And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation one month before the said sixth day of July.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 21st day of May, 1878.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT:

Lord President.
Lord George Hamilton.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1869, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

1. This Order may be cited as The Schleswig-Holstein Order of 1878.

2. In this Order words have the same meaning as in The Animals Order of 1875.

3. This Order shall take effect from and immediately after the thirty-first day of May, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, and shall cease to have effect from and immediately after the thirty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, except as regards the recovery of any penalty incurred thereunder before that day.

4. During the continuance of this Order the operation of Chapter 18 of The Animals Order of 1875 (which chapter relates to cattle brought from Schleswig and Holstein) is hereby suspended.

5. Cattle brought from a port or place in either of the parts of the German Empire
