The Bankruptcy Act, 1869.

In the London Bankruptcy Court.

In the Matter of John Viner, of 11, De Laune street, Kennington Park-road, in the county of Surrey, Printers' Manager, a Bankrupt.

Before Mr. Registrar Pepys sitting as Chief Judge.

UPON reading a report of the Trustee of the property of the bankrupt, dated the 26th day of November, 1876, reporting that there being no estate of the bankrupt to be realized, and nothing having been received by him, the Committee of Inspection and Trustee were of opinion that to keep this bankruptcy open would be needlessly protracting it, and that it should be closed, and the affidavit of Cecil John Rawlinson, sworn the 23rd day of February, 1877, of service of notice of this application on all the creditors who had proved their debts, and the report of the Official Assignee, and upon hearing Mr. William Cate, the Trustee in person, and no creditor appearing to oppose the said application, the Court being satisfied that there is no estate of the bankrupt to be realized, doth order and declare that the said bankruptcy has closed.—Given under the Seal of the Court this 27th day of February, 1877.

The Bankruptcy Act, 1869.

In the County Court of Warwickshire, holden at Birmingham.
