AT the Court at Windsor, the 12th day of December, 1877.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-ninth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Stephen the Martyr situate at Moulton in the parish of Davenham in the county of Chester and in the diocese of Chester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Stephen the Martyr situate at Moulton as aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend William Bishop of the said diocese of Chester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those portions of the said parish of Davenham which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Stephen the Martyr situate at Moulton as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Stephen the Martyr, Moulton.'

"And with the like consent of the said William Bishop of the said diocese of Chester (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet."

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The district chapelry of Saint Stephen the Martyr Moulton being:—

"All that portion of the parish of Davenham in the county of Chester and in the diocese of Chester which is comprised within and is co-extensive with the limits of the main portion of the township of Moulton, exclusive, that is, of that detached portion of the said township which is situate on the southern side of Brick Kiln-lane.

"And also all that contiguous portion of the same parish which is comprised within and is co-extensive with the limits of that part of the township of Bostock which consists of the one triangular field, which is bounded on the north by the township of Davenham in the said parish of Davenham on the south-west by the main portion of the township of Moulton aforesaid and upon the remaining side that is to say on the south-east by Jack-lane: the exact boundary on this side being an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing the said main portion of the township of Moulton from the township of Bostock aforesaid at the point where Jack-lane is joined by the road leading to Moulton Church and extending thence north-eastward for a distance of one hundred and forty-four yards or thereabouts along the middle of Jack-lane aforesaid to the boundary which divides the said township of Bostock from the township of Davenham aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Chester.
