The Bankruptcy Act, 1869.

In the London Bankruptcy Court.

In the Matter of Frederick Taylor, of 87, Milk-street, in the city of London, Commission Agent, a Bankrupt. Before Mr. Registrar Pepsys, sitting as Chief Judge.

UPON reading a report of the Trustee of the property of the bankrupt, dated the 9th day of February, 1878, reporting that the whole of the property of the bankrupt had been realized for the benefit of his creditors, that an account of the moneys received and paid by him in this matter was filed on the 17th day of November, 1877, and shows an aggregate sum of £5, which was not sufficient for the purpose of a dividend of any kind, that he has now the sum of one penny in hand, that so much of the property of the bankrupt as can, according to the joint opinion of himself and the Committee of Inspection thereunto annexed under their hands, be realized without needlessly protracting the bankruptcy, has been realized, as shown by the statement of account already filed by him, and upon hearing Mr. Mackneth, for and on behalf of the said Trustee, and upon reading an affidavit of Frederick Simmons, filed the 6th day of May, 1878, and the report of the Official Assignee, dated the 14th day of May, 1878, and no one appearing to oppose such application, and the Court, being satisfied that so much of the property of the said bankrupt as can, according to the joint opinion of the Trustee and the Committee of Inspection be realized, has been realized for the benefit of the creditors of the said bankrupt, doth order and declare that the bankruptcy of the said Frederick Taylor has closed.—Given under the Seal of the Court this 14th day of May, 1878.

The Bankruptcy Act, 1869.

In the London Bankruptcy Court.

In the Matter of Joseph Nixon, of 66, Wood-street, in the city of London, Wholesale Hosiery, and of 70, Knowle-road, Brixton, Surrey, a Bankrupt. Before Mr. Registrar Hazlitt, sitting as Chief Judge.

UPON reading a report of the Trustee of the property of the bankrupt, dated the 16th day of June, 1877, reporting that the whole of the property of the bankrupt had been realized for the benefit of his creditors, and dividends amounting together to seven shillings and eight pence halfpenny in the pound paid, except as to four pounds fifteen shillings and one penny, being the amount of unclaimed dividends, as shown by the statement thereunto annexed, and upon reading an affidavit of F. W. Lord, sworn on the 14th day of May, 1878, of notice having been given to all the creditors who had proved debts of this application, and upon reading the report of the Official Assignee herein, dated the 16th day of May, 1878, and upon hearing Mr. J. G. Shearman, Solicitor for the said Trustee, and no creditor appearing to oppose the application, and the Court being satisfied that the whole of the property of the bankrupt has been realized for the benefit of his creditors, and that dividends amounting to seven shillings and eight pence halfpenny in the pound have been declared, doth order and declare that the bankruptcy of the said Joseph Nixon has closed.—Given under the Seal of the Court this 17th day of May, 1878.
