

his first Audience of the Emperor. We hear from Belgrade, that Yeghen Baki, who was retiring towards Albania, being betrayed by one of his Confidants, had been taken and beheaded, with 16 of his Adherents.

Frankfort, May 1. The Imperial Troops, and those of the Allies, are marching towards their several Places of Rendezvous. Our Bridge over the Main is finished, and we are going to lay another over the Neckar. All the Towns of the Palatinate, on the West-side of the Rhine, that are not reduced to Ashes, are fill'd with French Soldiers, the Convents and Religious Houses not being excus'd. The French have removed the Flying Bridge that was at Manheim to Spire, where they are drawing together a Body of 8 or 10000 Men.

Hamburgh, April 29. The Conferences about the Restitution of the Duchy of Sleswick are still continued at Altena, but hitherto with so little success, that it's fear'd things will come to Extremities, between the Northern Crowns. The disorderly breaking up of the Diet of Poland is confirm'd.

Brussels, May 6. The States have named the Heer Van Hoemkerken, their late Ambassador in Spain, to go in the Quality of their Envoy Extraordinary to the King of Denmark, to endeavour a Composure of the Differences about the Duchy of Sleswick; and to persuade that Court to join in the Common Interests with the Emperor and the Empire. The Prince of Nassau, Stadtholder of Friesland and Groningen, who arrived here yesterday, intends to embark in a few days for England; and in his Company will go the Prince of Saxe-Eisenach. The Ships of this State are ordered to rendezvous at the Isle of Wigbt; of which a considerable Squadron lies ready to sail with the first fair Wind.

Brussels, May 6. Our Governor-General took yesterday a Review of 9 Regiments of Horse near this place, being about 2400 Men, which were ordered to march towards Mons, Charleroy, and Namur; and this day his Excellency is gone to see the three Troops of Guards at Vilvoord. One of our Parties of 70 Men defeated, the 2d instant, a French Party of 80, of whom 11 were kill'd, 16 taken Prisoners, and the rest put to flight. Our Governor-General has caus'd a Declaration to be published, setting forth;

That the French King, after having violated all the Treaties of Peace and the Truce (which have been Religiously observed on the part of his Catholic Majesty,) by many Acts of Hostility which are sufficiently known to all Europe, had, to add to his former unjust Attempts, Declared War against Spain, without assigning any colorable Reason for the same; endeavouring to have the Alliances which his Catholic Majesty had made with the Princes his Neighbours for the Security of the Peace of Christendom pass for a Scandal, while the said French King in a most inhuman manner, and with unheard of Cruelties and Barbarities destroys the States of the Empire, without having any regard to the Laws of Religion, of War, or the Sacred Faith of Capitulations; and that his Ministers employ all the Subtlety of their Negotiations to trouble the Harmony of Christendom, and to bring down the Ottoman Forces for the destruction of Hungary; and to hinder the Conclusion of a Peace between the Emperor and his Allies, and the Ottoman Port. That his Catholic Majesty, being thus unjustly attack'd, Commands all his Generals and other Officers, to oppose the French with all their Force, and to fall upon them by Sea and Land, as Enemies, Aggressors, and Breakers of the Treaties; and all the Subjects and Passants of Spain who may be in the French Dominions to retire from thence within 15 days. Forbids all Commerce and Correspondence with the Subjects of France upon pain of death. Declares all Goods Movable and Immoveable belonging to them, Confiscated; And Requires all the Subjects of the French King, with their Wives and Families, to depart these Countreys within 8 days from the publication hereof, upon pain of being made Prisoners of War; with Penalties so such as shall conceal them.

Marseilles, April 29. This day the War was Proclaimed here against Spain. There are 22 Men of War at Thoulon ready to sail, and 6 more are Equipping with all diligence. And it's said Orders are come hither for the fitting out 20 Gallies.

Paris, May 7. The Musketers marched from hence this morning, to encamp near Verailles. The Equipages of several Persons of Quality are gone from hence to the Army. The Envoy of Liege parted from hence yesterday, with a Guard, for Dinant; Where he is to be exchanged for the Sieur de Ratabon, the French Minister.

Edinburgh, April 25. The Estates have named the Earl of Argyle, Sir James Montgomery of Skirroway, and Sir John Dalrymple, their Commissioners to go for England, with the Offer of the Crown to Their Majesties; and they are accordingly hastening thither. Ordered that a Day of Publick Thanksgiving for the great happy Deliverance of this Kingdom from Popery and Slavery, be appointed through the whole Kingdom. The Muster of the new raised Regiments are ordered to be made within few days. Lieutenant-Colonel Balfour is set at Liberty upon Bail. The Duke of Guards has bear a Parley, and sent a Message to Major-General Mackay; The Contents not yet publicly known.

Portsmouth, April 28. Yesterday arrived at Spithead the Wolf of Southampton from Virginia, having on Board the Lord Howard of Effingham Governor of Virginia, with 3 other Merchant Men in Company. The Catherine Yacht came in here this Morning from the Dowry.

Deal, April 30. This morning pass'd by the South Foreland 7 or 8 Great Ships to the Wettwa; d; But we could not discover what they were.

Westminster, May 1. This day His Majesty came to the House of Lords, attended with the usual Solemnity; And being in His Royal Robes, seated on the Throne, and the Commons being sent for up, His Majesty gave the Royal Assent to An Act for Raising Money by a Poll, and otherwise, towards the Reducing of Ireland. An Act for preventing Doubts and Questions concerning the Collecting the Publick Revenue. An Act to enable Younger Cook Esq; to sell Lands to pay his Debts, and provide for his Younger Children.
