

now vicar of the said parish of Prittlewell or by their heirs and assigns and that all the rest residue and remainder of the said right of patronage and nomination of the minister or incumbent of the same district shall in like manner be assigned to and be vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the Warden Council and Scholars of Keble College in the University of Oxford and their successors and assigns for ever.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or to any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

“The District of All Saints Prittlewell being:—

“All that part of the parish of Prittlewell in the county of Essex and in the diocese of Saint Albans wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls which is bounded on the east by the parish of Southchurch in the said county and diocese on the greater portion of the south partly by the last-named parish and partly by the new parish of Saint John the Baptist Southend in the same county and diocese and upon all other sides that is to say on the remaining portion of the south on the west and on the north by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint John the Baptist Southend from the parish of Prittlewell aforesaid at the point where the high road leading from London through Hadleigh to Southend is joined by Mill-lane and extending thence westward for a distance of five chains or thereabouts along the middle of the said high road to its junction at Milton Hall Corner with Milton Hall-road and extending thence for a distance of thirty-eight chains or thereabouts first north-eastward then northward and finally eastward along the middle of the last-named road to a point opposite to a boundary stone inscribed ‘P. A. S. D., 1877 No. 1’ and placed on the eastern side of the same road at the western end of the line of fences forming the northern boundary of the closes numbered respectively 361 and 362 upon the ordnance survey map of the said parish of Prittlewell drawn to the $\frac{1}{2500}$ scale and upon the map hereunto annexed and extending thence (that is from the last described point in the middle of Milton Hall-road as aforesaid) eastward to the said boundary stone and along the said fence for a distance of about two-thirds of a mile to a boundary stone inscribed ‘P. A. S. D. 1877 No. 2’ and placed at the eastern end of the same fence at the point on the western side of the road leading from Sutton to Southend opposite to the point where the two footpaths the one leading from Southchurch and the other from the house called or known as Hamstel join the same road and extending thence (that is from the last-mentioned boundary stone) still eastward for a further distance of about three quarters of a mile first across the last-mentioned road and then along the line of fences forming the northern boundary of the closes numbered respectively 366, 367, 219, 220, of the pond numbered 221 and of the close numbered 223 upon the said maps (thereby passing along the northern side of the house called or known as Hamstel aforesaid) to a boundary stone inscribed ‘P. A. S. D. 1877 No. 3’ and placed at the eastern end of the said line of fences on the western side of Potash-lane and continuing thence still eastward and in a direct line to the boundary in the middle of the last-named lane which boundary divides the said parish of Prittlewell from the parish of Southchurch aforesaid.”

And whereas drafts of the said scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the secondly hereinbefore mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patron and to the incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Prittlewell, out of which it is intended that the district recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken, and such patron and incumbent have respectively signified their assent to such scheme:

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Saint Albans.

C. I. Pael.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 23rd day of October, 1877.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the second day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

“We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of your Majesty chapter fifty and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty chapter one hundred and twenty-four have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting an exchange of the patronage of the benefice (being a vicarage) of Churchstow with Kingsbridge, situate in the county of Devon, and in the diocese of Exeter, the patronage of which benefice belongs to the Crown and is exercised on behalf of your Majesty by the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain for the time being in virtue of his office, for the patronage of the benefice (being a rectory) of Stockleigh Pomeroy situate in the said county of Devon and in the said diocese of Exeter the patronage of which said lastly-named benefice belongs to the Bishop of the said diocese of Exeter for the time being in right of his see.

“Whereas the Right Honourable Hugh McCalmont Baron Cairns now Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain as such Lord High Chancellor, and the Right Reverend Frederick, Bishop of the said diocese of Exeter, as such Bishop, have respectively signified to us their desire that the patronage of the said two benefices of Churchstow with Kingsbridge and Stockleigh Pomeroy, and of the churches thereof respectively may be re-arranged by way of exchange in manner herein-after recommended and proposed.

“And whereas we have made due inquiry and
