Power to raise Additional Capital.

1. The Louth and Lincoln Railway Company (hereinafter called the Company) are hereby authorized to raise, for the purposes of their undertaking, in addition to the capital already authorized to be raised by them, any further sums, not exceeding in the whole twenty-four thousand pounds, by the issue of new shares or new stock, either ordinary or preference, or partly ordinary and partly preference, at the option of the Company.

Kenyon v. Kenyon and Grundy v. Kenyon.

NOTICE under the Partition Act, 1876, to Ruth, now or formerly the wife of Henry Ogden, and daughter of Martha Taylor, and grand-daughter of George Kenyon, late of Middleton, in the county of Lancaster, Yeoman, deceased, and to the heir-at-law, or other the real representative of the said Ruth, if she be dead, and to the said Henry Ogden, if he be living, and to James Harrison, if he be living, and the husband of the said Ruth, and to others.

By the will of Robert Holt, dated the 1st day of July, 1824, certain messuages and hereditaments situate in the township of Butterworth, in the county of Lancaster, in England, commonly called the Holte, were devised to his nephew, the said George Kenyon, for life, with remainder to the lawful issue of the said George Kenyon, their heirs and assigns, in such parts, shares, and proportions as he should by will or deed appoint. The said George Kenyon by his will, dated the 16th of December, 1844, appointed or purported to appoint, the said messuages and hereditaments absolutely to his seven then surviving children (including the said Martha Taylor) and the children of his deceased daughter, Mary Bickerdike, in certain proportions. A suit of Oliver Kenyon (now deceased) and Thomas Grundy against Major Kenyon and others (by original Bill) and Thomas Grundy against Major Kenyon and others (by order of revivor and supplement) is pending in the Court of Chancery of the County Palatine of Lancaster (Manchester District) for the purpose of having a partition or (in lieu thereof) a sale and distribution of the proceeds of sale of the said messuages and hereditaments, and by a Decree made in the said suit, dated the 7th August, 1874, enquiries have been directed to be made for ascertaining what are the hereditaments referred to as aforesaid in Robert Holt's will, and who are the parties interested in such hereditaments, and in what shares and for what interests.

By an Order in the same suit, dated the 27th day of March, 1877, and reciting that it appeared to the Court that notice of the said Decree could not be served on all the persons on whom that notice was, by the Partition Act, 1868, required to be served, and in particular upon the persons thereafter specified, and that the plaintiff and defendants, or some of them, were parties interested in the property to which the said suit relates, the Court did, at the request of the plaintiff and defendants, dispense with service of notice of the said Decree on the said Ruth, then or formerly the wife of Henry Ogden, and on the heir-at-law, or other the real representative of the said Ruth, if dead, and on the said Henry Ogden, if living, and on the said James Harrison, if living, and the husband of the said Ruth, and instead of such service the Court did direct that advertisements in the form of the present advertisement should be published before the 30th day of July then next, in newspapers mentioned in such Order, and of which this newspaper was one.

Now notice is hereby given, that this advertisement is published in accordance with the aforesaid Order of the said Court, and also that by virtue of the Partition Act, 1876, and of the said Order the said Ruth, now or formerly the wife of the said Henry Ogden, and (if she be dead) her heir-at-law, or other real representative, and the said Henry Ogden (if he be living), and the said James Harrison (if he be living), and the husband of the said Ruth, and all (if any) other persons claiming to be interested in the property aforesaid, who have not been served with notice of the said Decree, are required to come in and establish their respective claims in respect thereof before the Vice-Chancellor, at the office of the District Registrar of the said Court, situate at Cross-street-chambers, 73, Cross-street, in the city of Manchester, in England, on or before the 31st day of December, 1877.

And notice is hereby also given, that from and after the 31st day of December, 1877, all persons who shall not have so come in and established such claims, whether they are within or without the jurisdiction of the said Court, and including persons under any disability, will be bound by the proceedings in the said suit as if, on the said 27th March, 1877, the day of the date of the said Order they had been served with notice of the said Decree.

Smith v. Smith.

Notice under the Partition Act, 1876.

TO all persons claiming to be interested in the real estate of Thomas Orford, late of Warrington, in the county of Lancaster, Surgeon, who died in 1810, and who is believed to have been a son of Thomas Orford, senior, formerly of Standish, near Wigan, in the said county, and Alice, his wife, formerly Alice Baron, of Standish aforesaid, Spinster. By the will of the said Thomas Orford first named he made certain dispositions of his real and personal estate for the benefit of his children and their issue, as in his said will mentioned. His will then proceeded in the words following, namely: "And if all my children die without leaving lawful issue living at the death of the survivor of them, then and in such case I give all my real and personal estates and effects not appropriated for all or any of the aforesaid purposes unto such of my first cousins as shall be seen living, and the issue (if any) of such of them as shall be then dead, equally share and share alike, and their respective heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, the issue of such deceased cousin to stand in the place of such deceased cousin, and to take equally amongst them if more than one the share which such deceased cousin would, if living, have taken."

On the 13th January, 1860, Mary Alice Wilson, who was the last survivor of the testator's children, died, and there was then no lawful issue living of any of the same children.

A suit of Richard Smith (since deceased), against David Smith and Ann Smith, his wife (by original Bill), and Richard Smith, the son of the deceased plaintiff, against David Smith and Ann Smith, his wife (by order of revivor), is pending in the Court of Chancery of the county Palatine of Lancaster (Liverpool District, for the purpose of having a partition or (in lieu thereof) a sale and distribution of the proceeds of sale of the real estate of the said testator, Thomas Orford, above referred to, and by a Decree made in the said suit and dated the 12th May, 1871, and which has been since added to by Order also made in the same suit, dated the 20th day of April, 1877, enquiries have been directed to be made for the purpose of ascertaining the persons interested in such real estate, and in and by the said last-mentioned Order it was provided that it appearing to the Court that notice of the said Decree could not be served upon all the persons the subjects of the enquiries contained in such Decree as added to by the last-mentioned Order and in the said Order, and that the plaintiff and defendants were persons interested in the property to which the said decree and order respectively related did, at the request of the plaintiff and defendants, dispense with service of notice of the said decree, and with service of notice of the said decree as added to by that Order, and of service of the said Order upon all persons, the subjects of the aforesaid enquiries who were not already parties to the said suit, and instead of such service the Court did direct that within one month after the date of the said Order, advertisements in the form of this present advertisement should be published in the several newspapers mentioned in the said Order and of which this newspaper was one.
