Vienna, May 12.

ON Monday last Prince Louis of Baden returned hither from Ratisbonne. He has sent away his Equipage, and will follow himself in three or four days to Command the Imperial Army in Hungary. From whence we have Advice, That Teckeley continued with the Troops he had with him at Widin; and that the Turks were drawing their Forces together about Sofia. The Ambassador of Poland had this week a Conference with Maura Corbato, one of the Turkish Envoys, (his Colleague Effendi being indisposed) who, as we are told, again declared that they had no Power to yield to any thing more than what they had already proposed. The Envoy of Moscow has had several meetings with the Imperial Commissioners appointed to treat with him. The Velt Marechal Dumenals is preparing for his departure for Germany, where he is to Command the Imperial Army under the Duke of Lorraine.

Francfort, May 22. The Imperial and Confederate Forces are now marching to the places appointed for their general Rendezvous. The Artillery provided by the Landgrave of Hesse Cassel is arrived here. The Duke of Lorraine is daily expected in these parts.

Hamburg, May 20. On Tuesday last the Holstein Minister delivered to the Mediators the final Demands of the Duke his Master; which they communicated the next day to the Plenipotentiaries of Denmark: The chief Points are; That the Dutchy of Sleswick with all its Dependencies shall be restored to the state it was in at the time the King of Denmark possessed himself thereof in the year 1674; That the Northern Peace shall continue in full force; And pursuant thereunto the Duke of Holstein and his Posterity shall enjoy the Sovereignty of the said Dutchy, with all Rights thereunto belonging; That although the Duke might justly pretend to the Contributions that have been raised since the said year 1674, which amount to a Million Storl. yet he only desires that a general Collection shall be made in the Dutchies of Sleswick and Holstein, as well within the Bailliwicks belonging to Denmark as to the said Duke, for the rebuilding a Fortrefs in some convenient place; and that besides 500000 Crowns be paid to the Duke at three Terms; And that the Artillery consisting of 100 Pieces of Brass Cannon, with the Ammunition taken out of the Fortrefs of Tonningen, when the same was demolished, be restored; That the Emperor, the King of Suedon, the Electors of Saxony and Brandenburg, and Princes of Lunenburgh, shall be Guarands of the Treaty now to be concluded; And that if these Proposals be not accepted by Denmark before the 10th of the next Month, the said Duke will be no longer bound by them. We have an account from Berlin, that the Brandenburg Artillery marched from thence the 18th Instant towards the Rhine, and that the Elector himself would follow in few days.

Rhinberg, May 16. Yesterday was signed the Agreement between the Deputies of the Elector and Chapter of Cologne; and the Baron de Brensau Governor of this place; and in pursuance thereof he and the Magistrates of the Town took this day an Oath of Fidelity to his Electoral Highness Prince Clement of Bavaria; and 400 Brandenburghers, and five Companies, of the Dutch Regiment of Lanoy entred into the place; where there was before a Garrison of 1800 Men, of which 600 are ordered to Arnhem and Werle, and the rest are to go into the Field.

Cologne, May 24. The Confederate Troops before Keyserwaert have begun to attack that place with their Cannon. The Governor seems hitherto resolved to defend it; but we are informed that part of the Garrison are inclined to follow the Example of Rhinberg. We hear from Insbruck that the Duke of Lorraine intended to begin his Journey the 16th Instant towards the Rhine. In the mean time the Imperial Regiments are marching from their several Quarters to the general Rendezvous between Francfort and Coblentz.

Wesel, May 25. The Elector of Brandenburg intended to part from Berlin on the 22d Instant, and in his way hither to stay a day or two at Maegdeburg to receive the Homage of that City. His Artillery is already on its march. The Troops of Munster were to begin theirs as yesterday, to join the Confederates before Keyserwaert. A Bridge is laid here over the Rhine.

Roermont, May 25. The Bridge over the Maese near Stoekem is finished. And three Bridges are laying over the Rhine at Cologne, Duseldorpe, and Ordingen. The Troops of Brandenburg have raised two Batteries on this side the Rhine against Keyserwaert; To morrow those of Munster are expected to join them; and then they will begin a formal Attack.

Brussels, May 22. On Friday last General Wetbenum arrived here from Holland to Confer with our Governor General about the Affairs of the Campaign. We are told that 1500 Spanish Horse are to join the Dutch Army commanded by Prince Waldecke; And that the rest of the Spanish Forces and 8000 Dutch Foot are to form another Camp under the Command of our Governor. The French we hear are drawing together a Body of 15000 Men between Mabeuge and Bouchain.

Amsterdam, May 27. On Tuesday last six Dutch Merchant Ships arrived in the Texel, five of them from Carassow. They parted in the Latitude of 46 with seven other Vessels that came with them from the West-Indies, (two whereof belonged to the West-India Company of these Provinces) which, as we hear from France, fell in afterwards among the French Fleet, and are carried to Brest.

Rotterdam, May 27. This day arrived here from England

England the Earl of Marlborough, Lieutenant General of His Majesty's Forces. Nine English Battalions are ordered to be in a readiness to go into the Field.

Paris, May 31. Yesterday about Noon the King was taken with a violent fit of an Ague, which lasted 9 or 10 hours. The Duke de Noailles is entred with the Troops under his Command into Catalonia, and has possessed himself of some Posts there. We hear from Rome, that they continue to make new Levies, and to fortifie Civita Vecchia, whither they had sent Cannon and all sort of Provisions for the Garison. The Great Duke of Tuscany is likewise on his Guard, and fortifies Leghorn and Porto Ferrato.

Edinburgh, May 19. There are Letters come from Captain Young, who was sent to Kintyre with a Detachment of 500 Men of the new Levies, giving an account, that on the 16th Instant they were on their march attack'd by a Body of Men from the Hills, who fired furiously upon them, but putting themselves immediately in order, they marched up the Hills, and fell upon them, killing some, taking others Prisoners, and putting the rest to flight. The Viscount of Dundee is gone Northwards towards Lochquaber, and Major General Mackay is marching after him. Yesterday in the Evening a Dutch Man of War with 40 Sail of small Merchant Ships came into this Frith, which put to Sea again this Morning.

Liverpool, May 22. Yesterday Major General Kirke with the three Regiments under his Command, which Embarked on Thursday last, set Sail, and were out of sight before it was dark, the Wind being at E. N. E. which has continued so, and at N. E. ever since; so that it's hoped they will be quickly at Londonderry. Where, as we are informed by several Persons come from Ireland, the Protestants continue to make a very brave defence. On the 9th Instant the Irish sent a strong Detachment of Foot with four Troops of Horse under the Command of Colonel Ramsey, to seize upon a Well near the Town, which the Protestants having notice of, they sallied out, and defeated them with a great Slaughter, Colonel Ramsey with divers other Officers being killed, and several taken Prisoners. The Irish Army was so discouraged and weakened with the Losses they had suffered, and the Fatigue they had endured during the Siege, that it was thought necessary to send them fresh supplies from Dublin.

Yesterday arrived here a Dutch Vessel in seven weeks from a small Island called Staesia in the West-Indies, belonging to the Hollanders; The Master reports, That the French came in fifteen small Vessels and two Frigats from St. Christophers to attack that Island, which the Inhabitants defended very bravely, and killed about 400 of the French, but the Islanders not being above 100 Fighting Men, were at last forced to submit; and this Vessel hardly escaped to St. Thomas, a small Island belonging to the Danes.
