C. L. Peel.

At the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of March, 1878.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the second and third years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for regulating the Police Courts in the Metropolitan," it was, amongst other things, enacted, that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to alter the number of the Police Courts, and to order such changes to be made of the places in which they should be holden within the Metropolitan Police District as should be found expedient, and every such court should thenceforth be holden in the place in or to which it should be so ordered to be established or removed;

And whereas also by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for better defining the powers of Justices within the Metropolitan Police District," it was, amongst other things enacted "that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to constitute within the Metropolitan Police District so many Police Court Divisions as to Her Majesty should seem fit, and to define the extent thereof, and from time to time to alter the number and extent of such Police Court Divisions, and to assign a Division to each of the Police Courts already established, and to establish a Police Court for each of the other Divisions."

CLERKENWELL POLICE COURT.

Her Majesty, therefore, is pleased, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that the space included within the following boundary (the same being within the Metropolitan Police District) that is to say, from the boundary of the city of London in Type-street in a line running northward along the boundary of the Worship-street Police Court to Stamford Hill, thence westward along St. Ann's-road (lately called Hanger-lane) to the point of its intersection with the Green Lanes, thence in a straight line to the boundary-stone of the Metropolitan Board of Works District in Dickinson's-lane, thence along Dickinson's-lane and footpath to Hornsey-lane, thence along the same to Dartmouth Park-hill (lately called Maiden-lane) thence along Dartmouth Park-hill and Brecknock-road to Camden-road, thence along the centre of Camden-road to the Red Cap Public-house, thence along the centre of High-street in Camden Town and of Seymour-street to the Euston-road, thence along the boundary of the District assigned to the Bow-street Police Court to the boundary of the City of London on Holborn-hill, and thence along the said City Boundary to Bunhill-row, which space is marked by a green surrounding line on a map to be deposited with a copy of this Order at the Home Office, and signed by the Right Honourable Richard Assheton Cross, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, shall from and after the 31st day of March instant constitute a Police Court Division, and be assigned to the Police Court called Clerkenwell Police Court.

MARYLEBONE POLICE COURT.

And Her Majesty is further pleased, with the advice aforesaid, to order that the whole parish of Paddington, and the space included within the following boundary (the same being within the Metropolitan Police District), that is to say, from the south end of Edgware-road, opposite the Marble Arch, in a line running eastward along the boundary of the District assigned to the Marlborough-street Police Court as far as Tottenham-court-road, thence along the centre of Euston-road to the corner of Seymour-street, thence northward along the boundary of the District of the Clerkenwell Police Court to Chester-road in Dartmouth Park Hill, thence along Chester-road to Swain's-lane, thence along Swain's-lane to Highgate-road, thence along Highgate-road to the Tottenham and Hampstead Junction Railway Station in Highgate-road, thence along the south side of the said railway to its junction with the Hampstead Junction Railway at Gospel Oak Station, thence along the south side of the said last-mentioned railway to the Hampstead Heath Station, from thence by Pond-street to St. Stephen's Church Hampstead Green, thence in a straight line to the intersection of Finchley-road with West End-lane and Mill-lane, thence along Mill-lane to its intersection with Edgware-road at Shoot-up Hill, thence to and including Kilburn, and thence to the said parish of Paddington, which space is marked on the aforesaid map by a pink surrounding line, shall from and after the 31st day of March instant constitute a Police Court Division, and be assigned to the Police Court called Marylebone Police Court:—

So much of the Order in Council of the 13th day of December, 1844, as relates to the Clerkenwell Police Court and to the Marylebone Police Court Divisions, and the whole of the Order in Council of the 7th day of January, 1864, relating to the Marylebone Police Court Division, are hereby revoked:

And the Right Honourable Richard Assheton Cross, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. L. Peel.
