C. L. Peel.

At the Court at Windsor, the 12th day of December, 1877.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme, bearing date the ninth day of August in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty chapter one hundred and four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme for constituting four separate districts for spiritual purposes out of some or one of the four following cures: to wit the new Parish of St. James, Barrow-in-Furness, in the County of Lancaster and Diocese of Carlisle, the new parish of Newbarns and Hawcoat in the same county and diocese; the new parish of St. George Barrow in the same county and diocese, and the parish of Dalton-in-Furness in the county and diocese aforesaid.

“Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular portions of the said new parish of St. James Barrow-in-Furness, of the said new parish of Newbarns and Hawcoat, of the said new parish of St. George Barrow, and of the said parish of Dalton-in-Furness which are hereinafter mentioned and described should be constituted into four separate districts in manner hereinafter recommended and proposed.

“And whereas there is not at present within the limits of either of the said four proposed districts any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine Worship.

“And whereas for the purpose of providing an endowment for each of the said four proposed districts four several sums each consisting of two thousand five hundred pounds of the four pounds per centum debenture stock of the Furness Railway Company, have been transferred into our name in the books of the same Company, one of such sums in the case of each of the said proposed districts to be held in trust by us as and for a permanent endowment for the minister or incumbent for the time being of such district and the amount of the annual interest and dividends to accrue due on account of each of the said sums of stock to be receivable in
