

Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, of his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command that no presentations shall be made at the Levee, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at one o'clock.

HERTFORD,
Lord Chamberlain.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 20th day of April, 1877.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

THE Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1869, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

The Order of the Privy Council bearing date the fifth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, relating to the Port of Southampton, shall be read and have effect as if so much of the said Order, as is here recited, were omitted therefrom, namely:

"(1.) All that space in the borough of Southampton on the property of the Southampton Dock Company, lying between the River Itchen and a line commencing at the water of the said river at the Mooring Dolphin at the South East Quay, and following the line of the South East Quay, and skirting the boundary wall of the Open Dock across the entrances of the three Graving Docks to the turntable at the south-west corner of the Open Dock, thence in a southerly direction for a distance of four hundred feet along the outer line of railway to the junction of the two lines of railway on the south-west sides of the said Graving Docks, and continuing along the outer line of railway to a point immediately opposite the head of the East Graving Dock, thence in an easterly direction to the water of the said River Itchen, which space is coloured pink on the plan of Southampton Docks, deposited at the Privy Council Office, a copy of which is deposited at the office of the Town Clerk of the borough of Southampton."
