The Bankruptcy Act, 1869.

In the County Court of Lancashire, holden at Manchester. In the Matter of Frederick George Townsend, of the city of Manchester, Commission Agent, a Bankrupt.

UPON reading a report of the Trustee of the property of the bankrupt, dated the 24th day of September, 1877, reporting that so much of the property of the bankrupt as can, in his judgment, be realized without needlessly protracting the bankruptcy has been realized, as shown by the statement thereto annexed, but that the amount realized for such property has not been sufficient to enable him to declare a dividend, the Court being satisfied that so much of the property of the bankrupt as can, in the judgment of the Trustee, be realized without needlessly protracting the bankruptcy has been realized, as shown by the statement annexed to the said report, but that the amount realized for such property has not been sufficient to enable the Trustee to declare a dividend, doth order and declare that the bankruptcy of the said Frederick George Townsend has closed.—Given under the Seal of the Court this 24th day of September, 1877.

The Bankruptcy Act, 1869.

In the County Court of Lancashire, holden at Manchester, by transfer from the County Court of Lancashire, holden at Preston.

In the Matter of George Jeffrey and George Jeffrey the younger, both of Blackpool, in the county of Lancaster, Painters, Paper Hangers, and Decorators, trading in copartnership under the style or firm of Jeffrey and Son, Bankrupts.

UPON reading a report of the Trustee of the property of the bankrupts, dated the 21st day of September, 1877, reporting that so much of the property of the bankrupts as can, in his opinion, be realized without needlessly protracting the bankruptcy, had been realized, as shown by the statement thereto annexed, but as to the sum of £5 12s. which appeared apparently to be in his hands, was not so, as such Trustee had incurred costs in excess of such sum, and if such costs were taxed and an allocation obtained it would have to be done at his own expense, which he submitted he ought not to be asked to do, the Court being satisfied that so much of the property of the bankrupt as could be realized without needlessly protracting the bankruptcy had been realized, as shown by the statement aforesaid, doth order and declare that the bankruptcy of the said George Jeffrey and George Jeffrey the younger has closed.—Given under the Seal of the Court this 24th day of September, 1877.
