"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint John Lindow, being:—

"All that part of the new parish of Saint Philip Chorley, in the county of Chester and in the diocese of Chester, which is bounded on the west partly by the parish of Alderley and partly by the parish of Mobberley, both in the county and diocese aforesaid, on the north and on the east by the parish of Wilmslow in the same county and diocese, and on the remaining side that is to say on the south-east by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Wilmslow from the new parish of Saint Philip Chorley aforesaid at the centre of White Hall Bridge which carries the Wilmslow and Congleton turnpike-road over the stream called or known as Preston Brook, and extending thence generally south-westward for a distance of two miles or thereabouts along the middle of the said brook to the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Philip Chorley, from the parish of Alderley aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Chester.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 12th day of December, 1877.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of

Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eighth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty chapter thirty-seven, of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty chapter one hundred and four, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes to be taken out of the Parish of Charlton-by-Dover in the County of Kent and in the Diocese of Canterbury.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said Parish of Charlton-by-Dover which is hereinafter mentioned and described should be constituted a separate District in the manner hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas there is not at present within the limits of the said proposed district any Consecrated Church or Chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship.

"And whereas certain hereditaments and premises situate within the said Parish of Charlton-by-Dover have become vested in us under the provisions of and for the purposes of the herein-mentioned Acts or of some of them, and we have in respect of such hereditaments and premises agreed to make and pay out of the Common Fund created by the firstly herein-mentioned Act to the incumbent of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted so soon as an incumbent shall have been appointed and licensed in accordance with the provisions of the secondly herein-mentioned Act, and to his successors a grant of one hundred and fifty pounds per annum and also so soon as a Church shall have been erected within and for such district and shall have been approved by us and shall have been consecrated as the church of such district and such district shall have thereupon become a new parish within the meaning of the secondly hereinbefore mentioned Act, to make to the incumbent of the said new parish and his successors a further grant from the said fund of fifty pounds per annum.

"And whereas such grants as aforesaid will be made by an instrument or instruments to be executed by us under our Common Seal in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of your Majesty chapter one hundred and eleven.

"And whereas a sum of three thousand pounds sterling has been paid to the credit of our account at the Bank of England to be applied in and towards the provision of a church for the said proposed district.

"And whereas the said sum of three thousand pounds has been so paid to us as aforesaid upon the understanding and condition that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) we should recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council that the whole right of patronage of the said proposed district and of the nomination of the incumbent thereto or (as the case may be of the incumbent of the new parish which such district will or may hereafter
