communication to him from abroad by Edward Levi Montefiore, residing at Rue de la Victorie, Paris, France.
- On both their petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 16th day of February, 1877.
653. To Alfred George Stockwell, of Prospect-row, Woolwich, in the county of Kent, for the invention of "improvements in electric bell indicator and thief detector."

655. To John Mulhall Corbet, of Delgany, in the county of Wicklow, Ireland, Civil Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in the method of attaching reels to fishing rods."

657. To Charles Henry Green, of 211, Gresham House, Old Broad-street, in the city of London, for the invention of "improvements in the arrangement and construction of gas stoves and utensils to be used therewith, and for other purposes."—A communication to him from abroad by Edward Benson Cox, of the city of Brooklyn, State of New York, in the United States of America.

651. And to James Chisholm, of Edinburgh, in the county of Midlothian, North Britain, for the invention of "an improved combined brooch and chatelaine, or device for carrying materials used in knitting and other similar work."

On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 17th day of February, 1877.

665. To Henry Hiller, Chief Engineer of the National Boiler Insurance Company, of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, for the invention of "improvements in fusible plugs for steam generators and other apparatus."

667. To David Basil Hewitt and George Edward Davis, both of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, for the invention of "improvements in the manufacture of bricks, tiles, and other building materials, and in the utilization for that purpose of various refuse matters."

669. To John Brigham, of the town and county of Berwick-on-Tweed, North Britain, Agricultural Implement Maker, for the invention of "improvements in turnip topping and tailing machines."

671. To Thomas Redmayne, of Sheffield, in the county of York, for the invention of "improvements in apparatus for washing clothes and other similar articles."

675. To Jean Dollbeiser, of Cologne, in the Empire of Germany, for the invention of "improvements in the construction of apparatus for decanting and drawing off wine, beer, and other liquids."

677. To Alexander Wilson, of Sheffield, in the county of York, for the invention of "improved means for utilizing the waste heat discharged into the chimneys or flues of Bessemer converters."

679. To Harrison Holt, of Hall, in the county of York, for the invention of "an improved machine for disintegrating oil and other seeds."

681. And to Absalom Elijah Webb, of Islington, in the county of Middlesex, for the invention of "improvements in candles."

On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 19th day of February, 1877.

683. To John Scarisbrick Walker, of Wigan, in the county of Lancaster, for the invention of "improvements in or relating to the starting and working of condensing engines for winding & other purposes."

685. To Fortune Lewis Bailey, of Indianapolis, Indiana, United States of America, now of No. 8, Southampton-buildings, London, for the invention of "improvements in breech-loading guns."

637. To William John Russell and Robert Wilson, both of Croydon, in the county of Surrey, for the invention of "improvements in locks or fastenings for securing the lids to the bodies of gas syphon boxes, and other similar cases or coverings."

691. To Johann Carl Ludwig Loeffler and Richard William Henry Paget Higgs, both of No. 12, Queen Anne's-gate, Westminster, in the county of Middlesex, for the invention of "improvements in electric telegraphs."

693. To John Craven and Benjamin Craven, both of Wakefield, in the county of York, Engineers, for the invention of "improvements in the manufacture of bricks, tiles, and other like articles, and in the machinery or apparatus employed therefor or connected therewith."

695. To Charles Heap, of Caldershaw, Rochdale, in the county of Lancaster, for the invention of "improvements in machinery for rigging or doubling textile and other fabrics, also for doubling up such fabrics."

697. To David Basil Hewitt, of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, for the invention of "improvements in the utilization of the sulphur contained in 'vat or soda waste,' and in rendering the latter inodorous, and preventing the nuisance arising therefrom."

699. And to Alexander McGregor, of Leigh, in the county of Lancaster, for the invention of "improvements in the construction of reaping & mowing machines."

On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 20th day of February, 1877.

PATENTS WHICH HAVE BECOME VOID.

A LIST of the Letters Patent for Inventions which have become void by reason of the non-payment of the additional Stamp Duty of £50, before the expiration of the third year from the date of such Patents, pursuant to the Act of the 16th Vict., c. 5, sec. 2, for the week ending the 24th day of February, 1877.

601. Charles McBeath, of South Cobbinshaw, in the county of Edinburgh, North Britain, Carpenter, for an invention of "improvements in retorts, and apparatus connected therewith, for the purpose of distillation and calcination of minerals, parts of which are applicable to other purposes."—Dated 18th February, 1874.

603. Michel Baille, of Faubourg St. Honoré, No. 124, at Paris, Engineer, for an invention of "an improved multiple tool."—Dated 18th February, 1874.

608. Francis Kemp, of Aston-under-Lyne, in the county of Lancaster, for an invention of "improved apparatus for coupling and disconnecting railway trucks."—Dated 18th February, 1874.

609. John Townsend Kirkwood, of Ireton House, Cheltenham, in the county of Gloucester, Gentleman, and Wade Hampton Smith, of Edgbaston, Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, Civil Engineer, for an invention of "improvements in treating metals by subjecting them to the action of gases charged with carbon, and in apparatus employed therein."—Dated 18th February, 1874.

613. Richard Long, of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, for an invention of "improvements in and applicable to heating flat irons for laundry purposes, and in apparatus employed therefor."—Dated 18th February, 1874.

614. John Franklin Allen, of New York, in the county of New York, State of New York, and in the United States of America, for an invention of "improved mode of strengthening cannons and other cylinders."—Dated 18th February, 1874.

616. Sam Haley, of Bramley, near Leeds, in the county of York, Machine Maker, for an invention of "improvements in machinery or apparatus for splitting hides or skins."—Dated 18th February, 1874.
617. Philip Egerton, of Cleveland House, Cheltenham, in the county of Gloucester, for an invention of "improvements in mounting spindles to be used for carrying revolving brushes, drills, and such like, to enable them to be applied by hand in any desired direction."—Dated 18th February, 1874.
618. Ivie Mackie MacGeorge, of North Ormesby, Middlesbrough, in the county of York, for an invention of "improvements in appliances for regulating the speed of steam and other like engines."—Dated 18th February, 1874.
623. Thomas Clegg and Thomas Lucas, both of Miles Platting, Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, for an invention of "improvements in arrangements for effecting the grinding of the travelling flats of carding-engines."—Dated 19th February, 1874.
624. Henry Cockey and Francis Christopher Cockey, both of Frome Selwood, in the county of Somerset, for an invention of "improvements in furnace doors."—Dated 19th February, 1874.
625. John Jordan Aris, of No. 20, High Holborn, in the county of Middlesex, Engineer, for an invention of "improvements in the construction of horse shoes."—Dated 19th February, 1874.
