THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.

GREEN TYE FAIR (MUCH HADHAM).

IN pursuance of the above-mentioned Act, I, the Right Honourable Richard Assheton Cross, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, hereby notify as follows :

1. By Memorial, dated the 27th day of July, 1877, a representation has been duly made to me by the Justices acting in the Albury Petty Sessional Division of the county of Hertford, that a Fair has been annually held on the 23rd day of June, at Green Tye, in the parish of Much Hadham, in the said division of the said county, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that such Fair should be abolished :

2. On the 4th day of July, 1878, I shall take the aforesaid representation into consideration, and all persons are to intimate, before that day, any objection they may desire to offer to the abolition of the said Fair.

Richard Assheton Cross.

Whitehall, June 4, 1878.

THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.

ACLE FAIR.

WHEREAS a representation has been duly made to me, as Secretary of State for the Home Department, by the Right Honourable Lord Calthorpe, as owner, that a Fair has been annually held on the 24th and 25th days of June, in the parish of Acle, in the county of Norfolk, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished :

And whereas notice of the said representation, and of the time when I should take the same into consideration, has been duly published in pursuance of "The Fairs Act, 1871."

And whereas, on such representation and consideration, it appears to me that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished :

Now, therefore, I, as the Secretary of State for the Home Department, in exercise of the powers vested in me by "The Fairs Act, 1871," do hereby order that the Fair which has been annually held on the 24th and 25th days of June, in the parish of Acle, in the county of Norfolk, shall be abolished as from the date of this order.

Given under my hand at Whitehall, this 4th day of June, 1878.

Richard Assheton Cross.

THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.

BILLERICAY FAIRS.

WHEREAS a representation has been duly made to me, as Secretary of State for the Home Department, by the Justices acting in the Brentwood Petty Sessional Division of the county of Essex, that Fairs have been annually held on the 2nd and 3rd days of August, and on the 7th and 8th days of October, respectively, in the town of Billericay, in the parish of Great Burstead, in the said division of the said county, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fairs should be abolished :

And whereas notice of the said representation, and of the time when I should take the same into
