In the London Bankruptcy Court.

In the Matter of George Richards, John Henry Richards, and Alexander Augustus Richards, of 227, Great College-street, Camden Town, Butchers, Bankrupts.

Before Mr. Registrar Hazlitt, acting as Chief Judge. UPON reading a report of the Registrar-Trustee of the property of the bankrupt, dated the 7th day of February, 1877, reporting that so much of the property of the bankrupts as can, in the opinion of the said Registrar-Trustee, be realized without needlessly protracting the bankruptcy, has been realized, as shown by the statement annexed to the said report, that dividends to the amount of one shilling and five pence halfpenny in the pound have been paid, that it has not been brought to the knowledge of the said Registrar-Trustee that the bankrupts have, since the adjudication, acquired any further property that could be realized for the benefit of the creditors, and that in the opinion of the said Registrar-Trustee it is expedient that the bankruptcy be closed, and upon reading the proceedings in the bankruptcy, and the affidavit of Archibald Reid, sworn the 17th day of February, 1877, and upon hearing Mr. Aldridge, Official Solicitor, acting on behalf of the said Registrar-Trustee, and no person appearing to oppose, the Court being satisfied that so much of the property of the bankrupts as can, in the opinion of the said Registrar-Trustee, be realized without needlessly pro-
