AT the Court at Windsor, the 11th day of July, 1877.

PRESENT.

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme or representation, bearing date the fourteenth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, in the words following, that is to say:

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England acting under the provisions of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of your Majesty chapter ninety-four have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme or representation for altering the boundaries of the new parish of Stanley and of the new parish of Saint Andrew Wakefield both within the original limits of the parish of Wakefield in the county of York and in the diocese of Ripon.

"Whereas by the authority of an Order of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, bearing date the nineteenth day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty and published in the London Gazette upon the third day of September in the same year, a part of the said parish of Wakefield was assigned as a district to the church situate at Stanley within the limits of the said parish of Wakefield and the said district was named 'The Stanley District.'

"And whereas by the authority of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the third day of September in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-four and published in the London Gazette upon the fourth day of October following a certain other part of the parish of Wakefield aforesaid was constituted a separate district for ecclesiastical purposes and was named 'The District of Saint Andrew, Wakefield.'

"And whereas both the said Stanley District and the said District of Saint Andrew, Wakefield have under the provisions of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty chapter one hundred and four become new parishes of the character contemplated by that Act and by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty chapter thirty-seven and by the said above-mentioned Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of your Majesty chapter ninety-four.

"And whereas it has been represented to us and it appears to us to be expedient that the boundaries of the said new parish of Stanley and of the said new parish of Saint Andrew Wakefield should be altered in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Robert Bishop of the said diocese of Ripon (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme or representation) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly represent recommend and propose that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme or representation the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint Andrew Wakefield shall be extended so as to include firstly all that portion of the said new parish of Stanley which is described in the first schedule hereunder written and is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto appended and is thereon coloured pink, and secondly all that portion of the said parish of Wakefield which is described in the second schedule hereunder written and is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto appended and is thereon coloured green, and that upon and from the aforesaid day and date and without any assurance in the law other than such duly published Order of your Majesty in Council as aforesaid the said portion of the new parish of Stanley so described in the first schedule as aforesaid and the said portion of the parish of Wakefield so described in the second schedule as aforesaid shall be dissevered from the said new parish of Stanley and from the said parish of Wakefield respectively and shall be annexed to and shall together form part of and shall become and be and be deemed to be within the limits of the said new parish of Saint Andrew Wakefield.

"And we further represent recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from representing recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore first mentioned Act or of any other Act of Parliament."

"The FIRST SCHEDULE.

"The territory proposed to be dissevered from the new parish of Stanley within the original limits of the parish of Wakefield in the county of York and in the diocese of Ripon, and to be annexed to the new parish of Saint Andrew Wakefield also within the original limits of the same parish is as follows:—

"All that portion of the said new parish of Stanley which is bounded on the west by the said new parish of Saint Andrew Wakefield on the south by the new parish of Saint Mary Wakefield also within the original limits of the parish of Wakefield aforesaid on the south-east by the parish of Warmfield in the said county of York, and in the diocese of York, or in other words for the most part by the River Calder on the east and on the north,
