Given at Our Court at Hampton-Court the 28th Day of May, 1689. In the First Year of Our Reign.

Venice, May 31. We hear from the Levant, that the Ships of this State were cruising in the Channel of Negropont, to hinder the Turks from sending any Succors thither by Sea. That part of the Gallies and Gallies were gone towards Arborea; and the rest towards Lepanto, to meet the Convoys that have been sent from hence and Dalmatia. That the Doge (whose Health is perfectly re-established) had ordered the Troops to march towards Corinth, and that so soon as those he expected, had joyed them, he would open the Campaign, as 'twas believed, with the Siege of Negropont, which the Turks in the mean time continue to fortify with an extraordinary diligence. By a Turanc arrived from Agosta, we have Advice, that the Gallies of Malta were arrived thither, and that after having taken in the necessary Provisions, they would part from thence for the Levant; wher the Prince of Brunswick, the Duke of Guadagni, General of the Land-Forces, and several other Persons of Quality, who are now here, will repair with the first Convoy.

Warsaw, April 29. The Senate have since the breaking up of the Dyet been several times Assembled, to consider how to raise Money to pay the Army, and to make the necessary preparations for the Campaign, but all the Methods proposed, are found to be full of Difficulty, that no Resolution has been yet taken thereupon; and the King has in the mean time advanced out of his own Coifers, the 4th part of what is due to the Troops, which is to be repaid him by the Republick at the next Meeting of the Dyet. The Court will remove the next week to Vilna, and from thence it is said, the King and Queen will take a Journey towards Prussia. They write from Lemberg, that a great Body of Tartars was marching through Moldavia, to conduct a Convoy of Provisions and Ammunition to Caminiec; and to make at the same time, an Incursion on the Frontiers of Russia and Polonia. The last news we had of the Moscovites, was, that they were marched from their Camp on the River Sambra, towards the Country of the Krim Tartars.

Ratisbona, May 13. The Elector of Bavaria arrived at Munich the 10th instant from Vienna, and will part from thence in few days for Donawert, to put himself at the Head of his Army on the Upper Rhen. The Duke of Lorraine is now on his way towards Eslinges and Francfort, having appointed the general Rendezvous of the Imperial Forces between the last of these Places and Coplewitz.

Hamburg, May 16. The Conferences are still continued for the adjusting the Differences about the Restitution of the Dutchy of Sleswick. The Sieur Fuchs, Envoy Extraordinary from the Elector of Brandenburgh arrived here this week. And the Sieur Van Heemkerke is daily expected in the same Quality from Holland. The Letters from Stockholm give an Account of the King of Sweden's departure towards Schonen: And that 2000 Seamen had been sent from thence to Carelsroon, to serve on the Swedish Men of War that are fitting out there. They write from Berlin, that the Elector of Brandenburgh will begin his Journey the 24th instant towards Cleves.

Paris, May 28. The Prince of Conti and the Duke of Maine parted from hence the 21 Instant for Flanders; and the Duke of Vendosme for Alsace; and we are told, the Dauphin will shortly follow. The French Fleet Commanded by the Count de Chastellain is return'd to Brest. It is said they have taken Seven Dutch Merchant Ships, bound home from Curaçao.

Edinburgh, May 16. Several new Batteries have been lately raised against the Castle of Edinburg; upon which will be planted the Cannon and Mortar-pieces that have been brought by Sea from England: and three of the English Regiments that were quartered on the Borders of this Kingdom are expected here to-morrow. Several Parties are sent in pursuit of the Viscount Dumdee, who came some days ago with 50 or 60 Horse to St. Johnston where he in the night seized the Laird of Blair, (a Member of the Convention) and two other Gentlemen, and carried them away prisoners. He had a design upon Inverness, having sent to the Magistrates to Demand Money and Provisions of them; but the neighbouring Gentry, who drew together 7 or 800 Men, prevented it. He likewise attempted to have entered into Dumdee, but hearing they were there in a posture of Defence, durst not venture thither. Major-General Mackay is now at Inverness; and has given Orders for the Fortifying of that Place. The Committee have appointed some Persons to receive the Duke of Gordon's Rents for the use of the Publick, forgiving a Years Rent to the Tenants, upon condition they live peaceably. And have done the like as to the Viscount Dumdee's Estate. The Governor of the Basse having sent a Message, offering to deliver Capt. Wallace, a prisoner there, to such persons as the Committee should appoint; They have given Orders accordingly. We have an account from Ireland that the Garrison of Londonderry had made another great and successful Sally, killing many of the Enemy, among which were several Persons of Note, and gaining a great Booty.

Holyhead, May 15. Yesterday came in here a Vessel from Ireland, with several Passengers, who report that the Protestants at Londonderry had on the 5 Instant made another Sally upon the Enemy, of whom they killed a great number, with several of their Principal Officers. And that the Marquis de Puffin, and the French Bombardier were both dead of the wounds they received in the former Sallies.

Sold-Bay, May 19. Yesterday in the morning Their Majesties Ship the Lark Captain Fitz-Patrick Commander, met a French Privateer under Orfordness, which he chased five or six Leagues to Sea, but by the help of her Oars she got from him; In his return to the shoar he gave chase to another Privateer, and took her in this Bay, she belonging to Dunbarke, carrying 53 Men; which Prize he is carrying to Yarmouth.

We want Two Mills from Holland, and Two from Flanders.
