

THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.

KING'S LYNN (CHEESE) FAIR.

IN pursuance of the above-mentioned Act, I, the Right Honourable Richard Assheton Cross, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, hereby notify as follows:

1. By Memorial, dated the 11th day of March, 1878, a representation has been duly made to me by the Town Council of King's Lynn, as owners, that a Fair has been annually held on the 17th and 18th days of October, in the said borough, commonly called "Cheese Fair," and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that such Fair should be abolished:

2. On the 18th day of April, 1878, I shall take the aforesaid representation into consideration, and all persons are to intimate, before that day, any objection they may desire to offer to the abolition of the said Fairs.

Richard Assheton Cross.

THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.

WILLINGALE DOE FAIR.

IN pursuance of the above-mentioned Act, I, the Right Honourable Richard Assheton Cross, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, hereby notify as follows:

1. A representation has been duly made to me by the Justices acting in the Ongar Petty Sessional Division of the county of Essex, that a Fair has been annually held on the Wednesday in Whitsun Week, in the parish of Willingale Doe, in the said division of the said county, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that such Fair should be abolished:

2. On the 24th day of April, 1878, I shall take the aforesaid representation into consideration, and all persons are to intimate, before that day, any objection they may desire to offer to the abolition of the said Fair.

Richard Assheton Cross.

Whitehall, March 20, 1878.

The High Court of Justice.—Chancery Division.

THE Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, with the concurrence of the Lord Chancellor and of the Master of the Rolls, and in exercise of the powers for this purpose given by the 14th section of "The Courts of Justice (Salaries and Funds) Act, 1869," and of every other power or authority enabling them in this behalf, do determine and order that, as from the 1st day of January, 1878, there be paid to John Raven, John Biddle, and John Ridley Newman, three of the Junior Clerks in the chambers of the Master of the Rolls, in addition to their respective present salaries of £500 per annum, the salary of £100 per annum each, and that such additional salaries be continued to them so long as they shall respectively discharge the higher duties now required of them in addition to the duties usually devolving on Junior Clerks in the said chambers, but that if in consequence of any other arrangement such additional salaries be withdrawn there shall be no claim for compensation in respect of the loss thereof.—Dated this 2nd day of March, 1878.

Civil Service Commission,

March 21, 1878.

THE Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that an Open Competitive Examination for one situation as Junior Examiner in the Office of Her Majesty's Works, &c., will be held in London, on Tuesday, the 30th of April, 1878, and following days, under the Special Regulations, dated 25th October, 1872, and published in the London Gazette of the 29th October, 1872.

No person will be admitted to compete from whom the Secretary of the Civil Service Commission has not received, on or before the 20th of April, an "application" on a prescribed form, which may be obtained from him at once.

Civil Service Commission,

March 21, 1878.

THE Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that at the Open Competitive Examination held on the 12th March, 1878, for one Supplementary Clerkship in the Solicitor's Office of the Treasury, under the Special Regulations dated the 23rd of April, 1873, notice of which examination was given in the London Gazette of the 8th February, 1878, the undermentioned Candidate obtained the first place:—

Bridgeman, Benjamin James

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Quinton, in the county of Gloucester, and in the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of forty-five pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the twenty-fifth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this fourteenth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Saint Day, in the county of Cornwall, and in the diocese of Truro, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and thirty-nine pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the twenty-fifth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the
