

of the parish of Halifax aforesaid or in other words by the boundary following the course of Hebble Brook, which divides the said township of Ovenden from the township of Halifax, on the south-west by the new parish of Mount Pellon also within the original limits of the parish of Halifax aforesaid and on the remaining side that is to say on the north-west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides said new parish of Mount Pellon from the parochial chapelry of Illingworth aforesaid at the point at Wheatley-lane Ends, where Wheatley-lane joins Denfield-lane, and extending thence first eastward and then north-eastward along the middle of the last-named lane to its junction with Cousin-lane and with Nursery-lane and continuing thence in a direction still north-eastward along the middle of the last-named lane to its junction at Ovenden Cross with the Halifax and Keighley Turnpike-road and with the road called or known as Sod House Green and continuing thence still north-eastward along the middle of the last-named road to its junction with Shaw-lane at or near to the western end of the wall or fence forming the northern boundary of the close situate on the eastern side of Shaw-lane aforesaid, and called or known as the Holme, and extending thence eastward to and along the said fence to its eastern end on the western side of Ovenden brook aforesaid, and continuing thence still eastward to the boundary in the middle of the same brook which boundary divides the said parochial chapelry of Illingworth from the new parish of Haley Hill aforesaid.

And also all that contiguous portion of the said new parish of Saint James Halifax, which is bounded on the west by the new parish of Saint Augustine Halifax aforesaid on the north by the above-described portion of the parochial chapelry of Illingworth aforesaid or in other words by the boundary following the course of the Hebble Brook which divides the township of Ovenden from the township of Halifax as aforesaid and on the remaining sides that is to say on the north-east and on the south by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said above described portion of the parochial chapelry of Illingworth aforesaid from the new parish of Saint James Halifax aforesaid at the centre of Lee Bridge which carries Lee Bridge-road or lane, over the said Hebble Brook and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-named road or lane for a distance of eight chains or thereabouts to its junction with Stannary-lane and continuing thence in the same direction along the middle of the last-named lane for a distance of seven chains or thereabouts to its junction with Green-lane and extending thence westward along the middle of the last-named lane for a distance of twenty-seven chains or thereabouts to the boundary at the point where the same lane bonds sharply to the south which boundary divides the said new parish of Saint James Halifax from the new parish of Saint Augustine Halifax aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Ripon.

C. L. Peel.

At the Court at Windsor, the 22nd day of February, 1878.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England, beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," it is enacted that, in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-ground or places of burial should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require), that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered; provided also, that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such parish:

And whereas the Right Honourable Richard Assheton Cross, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the undermentioned parishes without the previous consent of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued therein, with the modifications hereinafter specified:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the twelfth day of December last, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the first day of February, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, and such Order has been published in the London
