THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.

WOOLPIT FAIR.

IN pursuance of the above-mentioned Act, I, the Right Honourable Richard Assheton Cross, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, hereby notify as follows:

1. By Memorial, dated the 6th day of June, 1877, a representation has been duly made to me by the Justices acting in the Thingoe and Thed-wastry Petty Sessional Division of Suffolk, that a Fair has been annually held from the 16th to the 19th days of September, in the parish of Woolpit, in the said division of the said county, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that such Fair should be abolished.

2. On the 16th day of July, 1877, I shall take the aforesaid representation into consideration, and all persons are to intimate, before that day, any objection they may desire to offer to the abolition of the said Fair.

Richard Assheton Cross.

Whitehall, June 15, 1877.

THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.

CALNE FAIRS.

IN pursuance of the above-mentioned Act, I, the Right Honourable Richard Assheton Cross, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, hereby notify as follows:

1. A representation has been duly made to me by the Justices acting in the Calne Petty Sessional Division of the county of Wilts, that Fairs have been annually held on the 6th day of May and on the last Wednesday in September, respectively, in the town of Calne, in the said division of the said county, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that such Fairs should be abolished:

2. On the 16th day of July, 1877, I shall take the aforesaid representation into consideration, and all persons are to intimate, before that day, any objection they may desire to offer to the abolition of the said Fairs.

Richard Assheton Cross.

Whitehall, June 15, 1877.
