

lighthouse on the extreme point of Galley Head, county Cork :

Now therefore Her Majesty, in exercise of the power vested in Her by the said Act, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to direct that upon the lighting of the said light there shall be paid in respect of the said light for every vessel, whether British or Foreign, which may pass or derive benefit from such light, the toll of three-sixteenths of a penny per ton of the burden of every such vessel for each time of passing or deriving benefit therefrom if on an over-sea voyage, and one-sixteenth of a penny per ton for each time of passing or deriving benefit therefrom if on a coasting voyage, and that the said tolls shall be levied by the Commissioners of Irish Lights subject to the regulations and exemptions contained in the New Consolidated Tables of Light Duties sanctioned by Orders in Council dated respectively the twenty-fourth day of October, eighteen hundred and seventy, the sixteenth day of May, eighteen hundred and seventy-one, and the twenty-first day of February, eighteen hundred and seventy-four, and subject also to the gross abatement or discount of fifty-five per centum mentioned in an Order in Council dated the seventeenth day of May, eighteen hundred and seventy-six.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 13th day of December, 1877.

By a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT :

Lord President.
Viscount Sandon.
Mr. Selater-Booth.

WHEREAS by "The Pharmacy Act, 1868," section 2, it is enacted that the Council of the Pharmaceutical Society of Great Britain may from time to time, by Resolution, declare that any Article in such Resolution named ought to be deemed a poison within the meaning of that Act; and thereupon the said Society shall submit the same for the approval of the Privy Council, and that if such approval shall be given, then such Resolution and approval shall be advertised in the London Gazette, and on the expiration of one month from such advertisement the Article named in such Resolution shall be deemed to be a poison within the meaning of that Act :

And whereas the Council of the Pharmaceutical Society of Great Britain did, on the 7th day of November, 1877, resolve and declare in the words following :

"That by virtue and in exercise of the powers vested in the Council of the Pharmaceutical Society of Great Britain, the said Council does hereby resolve and declare that Chloral Hydrate and its preparations ought to be deemed poisons within the meaning of the Pharmacy Act, 1868, and ought to be deemed poisons in the Second Part of the Schedule A of the said Pharmacy Act, 1868."

And whereas the said Society have submitted the said Resolution for the approval of the Privy Council, and the Lords of the Privy Council are of opinion that the said Resolution should be approved :

Now, therefore, their Lordships are hereby pleased to signify their approval of the said Resolution.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 13th day of December, 1877.

By a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT :

Lord President.
Viscount Sandon.
Mr. Selater-Booth.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a letter to the Clerk of the Council from the Secretary and Registrar of the Pharmaceutical Society of Great Britain, dated the 5th day of December, 1877, in the words following :—

"I have to acquaint you that at a meeting of the Council of this Society held to-day the Pharmaceutical Chemists whose names appear on the other side were appointed Examiners for the ensuing year, and I am requested to submit their names to the Privy Council for approval, in accordance with the Bye-laws of the Society.
Neither of the persons appointed has held office as a Member of the Council of the Society during the year preceding the date hereof."
