

representation, bearing date the eleventh day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight in the words following; that is to say,

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty chapter seventy of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of your Majesty chapter ninety-seven of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty chapter fifty-five and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of your Majesty chapter eighty-two have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Andrew situate in Black-lane in the parish of Radcliffe in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Radcliffe and of the district parish of Saint Thomas Radcliffe in the said county of Lancaster and in the said diocese of Manchester which said extremities lie contiguous one to another and are described in the schedule hereunder written there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such parish and district parish respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parish of Radcliffe and of the said district parish of Saint Thomas Radcliffe should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Andrew, situate in Black-lane as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend James, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester, and with the consent of the Right Honourable Thomas, Earl of Wilton, the patron both of the rectory of the said parish of Radcliffe and also of the vicarage of the said district parish of Saint Thomas, Radcliffe (in testimony whereof they, the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Radcliffe and of the said district parish of Saint Thomas Radcliffe which are described in the schedule hereunder written all which portions together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Andrew situate in Black-lane as aforesaid and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Andrew, Black-lane, Radcliffe.'

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Andrew, Black-lane, Radcliffe, being:—

"All that portion of the parish of Radcliffe in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls which is bounded on the north and on the north-east by the new parish of All Saints, Elton, in the said county and diocese, on the north-west by the new parish of Christ Church, Ainsworth, in the same county and diocese on the west partly by the last-named new parish and partly by the district parish of Saint Thomas Radcliffe in the county and diocese aforesaid on the south by the said district parish and upon the remaining sides that is to say on the south-east and on the east by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said district parish of Saint Thomas Radcliffe from the parish of Radcliffe aforesaid at the centre of Water-lane Canal Bridge which carries that portion of the Radcliffe highway which is called or known as Water-lane over the Manchester Bolton and Bury Canal and extending thence first north-eastward and then northward along the middle of the said canal for a distance of about one mile and two-thirds of a mile to the boundary a little to the south of the mill on the River Irwell known as Hinds Logwood Mill which boundary divides the said parish of Radcliffe from the new parish of All Saints Elton aforesaid.

"And also all that contiguous portion of the said district parish, of Saint Thomas Radcliffe which is bounded on the east by the above described portion of the parish of Radcliffe aforesaid on the north and on the north-west by the new parish of Christ Church Ainsworth aforesaid and upon the remaining sides that is to say on the south and on the south-west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the last-named cure from the district parish of Saint Thomas Radcliffe aforesaid at a point in the middle of the said Radcliffe Highway about twelve chains to the west of the house called or known as Moor Gate and extending thence eastward for a distance of fifty-seven chains or thereabouts along the middle of the last-named road (passing Moor Gate aforesaid) and along the middle of Old Turks-road to the point where the last-named road is crossed by the stream or watercourse called or known as Ox Hey Brook such point being about three chains to the east of the house called or known as Old Turks and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the said stream or watercourse for a distance of forty-six chains or thereabouts to the boundary at the centre of the culvert which carries that branch of the said Radcliffe Highway which is called or known as Black Lane-road over the same stream or watercourse which boundary divides the said district parish of Saint Thomas Radcliffe from the above described portion of the parish of Radcliffe aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Manchester.
