

presentation shall be made at Levees, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to The Queen.

ADDRESSES.

Notice is hereby given, that all persons having Petitions or Addresses to present to the Queen at Her Majesty's Levee, are to deliver a card (having on it their names, a statement of the object of such Petitions or Addresses, and the names of the persons from whom they come), to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, before twelve o'clock two clear days previous to the Levee; and that two other cards, having on them, precisely what is written upon that sent to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, are to be taken to the Levee: one of the two cards to be delivered to the Page in the Corridor, and the other to the Lord Chamberlain, who will read its contents to The Queen; and on these occasions, no other statement is to be addressed to Her Majesty.

A Deputation to present an Address is not to exceed Four Persons.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at two o'clock.

HERTFORD,
Lord Chamberlain.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 6th day of March, 1877.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT:

Lord President.
Viscount Sandon.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1869, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

1. This Order shall take effect from and immediately after this sixth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, and words in this Order have the same meaning as in The Animals Order of 1875.

2. Notwithstanding anything in the Cattle-Plague Order of 1877, or in any other Order of Council, the holding of markets, fairs, exhibitions, or sales of cattle within the Parts of Holland, the Parts of Kesteven, and the Parts of Lindsey, Lincolnshire, and within the Boroughs of Boston, Grantham, Grimsby, Lincoln, Louth, and Stamford, is hereby prohibited, except as follows:

a. Cattle belonging to the owner or occupier of premises not in an infected place, may be sold on those premises if the cattle are not affected with cattle-plague and have been on those premises in possession of the owner or occupier thereof not less than 28 days immediately before the sale.

b. Cattle within a defined part of a port, which have been delivered to the owner or his agent, may be sold within such defined part.

c. Markets, exhibitions, and sales of cattle may be held under licence of the Privy Council.

If any cattle are sold, or exposed or put up for sale, or exhibited in contravention of this Article, the seller thereof, and the auctioneer putting the same up for sale, or the person exposing the same for sale or exhibiting the same, shall each be deemed guilty of an offence against this Order; and if any person holds a market, exhibition, or sale in contravention of this Article, or fails to comply with any of the conditions, provisions, or regulations of any licence for the holding of a market, exhibition, or sale, he shall be deemed guilty of an offence against this Order.

3. Cattle exposed for sale in a market, the holding whereof for the sale of cattle for immediate slaughter is licensed by the Privy Council, may be kept alive for a period of 10 days after such exposure, and no longer.

If any person keeps any cattle alive in contravention of this Article, he shall be deemed guilty of an offence against this Order.

4. The owner, consignee, or other person exposing any cattle in a market, the holding whereof for the sale of cattle for immediate slaughter is licensed by the Privy Council, shall, at his own expense, mark them as follows:

By clipping the hair off the end of the tail, and by clipping a broad arrow, about 5 inches long, on the left quarter.

If any person fails to comply with the provisions of this Article, he shall be deemed guilty of an offence against this Order.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 8th day of March, 1877.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT:

Lord President.
Viscount Sandon.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1869, (in this Order referred to as the Act of 1869,) and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

Every Local Authority shall keep, in the form given in the Schedule to this Order, or a form to the like effect, a record relative to proceedings under Part V of the Act of 1869, stating the particulars indicated in the form given in the said Schedule, with such variations as circumstances require; and every Local Authority shall keep the record in such manner, and shall furnish to the Privy Council such copies thereof, or extracts therefrom, as the Privy Council from time to time require.

C. L. Peel.
