C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 20th day of March, 1877.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the first day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, in the words following; that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of your Majesty, chapter eighty-two, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Matthew, situate in the High Town in the parish of Luton, in the county of Bedford, and in the diocese of Ely.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Luton and of the new parish of Christ Church, Luton, within the original limits of the said parish of Luton, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such parish and new parish respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parish of Luton, and of the said new parish of Christ Church, Luton, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Matthew situate in the High Town Luton as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend James Russell, Bishop of the said diocese of Ely, as such Bishop and also as the patron, in right of his see, of the vicarage of the said new parish of Christ Church Luton, and with the consent of the Reverend Henry Wright, of the Church Missionary House Salisbury Square in the city of London Clerk in Holy Orders, the patron of the vicarage of the said parish of Luton (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Luton, and of the said new parish of Christ Church Luton, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Matthew, situate in the High Town Luton as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Matthew, High Town Luton.'

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Matthew, High Town Luton, being:—

"All that portion of the parish of Luton in the county of Bedford and in the diocese of Ely wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls and also all that contiguous portion of the new parish of Christ Church Luton within the original limits of the said parish of Luton which said portions are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Christ Church Luton from the parish of Luton aforesaid at the centre of the bridge which carries the line of the Midland Railway over Old Bedford-road and extending thence south-eastward for a distance of forty-nine chains or thereabouts along the middle of the said line of railway thereby passing through the Luton Station on such line of railway to the centre of the bridge which carries Crawley Green-road over the same line of railway and extending thence north-eastward for a distance of twenty-four chains or thereabouts along the middle of the last-named road to its junction with Hart-lane, and extending thence north-westward for a distance of forty chains or thereabouts along the middle of the said lane to a point at the junction of the same lane with Hitchin-road upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Luton from the district of Stopsley also within the original limits of the parish of Luton aforesaid, and extending thence first generally westward then northward and then again westward along the last-mentioned boundary to the point where Cow-ridge End-lane, Stocking Stone Bridge-lane, and the said Old Bedford-road, all meet, and where the said last-mentioned boundary joins the boundary dividing the said parish of Luton from the new parish of Christ Church Luton as aforesaid and extending thence southward for a distance of sixty-three chains or thereabouts along the last-mentioned boundary, thereby following the middle
