The Bankruptcy Act, 1869.

In the County Court of Hertfordshire, holden at St. Albans. In the Matter of Daniel Alfred Harrison, of the Grange, Roestock, Saint Albans, in the county of Hertford, a Bankrupt.

UPON reading a report of the Trustee of the property of the bankrupt, dated the 26th day of April, 1877, and an affidavit of the said Trustee, sworn on the 8th day of June, 1877, reporting that the statement of affairs of the bankrupt show liabilities as follows:—Unsecured creditors, per schedule A, £2,385 14s. 7d.; creditors fully secured, per schedule B, £13,516 4s. 6½d.; creditors partly secured, £130; creditors for rents, rates, and taxes, £869 4s. 6½d. The whole of the property of the bankrupt consists of his reversionary life interest under a deed of settlement, dated 25th October, 1858, in freehold property in Gray's-inn-road, in moneys invested by Trustees, and in Chase Hill freehold, at Enfield, also a quarter share of patents in connection with peat charcoal, and of a claim against Hambro and Harrison. The whole of the said reversionary life interest is mortgaged. The bankrupt's father died on the 29th April, 1873, and the bankrupt's life interest in the following property then commenced, subject to a jointure of £500 per annum to his mother during her life, her age at that time being 71:—Gray's-inn-road, freehold estate ground rents, present leases expire in 28 years, 179 houses, £675; annual income from Consols and securities vested in the Trustee under the deed of settlement, £600; Total £1,275. The bankrupt has further the reversion on the death of his mother of a life interest in the Chase Hill freehold property, at the estimated value of £200 to £300 per annum. The mortgages at the date of the bankruptcy were first mortgage, with interest and costs to that date, £7,000; second mortgage, ditto, ditto, £3,500; third mortgage, ditto, ditto, £2,000; Total £12,500. Interest and costs have since been running on on all the mortgages. The bankrupt in conjunction with other persons has from time to time propounded various schemes in connection with the property at Gray's-inn-road, in which he has a life interest, with a view of enhancing the present annual income thereof, but such schemes have all fallen through. The disbursements for postages, fees for office copies of documents, and other outlays incurred by him as Trustee amount to this date to £9 6s. 4d., for which he has not been paid, nor has he received anything whatever for his own remuneration, or for his Solicitor's costs in this matter. The adjudication took place on the 29th September, 1871, and he was appointed Trustee of the bankrupt's property on the 25th October, 1871; there was no Committee of Inspection appointed. The bankrupt was again adjudicated a bankrupt in September, 1874, and Mr. William Allecock, of 7, Southerton-road, Hammersmith, appointed Trustee of that estate under that bankruptcy, this later bankruptcy is still unclosed. The mortgages upon the said life interests of the bankrupt are more than the present value of the same, and as regards the other property the Trustee has been unable to collect any assets, nor has any money come into his hands from the property of the bankrupt, and in the opinion of the said Trustee none can be realized without needlessly protracting the bankruptcy, and this Court being satisfied that such is the case, doth order and declare that the bankruptcy of the said Daniel Alfred Harrison has closed.—Given under the Seal of the Court this 26th day of October, 1877.
